From the Pastor's Desk...

This weekend, the liturgical year comes to a close with the Feast of Christ the King – the last Sunday of Ordinary Time. The irony of this day is the connection between the kingship of Christ and the wood of the cross and His suffering on the cross. The way of God's kingdom is not the way of earthly kingdoms. The road to our eternal home involves suffering and service to one another. This is in direct conflict with the understanding and comprehension of earthly kings and kingdoms of the past. Hopefully, we have all come to better understand that God's ways are not always our ways.

Fr. Walter Ciszek, the Jesuit priest imprisoned for years in a Soviet gulag, writes in his book, He Leadeth Me, "There is a tremendous truth contained in the realization that when God became man, he became a working man---not a king or chieftain, not a warrior nor statesman, not a great leader of nations." Today we see Jesus as King, neither of nations nor tribes, but as King of the Cross, working to free us from sin and bring us to salvation.

Jesus leads by example and he leads by love. He shows us first how God intends for us to live and then, out of love, suffers for us so that we might be freed from the power of sin and death. Jesus conquers sin, and in so doing, conquers our hearts. We honor him as king crucified, not king glorified, because in his suffering he most identifies with us. And in his glory, he gives us hope.

We serve Jesus and follow him. We do not call him king, though he truly is. We do not call him ruler. We call him Lord, Savior and Son of God. But mostly, we call him Jesus, our brother. He lives, he rules, he leads and guides. But most of all, he loves us.

As we prepare for Advent, which begins next weekend, may we always remember what the gospels help us all to see and understand – that the lowly are exalted, sinners are called righteous and that the one who dies gives life. We close this and every liturgical year with the ultimate paradox: The one to whom we offer glory, honor and praise is lifted high for all to see -- seemingly powerless on the cross…and what Jesus' tormentors' thought was a mockery by inscribing over his head "INRI" – Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews – was indeed the truth.

This Thursday, November 25th, is Thanksgiving Day. As is our tradition, we will be having Mass at 9:00 a.m. on that day. (not the usual time of 6:30 a.m.) This will be the only Mass celebrated on Thanksgiving, when we will gather as a parish family to give thanks to God for all His blessings in our lives and nation.

I truly encourage all in our parish to join us for this special Mass, even if this has not been your practice in the past. What better way to start off this national holiday than to gather around the Lord's Table before we come together later in the day to celebrate with family and friends. And if this will not be the case for you, let us be your family on Thanksgiving morning. So, pop the turkey in the oven and plan on joining us around the Lord's Table at St. Eugene this Thursday.

To help you and your family make the best of the upcoming Advent Season which begins next weekend, we have once again purchased the "Little Blue Books" for you to carry with you, keep in your cars, family rooms, bedrooms, dinner tables, pockets, etc… This book is a great way to help you keep the Advent Season, with a prayerful and reflective time throughout each day. It is not too difficult or overwhelming, but rather a mixture of a variety of facts about the Advent and Christmas seasons and other various traditions and customs.

The right-hand pages of the book will walk you through the Advent daily Mass scriptures a little bit at a time. You will find that it is very easy to pray this way and I encourage everyone in our parish to take a copy home with you. This is just another way to help bring our traditions, faith, church, and prayer into our daily lives.

These booklets have been purchased for you. There is no charge for them. All I ask is that you make an effort to use them regularly. You will find the "Little Blue Books" not only an aid to your prayer life but also extremely informative with regard to the many traditions of our Church. They will be available next weekend at all of the Masses. PLEASE TAKE ONE!

CHRIST, THE KING

The selection from the book of Daniel presented in today's first reading was part of an attempt to weave a vision of ultimate success for the Jews under persecution. Exactly whom the author had in mind when he refers to "one like a Son of Man" is hotly disputed by scholars today. The fact is, we simply do not know if the author meant anyone in particular or if this is a collective, figurative image of Israel's triumph. What we do know is that the early Christian community seized upon this passage and recognized it as a messianic prophecy, a foretelling of the ultimate triumph of Jesus as the Christ of God. The Lectionary's juxtaposition of this text with today's Gospel narrative of Jesus before Pilate is a wonderful example of how the liturgy "layers" passages with new meaning by inserting them in a particular context.

The celebration of Christ the King allows us to hear these passages with a new depth of meaning in light of our contemporary understanding of how, in Jesus and his resurrection and ascension, we have seen the fulfillment of Daniel's vision of ultimate deliverance. The veiled admission of Jesus before Pilate that he did indeed have a kingdom "not here" takes on new meaning against the cosmic vision of Daniel, who allows us to glimpse the "Ancient One" on his heavenly throne.

Join us in Adoration to Defeat Abortion

Catholics across the country are being called to join together in Eucharistic Adoration in anticipation of the Supreme Court's hearing of oral arguments in the Dobbs vs. Jackson case.

"For nearly 50 years no Supreme Court case has been the object of as much protest and criticism, from inside and outside the court system, than Roe v. Wade. It is seen as a tragically consequential overreach of jurisprudence," said Father Frank Pavone, National Director of Priests for Life. "The states created the federal government, not the other way around, and it is my hope that the case Dobbs vs. Jackson Women's Health Organization out of Mississippi will see the return of the rights of states to decide how and whether to protect their own citizens from abortion."

The case centers on a Mississippi law that would protect babies from abortion at 15 weeks. The Court has agreed to decide whether protecting children in the womb from abortion prior to viability is constitutional.

A decision by the Court to allow states to decide whether abortion should be legal would have far-reaching consequences:

- 21 states have laws or constitutional amendments on their books that would lead to the protection of unborn children from abortion within their borders;
- An additional five states are ready to enact laws to protect most of these children;
- 11 states have laws protecting babies after a heartbeat is detected but, unlike the Texas law, these laws have been blocked by various courts.
- Four states have constitutions that do not recognize a right to abortion.

"Places like California and New York, Vermont and Illinois, will continue to kill our most vulnerable brothers and sisters," Father Pavone said. "But tens of thousands of lives will be saved each year."

There is no way of knowing how the Court will rule on either the Texas case or the Mississippi case but it is clear the whole nation is watching.

Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director, Priests for Life Prayer Campaign.,org

Prayer for Victory at the US Supreme Court

God our Father,
You are the Author of Life,
And the Protector of all.

We your people, filled with Your Spirit,
Stand with life and for life,
and we reject whatever destroys life.

Lord, we live in a culture of death,
Where children in the womb are destroyed each day
By an unregulated and uncaring abortion industry
That also wounds and sometimes kills their mothers.

We pray today for the safety
Of those children and their families.
Protect them from physical and moral dangers,
And let them experience the help of your people.

We pray in particular for the abortion case
Now being heard at the Supreme Court.
Lord, bless those who are arguing this case
On behalf of the safety of mothers in Louisiana
And throughout our land.

Bless and guide the Justices of the Supreme Court,
And their clerks who assist them.
Give them the wisdom to see
How dangerous the abortion industry is,
And the respect for lawmakers
That allows them to act on behalf of the people they serve.

We pray also for the conversion of abortionists
And of those in our society who support them.
Change their hearts, open their minds,
And give them repentance and new life.

Father, may Your Kingdom come,
And let your people rejoice in the victory of life.

Please join us on Monday, November 29.

Eucharistic Adoration begins at 4:00 pm. We will say a Rosary for Life beginning at 5:30 pm, followed by Benediction at 5:45 pm. Please bring the intentions of the pro-life movement and of the unborn before the Lord.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST KING OF THE UNIVERSE
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Despite the fact that the feast of Christ the King was established less than a century ago, it has already undergone a shift in focus. When Pope Pius XI established this feast in 1925, nationalism and fascism were on the rise. The pope intended that it be a "vehicle for spiritual teaching," one that would recognize the ultimate authority of Christ over all political and social scheming. The last Sunday of October was chosen as the date for the feast because of its proximity to the feast of All Saints, those men and women who bore witness to Christ's reign in so many different ways.

The calendar reforms of 1969 moved the feast to the last Sunday of the liturgical year. There, in the context of November's focus on the end times, Christ's second coming at the end of all time is highlighted. The threefold cycle of readings also expands our imaginations in regard to this feast. In this year's Gospel, Christ stands before Pilate, whose own power blinds him to the truth of the Lord's kingdom. In a world where oppression still holds sway over too many people, this feast is somehow still as timely as when Pope Pius XI first established it.

"I came that they might have life,

Count your blessings

At times its seems difficult to be thankful. But once you stop to think about what you have and who you are, being grateful seems the most natural thing in the world. Most of us simply don't take time to count our blessings. If we did, our hearts would daily sing in gratitude. And, how much more grateful must we feel for our spiritual riches. We are by adoption children of God. We are sons and daughters of the Maker of the Universe! How can we for even one fleeting moment grouse ungratefully? We can not. We must be grateful always and everywhere.

Prayer for Christ the King Sunday

O God who has set before us the great hope that Your kingdom shall be established on earth, so rule our lives by Your Spirit that all Our thoughts, desires, and acts being made obedient unto You, Your power, Your glory and the mightiness of Your kingdom may be made known unto men. Grant this O merciful Father for Jesus Christ's sake, Your son, our Lord. Amen

FEAST OF FAITH

Procession

"The Mass is ended, go in peace." At the beginning of Mass, the ministers entered in solemn procession, an emblem of the diverse community that comes together around the altar each week to celebrate the Eucharist. As Mass ends, another procession forms, and the ministers go forth from the church. This concluding procession also acts as an emblem of the entire assembly, who, nourished by the Eucharist, will now go forth to our scattered homes and places of work to be a transforming leaven of the gospel in the world. At the beginning of Mass, the priest kissed the altar as a sign of greeting, a gesture of reverence for Christ. Now, the priest reverences the altar again, this time in a gesture of farewell. We gather our things and go forth as we entered—but not quite. Through our celebration of the Eucharist, we have renewed our commitment to service of Christ our King, and we go forth nourished, strengthened, renewed—changed.
