From the Pastor's Desk...

Today we celebrate with Catholics and many other Christian churches throughout the world the First Sunday of Advent and the beginning of our preparation for Christmas. This year because of how dates fall, the Advent Season will be almost a full four weeks long. Let's try to reclaim this holy season and use these days by creating some sacred space in our lives as we prepare for the great season of joy – Christmas.

One of the greatest gifts that we as Catholics possess is our faith – not only our personal faith, but the rich tradition of our faith that has its roots in Christ and the apostles. This rich tradition takes us back to over 2000 years ago. Our present Pope continues to lead our Church in the unbroken chain of apostolic succession from St. Peter to the present. No other Christian religion or faith tradition can make this claim. We, then, as Catholics ought to be proud of this rich tradition and legacy of faith and also knowledgeable in it.

One of the sad realities I hear so often from parish members is the concern they have for their teenage or adult children who "seem" to have strayed from the faith. Parents say things like, "I don't know what happened. We did all that we could to raise our children in the Catholic Faith. We put them through Catholic Schools and/or religious education programs but for some reason they went in a different direction." Sometimes it can even be worse when I hear that the adult children of practicing Catholics participate in no faith at all or even denounce the fact that God exists.

Another frequent scenario is this: a teenaged son or daughter of a Catholic family develops friendships with their peers who happen to be active members of other religious denominations such as Evangelicals, Bible churches, Pentecostals, and others. These groups often speak of the importance of "the personal relationship" with Jesus Christ as well as being "born again." We as Catholics have always emphasized the importance of a personal relationship with the Lord though we may articulate it in different ways. As far as being "born again", we view our baptism as bringing us into a life-long relationship with the Lord and we are "born again" every moment of our lives when we fully and freely embrace this life and relationship Christ calls us to daily.

On the one hand, we must applaud the efforts our Christian brothers and sisters make at pro-actively evangelizing others with the hope of drawing them into their folds. There is much we can learn from their efforts. On the other hand, however, if Catholics truly studied and understood their own faith as readily and as willingly as they are willing to embrace a faith or set of teachings and doctrines of other religious organizations, they would find that there truly is no other place to be than in the Roman Catholic Church. Why are Catholics so willing to accept criticisms about our faith or even renounce their Catholic faith based upon what others have to say who either do not know all the facts about our faith or are themselves ill-informed?

With this in mind, I would like to strongly encourage every Catholic to obtain for themselves and their family members a copy of the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults. This book will help you to both explore and deepen your faith individually and as a family. It will help you to know the facts about what we as Catholics believe and better yet, why we believe, what we hold so dear to our faith tradition. You can find out more information about this resource as well as many others by going to the website, www.usccbpublishing.org. Other good resources are: The Catholic Faith Handbook for Youth put out by St. Mary's Press and The Catechism of the Catholic Church put out by Liguori Publications.

To help you and your family make the best of the upcoming Advent and Christmas Seasons, we have once again purchased the "Little Blue Books" for you to carry with you, keep in your car, in your family room, at your dinner table, or in your pocket, etc. This book is a great way to help you keep the Advent and Christmas Seasons in a prayerful and reflective way. These little books contain a mixture of facts about the seasons, the feasts of these days and other various traditions and customs.

The right-hand pages of the book will walk you through the Sunday Gospels for Cycle C. You will find that it is very easy to pray this way and I encourage all in our parish to take a copy home with you. This is just another way to bring our rich traditions, faith, church, and prayer into our daily lives.

This book is perhaps the most creative and informative resource that I have come upon to help prepare us for the seasons of Advent and Christmas. Please be sure to pick up a copy from the wicker baskets near the doors of the church. These are complimentary copies provided for you by our parish and will be available until all are taken. Don't miss out.

WATCHFUL CONFIDENCE

We the Church enter into Advent and the new liturgical year with a call for a watchful confidence. Our readings were originally addressed to communities undergoing great loss and confusion. Jeremiah speaks confidently of God fulfilling the ancient promises to Israel, even during a time of foreign invasion. Paul speaks of God leading the Church into holiness, while the community longs for the coming of Jesus. In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus speaks of powerful signs and of great confusion to come, but emphasizes that we may look forward knowing that God brings not cause for despair, but hope. We celebrate Advent to remind each other of God's faithfulness. We are to be watchful, to see how God is stirring up our world. God disturbs both our pride and our complacency, and brings us healing and justice. We prepare ourselves to welcome Jesus, confident that God indeed fulfills all these divine promises.

OUR LADY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH FRIENDSHIP CLUB

COME join the Senior Club (Friendship Club) at Our Lady, Mother of the Church for a bus trip that is a full day of fun.

We all meet in the morning to board the bus to White Fence Farm in Romeoville. Upon arrival we enjoy looking at the extensive collection of antiques in the grand reception area. After that, we gather for a three-course delicious chicken dinner followed by a Holiday show. At day's end we return to the parish.

Join us in Adoration to Defeat Abortion

Catholics across the country are being called to join together in Eucharistic Adoration in anticipation of the Supreme Court's hearing of oral arguments in the Dobbs vs. Jackson case.

"For nearly 50 years no Supreme Court case has been the object of as much protest and criticism, from inside and outside the court system, than Roe v. Wade. It is seen as a tragically consequential overreach of jurisprudence," said Father Frank Pavone, National Director of Priests for Life. "The states created the federal government, not the other way around, and it is my hope that the case Dobbs vs. Jackson Women's Health Organization out of Mississippi will see the return of the rights of states to decide how and whether to protect their own citizens from abortion."

The case centers on a Mississippi law that would protect babies from abortion at 15 weeks. The Court has agreed to decide whether protecting children in the womb from abortion prior to viability is constitutional.

A decision by the Court to allow states to decide whether abortion should be legal would have far-reaching consequences:

- 21 states have laws or constitutional amendments on their books that would lead to the protection of unborn children from abortion within their borders;
- An additional five states are ready to enact laws to protect most of these children;
- 11 states have laws protecting babies after a heartbeat is detected but, unlike the Texas law, these laws have been blocked by various courts.
- Four states have constitutions that do not recognize a right to abortion.

"Places like California and New York, Vermont and Illinois, will continue to kill our most vulnerable brothers and sisters," Father Pavone said. "But tens of thousands of lives will be saved each year."

There is no way of knowing how the Court will rule on either the Texas case or the Mississippi case but it is clear the whole nation is watching.

Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director, Priests for Life Prayer Campaign.,org

Prayer for Victory at the US Supreme Court

God our Father,
You are the Author of Life,
And the Protector of all.

We your people, filled with Your Spirit,
Stand with life and for life,
and we reject whatever destroys life.

Lord, we live in a culture of death,
Where children in the womb are destroyed each day
By an unregulated and uncaring abortion industry
That also wounds and sometimes kills their mothers.

We pray today for the safety
Of those children and their families.
Protect them from physical and moral dangers,
And let them experience the help of your people.

We pray in particular for the abortion case
Now being heard at the Supreme Court.
Lord, bless those who are arguing this case
On behalf of the safety of mothers in Louisiana
And throughout our land.

Bless and guide the Justices of the Supreme Court,
And their clerks who assist them.
Give them the wisdom to see
How dangerous the abortion industry is,
And the respect for lawmakers
That allows them to act on behalf of the people they serve.

We pray also for the conversion of abortionists
And of those in our society who support them.
Change their hearts, open their minds,
And give them repentance and new life.

Father, may Your Kingdom come,
And let your people rejoice in the victory of life.

Please join us on Monday, November 29.

Eucharistic Adoration begins at 4:00 pm. We will say a Rosary for Life beginning at 5:30 pm, followed by Benediction at 5:45 pm. Please bring the intentions of the pro-life movement and of the unborn before the Lord.

You are cordially invited to join the Ministry of Prayer.

What is the Ministry of Prayer?

Volunteers in this ministry pray daily for the needs of the church, community, and world. The goal of this ministry is to provide us with the opportunity to pray "together while apart." Although this ministry was originally directed to those who are homebound, it has expanded to include any of us who would like to pray as a group, even though we never formally get together, using the prayer intentions provided for us, while in our favorite place to pray. The prayers can be as simple as an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be, a decade of the rosary, it can be a simple conversation with Our Lord, or it could be taking a few minutes to meditate on the prayer intention. Whatever prayer method is used is the best prayer.

If you would like to join the Ministry of Prayer, simply fill out the form below and you will receive the prayer intentions for the months of December, January & February. There is no fee; there are no meetings to attend. Every three months, you will receive the prayer intentions for the next 3 months. All you are asked to do is to pray for the intention of that day — that's it! There is power in prayer, especially when we pray together — even if we are all in our own homes! Won't you join us?

Please fill in the form below; drop it off at the rectory office; drop it in the collection basket; mail it in; or email the information to us.

What Will Your Legacy Be?

Your legacy is a reflection of your values and must be cultivated through thoughtful planning. If you want your assets to be given to the people and charities you care deeply about after your passing, then it's important for you to establish a formal estate plan. Your estate includes everything you own, regardless of size.

If you have already included a gift to support our parish, school or the archdiocese, please let us know about your generous gift so you can ensure that your wishes are carried out as you intend.

Consult an attorney and financial advisor when creating your estate plan. For more information, please contact us here at St. Eugene by calling 773-775-6659. You can ask to speak with our parish Business Manager, Anthony Woldeit or you can email him at awoldeit@st-eugene.org or to request the free guide, "Tips for Creating an Effective Estate Plan," please contact Krystina M. Campbell, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.534.5404 or kcampbell@archchicago.org].

First Sunday of Advent
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Occasionally, someone raises a surprised complaint that while Christmas arrives on Santa's sleigh at the Macy's parade on Thanksgiving Day, the Church doesn't catch on too fast. They may even say that Advent is a new-fangled idea. Not so. To trace its beginnings, we have to go back to the fourth or fifth century in France (then Gaul), when Epiphany was the favored day, next to Easter, for baptism. The old pagan structures of Rome were collapsing then, and many people sought to be baptized. Since adults always prepared for baptism by fasting, folks counted back a few weeks for a kind of retreat. Before too long, bishops were advising everyone to attend church frequently beginning on December 17. Soon, artists were imagining ways of expressing the Advent mystery, and in Italy this gave rise to beautiful mosaics of empty thrones awaiting the arrival of the Lord of all creation.

Advent as we know it develops on two separate tracks: the first having to do with our spiritual preparation for celebrating the Christmas feast, and the second having to do with the way this is organized and expressed in the liturgical readings and prayers every day of the season. PARISHIONERS, NEIGHBORING PARISH MEMBERS, ALONG WITH YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS ARE INVITED TO JOIN US ON OUR UPCOMING TRIP TO:

OBERAMMERGAU AND "THE PASSION PLAY"

With visits to Croatia, Slovenia, Italy and the Alps

I just wanted to let you all know that we are definitely going to Oberammergau to experience the "Passion Play" in July of 2022 – next year; July 15 – 25, 2022 to be exact. I am so happy that the majority of all those previously signed up for this trip held their reservations. For this reason, we have an almost full trip. There are only 14 spots left to fill. I want to give all in our community an opportunity to experience this once-every-ten-years experience. If you would like a copy of the full brochure for our Oberammergau trip please fill out the form below and get it back to me and I will gladly send you and/or your travelling companion a copy. To hold your spot for this trip simply send in the Reservation form on page two of the brochure with the required deposit.

If anyone would like more information on this trip that will be taking us to Austria, Croatia, Slovenia, Italy and the Alps, feel free to give me a call at St. Eugene's at 773-775-6659 or email me at ryanos@st-eugene.org and I'll be happy to answer any of your questions.

I have been asked by many of you if I will be rescheduling our Italy trip to Rome and Sicily as well as the Holy Land Trip. And the answer is YES. These are always destinations that fill up quickly and are very popular. If you or anyone you know might be interested in going to either of these places send me an email or give me a call to let me know.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

First Sunday of Advent

Grant your faithful, we pray, almighty God,
the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ
with righteous deeds at his coming,
so that, gathered at his right hand,
they may be worthy to possess the heavenly Kingdom.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:
What righteous deeds would I be able to bring with me if Christ returned this week?
