IMPORTANT UPCOMING RENEW MY CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING THE PARISHES IN OUR GROUPING

In just a week and a half the official announcement regarding the future of our local parishes will be made public. There have been many meetings, conversations, and discussions as well as tours of each of our grouping parishes. The input of the over 30 Grouping Team members from St. Rosalie, St. Monica, Divine Savior, Our Lady Mother of the Church and St. Eugene over the past six months has culminated in recommendations given to archdiocesan representatives that have then made their recommendations to the Cardinal. What we will be hearing on January 26th is the Cardinal's final decision regarding the new configuration of the five parishes in our grouping.

We are pleased that Bishop Mark Bartosic and Bishop Kevin Birmingham, the regional bishops and Cardinal Cupich's representatives to our region of the archdiocese, will be with us on Wednesday, January 26, at 8:00 pm, to join us in prayer and share an important update on the future of our parishes. This event will be held online. Please go to www.renewmychurch.org/announcements for details about how to access the meeting from your computer or smartphone. On the day of the announcement, January 26th, a live link will be on that same page that you will be able to click to access directly.

For anyone in our parish that might want to own their own personal copy of The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, you can purchase one or more for yourself and/or your family members or friends for only $20 each. This is a substantially reduced price from the regular price of $29.95. They can be purchased at the rectory during normal business hours and occasionally in the vestibule of church after our weekend Masses. The monies collected from the sale of these books will be given to our Young Adult Group to provide funding for some of their upcoming activities and events.

The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults includes stories, doctrine, reflections, quotations, discussion questions and prayers leading the reader to a deepening faith. It is also an excellent resource for preparation of catechumens in the Rite of Christian Initiation and for ongoing catechesis and faith formation for adults. It can also be used as a guide for individuals and small groups to deepen their faith. This is a resource every Catholic household should have.

They will be made available to our parish community until they are sold out.

A few weeks ago you may have noticed how much brighter it was in our church and how much easier it was to read your prayer books or even our new hymnals. This was due to the replacement of our former light bulbs with LED with higher lumens but substantially less wattage. I want to thank our maintenance crew for their efforts in changing out all of the many bulbs in the ceiling of our church. So many of our parishioners have commented on how much they appreciate the brighter worship environment. Little by little you are seeing improvements to our church and school facilities as we are able to get them done. We are currently in the process of renovating Meeting Room 110 so that it will be able to be used for Adult Faith Formation, Baptismal Prep, R.C.I.A., as well as Finance Council, Parish Council, Staff and School Board Meetings. It will be equipped with a large round meeting table, a large screen television for video presentations, LED dimmable ceiling lighting, a new sound system, double glass doors, new cabinetry and will be freshly carpeted. I think all those who will be using this newly renovated room will be very happy with the new environment that has been created.

Finally, we celebrate Martin Luther King, Jr. Day on Monday which is a National Holiday. The following are some of his words of wisdom:

"Thermostats not Thermometers"

"The early Christians rejoiced when they were deemed worthy to suffer for what they believed. In those days the Church was not merely a thermometer that recorded the ideas and principles of popular opinion. The Church was a thermostat that transformed the mores of society."

Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Have a blessed week everyone!

REVELATION OF GOD'S PRESENCE

Today's first reading from Isaiah arises out of the ordeal of the people of Jerusalem and Judea as they anticipate the end of seventy years of exile in Babylon. Their sufferings and their oppression will end, and they are promised joy like that of a great wedding upon returning to their homeland. Although this passage is probably set in the early sixth century B.C., it is free of historical particulars. Accordingly, the Church has understood its imagery universally, as it proclaims God's promise of healing, hope, and happiness for all peoples, in this world and in the next. When read against this background, the story of Jesus' turning water into wine at the wedding at Cana becomes a revelation of God's presence in the person of Jesus, making these promises real for us in the here and now, in the transformation of our own lives.

DECEMBER 5, 2021 - FAMILY MASS
FEATURING 5TH GRADE

You are cordially invited to join the Ministry of Prayer.

What is the Ministry of Prayer?

Volunteers in this ministry pray daily for the needs of the church, community, and world. The goal of this ministry is to provide us with the opportunity to pray "together while apart." Although this ministry was originally directed to those who are homebound, it has expanded to include any of us who would like to pray as a group, even though we never formally get together, using the prayer intentions provided for us, while in our favorite place to pray. The prayers can be as simple as an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be, a decade of the rosary, it can be a simple conversation with Our Lord, or it could be taking a few minutes to meditate on the prayer intention. Whatever prayer method is used is the best prayer.

If you would like to join the Ministry of Prayer, simply fill out the form below and you will receive the prayer intentions for the months of January & February. There is no fee; there are no meetings to attend. Every three months, you will receive the prayer intentions for the next 3 months. All you are asked to do is to pray for the intention of that day — that's it! There is power in prayer, especially when we pray together — even if we are all in our own homes! Won't you join us?

Please fill in the form below; drop it off at the rectory office; drop it in the collection basket; mail it in; or email the information to us.

Expecting the unexpected

How easy it is to ignore the truths hidden in familiar stories. The story of the wedding at Cana may feel like "old news" but its message is still vibrant. Consider how the miracle of the wine shows us God using the most unlikely people. No one expected Mary to solve the party crisis. Yet it was Mary who pointed the waiters toward her Son. She was the key to the happy outcome. Our lives today are often gifted with unlikely people that can lead us out of our emptiness, if only we let them. God can direct miraculous things in our lives if we leave our preconceived notions, our expectations behind. The next time your vessels are empty let God do the choosing, and you may find His wine of healing flowing from the most unexpected jars.

SAINT AGNES (died 304)

January 21

Writing about Saint Agnes in the year 377, Saint Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, declared: "This is a virgin's birthday into heaven: let us imitate her chastity! And a martyr's heavenly birthday: let us offer ourselves in sacrifice!" Chastity: mastery of oneself in order to give of oneself whether in the priestly, religious, married, or single state. Sacrifice: "to make holy," to set someone or something apart for service. Ambrose knew these virtues indispensable for discipleship, but challenging to practice in his world--or our own. Barely a teenager, Agnes faced gruesome tortures bravely and, when ordered to worship pagan gods, boldly made the Sign of the Cross instead. Thus, her youthful courage strengthened adult believers who wavered under persecution or grew indifferent when persecutions passed. To bestow on Agnes its highest honor and keep her witness fresh in believers' hearts, the Church inscribed her name at the heart of the Eucharistic liturgy, in the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer I), until Vatican II the Roman Church's only Eucharistic Prayer.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time - Flipped-out Pharisees

The Gospel reading for this Sunday is not only the first miracle in John's Gospel, it is also John's first mention of Jesus' mother. I used to find it odd that Jesus addressed her as "Woman." I can't imagine my Dad letting me get away with that. But in that time the word was more respectful; it could even be affectionate. (The last time Jesus speaks to his mother--John 19:26--he also calls her "Woman." He certainly wasn't being disrespectful on the cross.) Jesus does help as his mother requested, but he does so in a way that doesn't draw attention to himself and also is a lesson about God's love.

You have probably heard how the Jewish people in Jesus' time performed purification rituals before eating anything. The cleansings were a sign that they wanted to be like God, completely free from sin. Eventually, it came to mean that you could not approach God until you cleansed yourself. Jesus used the miracle to show us a different way of understanding holiness. Jesus could have made the wine in bottles or wineskins to show that it was new. But he used the "six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings" (John 2:6). That meant that once they were full of wine, no one could wash themselves from the jars. I wonder how many Pharisees flipped out when they saw that.

The point is that no one can cleanse themselves. We don't purify ourselves in order to come to God--we come to God to be purified. God is the only one who can make us holy. God offers this to sinners especially, because sinners who know they need forgiveness are the only ones to receive it. Not because God excludes the rest. Those who don't think they are sinners or don't think they can be forgiven won't ask for it. God never forces mercy on anyone. It is offered to those who ask for it. The amount of wine (six big jars of about twenty-five gallons each) symbolizes the extent of God's mercy. As there was now more than enough wine for the wedding, God has more than enough mercy for those who need it. Wine is also a symbol of joy in the Old Testament. There is no greater joy than knowing that you have been forgiven by the Lord. Tom Schmidt, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION - The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

We have the wedding at Cana at the heart of today's liturgy because this story of Jesus' first miracle of water turned into wine was originally part of the Epiphany feast. Wedding celebrations always require some savvy planning, and a people who have a talent for hospitality in the mix. The mother of Jesus has been recruited to deal with some of the details of the banquet, and when a very understandable crisis arises, she does what she can to rescue the party. Anyone who has ever run out of ice, dessert, or table settings knows the stress!

Slowly, the memory of Jesus Christ's blessing of this marriage feast led the Church to form a way to bless marriages. A thousand years ago weddings migrated from the family home to the doors of the church, where the celebration was held in public view. From this practice came a prayer called the "Nuptial Blessing," one of the most solemn prayers in our tradition. It is very much like the prayers by which baptismal water and chrism are consecrated, the ordination prayer over a priest, and the Eucharistic Prayers over bread and wine. Four hundred fifty years ago, weddings moved inside the church building. All of this gives married couples good reason to celebrate this day as a mini-anniversary, especially with the clinking of glasses filled with good wine.
