THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME NOVEMBER 14, 2021

From the Pastor's Desk...

On this Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time we are reminded in today's Gospel that no one can say when heaven and earth as we know them will pass away – not the angels, not the Son, Jesus himself – only the Father. As followers and disciples of Jesus our mission is to watch constantly for his coming, that is, to live each moment, each hour, and each day like he will come back this evening, or this midnight, or dawn tomorrow, or tomorrow morning…

Last week was National Vocation Awareness Week. It is a time for each of us to pray for an increase in Holy vocations to Matrimony, Consecrated Life, the Diaconate, and the Priesthood. For this reason, if there is a young man or woman that you are aware of that you feel has the gifts and charisms of making a good priest or religious, please don't hesitate to let them know that you see these qualities in them and encourage them by affirming these gifts that you see. You might even suggest that they speak to one of their parish priests or one of the sisters here who can help them to discern the possibility of pursuing priesthood or the religious life.

In any case, I ask all in our parish to especially pray for our seminarians who are currently on the road to the priesthood. To help you do so and to put a face to the names of our seminarians you will find on a table in the gathering space of the church, little cards with the names and pictures of our present seminarians along with a little biography for each of them. Please take one or two cards home with you and pray for them. Ask God to empower these young men with the gifts they will need to serve His people as they make their way to ordination.

In the next couple of weeks all our registered households will be receiving a sort of newsletter/magazine that will contain important information we feel all in our parish should be aware of. Because so many of our parishioners have still not returned to church and are not receiving information about our parish via the Sunday bulletin and many do not have computers to get this information online, we decided a parish mailing would be a good idea.

This newsletter will contain:
- the Annual Parish Financial Report
- Important Renew My Church information regarding the future of our local parishes
- a Christian Stewardship article
- Give Central and Electronic Giving Sign-up information
- An important request and information on how you can help your parish purchase new Music Hymnals for our church
- Our Advent and Christmas Schedule of Masses and Services
- Christmas Contribution envelope and Return Mailing Envelope

As you might imagine, this has been a very difficult year financially for our parish. I am so grateful to all in our community who have been making up their past few months' contributions while they have not been attending Mass. It is truly helping. Please help us make up the growing deficit by sending or mailing in your contributions and by, hopefully, substantially increasing your Christmas offering to our church this year at a time when it is most needed. Parishes that are doing very well during this pandemic are those whose parishioners are offering their financial support through electronic giving such as Give Central.

Congratulations to parishioners Joe and Denise De Leo who celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary last weekend with a Renewal of Vows after Mass. 50 years is quite an accomplishment and we wish you many more years living happily together. Thank you, Joe and Denise, and to all in our parish who are living out daily the promise and commitment you made to each other on the day of your wedding.

GOD'S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
WORKING ON THE MARGINS

- LEARN about those living in poverty.
- ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier.
- CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection.
- PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

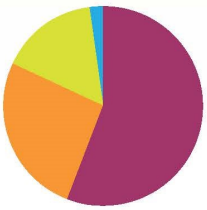

We all depend on workers in America's meat-processing plants and animal-feeding operations, who are essential to the food supply chain. Many of them are immigrants facing language barriers that leave them at a disadvantage when they advocate for safe working conditions, just wages, and fair treatment from employers. The Rural Community Workers Alliance (RCWA) in Missouri helps these essential workers by advocating on their behalf for safe working conditions and by promoting gatherings to address racial divisions in the community as a way to help immigrants and nonimmigrants discover similarities and share their experiences.

The COVID-19 pandemic revealed working conditions at a pork-processing plant that placed workers at risk of infection due to shoulder-to-shoulder work areas and a lack of protective gear. Workers brought their concerns to RCWA and ultimately filed a lawsuit demanding that the company follow health and safety guidelines established by the federal government. Even before the court ruled on the lawsuit, the company took action to protect workers by installing protective barriers, sanitizing stations, providing masks, and conducting temperature checks. When you support CCHD's mission of working on the margins, you help groups such as RCWA advocate for the health and safety of the essential workers that we all depend upon.

Confident at His coming

People have been predicting the second coming of Jesus since shortly after His first coming. In Bethlehem. The truth of His arrival time is securely hidden in the heart of the Father. When Jesus spoke about signs and seasons preceding His second coming, His purpose was not to pinpoint dates or calendar years. His purpose simply was to keep us alert and watchful. Our Lord would have us keep company with Jesus, calmly and confidently, until He does come in final glory. The landscape of history is cluttered with "end times" clock watches. But if we truly believe, we won't be watching our clocks, but watching our Jesus instead.

Retirement Plan Gifts for Our Parish

Please consider making a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) gift to our parish

Making a gift from your IRA can benefit you and our parish. An IRA charitable rollover, also known as a qualified charitable distribution (QCD), allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free.

There are three main benefits of giving with a QCD:

- If you are 72 years old or older, the amount you transfer can satisfy all or part of your required minimum distribution.
- The amount transferred directly to charity does not generate taxable income, which may reduce your annual income level. This may help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax.
- Your gift will be immediately used, allowing you to see the impact of your gift now.

If you wish to have your QCD gift qualify for the current tax year, we recommend submitting your request to your IRA administrator by December 1st.

If you would like more information on making a QCD gift, please consult with your account administrator for more information or contact us here at St. Eugene by calling 773-775-6659. You can ask to speak with our parish Business Manager, Anthony Woldeit or you can email him at awoldeit@st-eugene.org or you can contact Krystina M. Campbell, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.534.5404 or kcampbell@archchicago.org].

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This week might be a good time to stock our spiritual cupboard along with our kitchen cupboard in preparation for our celebration of Thanksgiving. Before there was a Thanksgiving Day, even before there were Pilgrims, the Roman Catholic Church celebrated Ember Days ("change-of-season days") as periods of thanksgiving for seasonal harvests. This means it is a customary Catholic way to give thanks to God through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. In the 1969 reformed calendar it was left up to the national conferences of bishops to set dates for Ember Days. (The ones on the old calendar fit a Mediterranean climate, and on the new calendar it was imagined that each nation knew best when to schedule such seasonally oriented days.)

The United States bishops have not yet resurrected Ember Days, Rogations Days, and other national days of prayer. However, tucked within Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers (a book published by the U. S. bishops) is a chapter on Ember Days that proposes, among others, the three days before Thanksgiving as days of prayer, charity, and fasting. Why wait for an official proclamation? Why not undertake to observe those three days in that way in your parish, or even in your family? What could be more natural at this time of year?

FEAST OF FAITH

Blessing and Dismissal

At the beginning of Mass, the priest made the sign of the cross with us. At the conclusion of Mass, he makes the sign of the cross over us, a sign of blessing. We are then dismissed—not just let out, but sent forth with a mission "to love and serve the Lord." Just as Jesus blessed his disciples as he ascended to heaven, so this leave-taking is joined to a blessing, a prayer for God's continuing protection. As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow. In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, "Christians are indistinguishable from other [people] either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives" (Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, p. 840). We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ's own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love.
