IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT
REGARDING THE FUTURE OF THE PARISHES IN OUR AREA

This coming Wednesday, the official announcement regarding the future of our local parishes will be made public. There have been many meetings, conversations, and discussions as well as tours of each of our grouping parishes. The input of the over 30 Grouping Team members from St. Rosalie, St. Monica, Divine Savior, Our Lady Mother of the Church and St. Eugene over the past six months has culminated in recommendations given to archdiocesan representatives that have then made their recommendations to the Cardinal. What we will be hearing on January 26th is the Cardinal's final decision regarding the new configuration of the five parishes in our grouping.

We are pleased that Bishop Mark Bartosic and Bishop Kevin Birmingham, the regional bishops and Cardinal Cupich's representatives to our region of the archdiocese, will be with us on Wednesday, January 26, at 8:00 pm, to join us in prayer and share an important update on the future of our parishes. This event will be held online. Please go to www.renewmychurch.org/announcements for details about how to access the meeting from your computer or smartphone. On the day of the announcement, January 26th, a live link will be on that same page that you will be able to click on to access directly.

Some great news! The tradition of having our beautiful St. Joseph's Table will resume this year. The St. Joseph's Table planning committee had their first planning meeting last week and are all set and excited to once again be able to host this parish-wide event. This year, March 19th, St. Joseph's Day, falls on a Saturday. Due to the COVID world we are all living in, there will be some minor changes that are important to note. There will not be a general admission as has been in the past. Rather, there will be two seating times that you will be able to choose from. The first seating will be from 3:30pm to 5:30pm. Our Saturday evening Mass will then follow this seating at 5:30pm. Immediately after Mass will be a second seating from 6:30pm to 8:00pm. There will be a table blessing at the start of each seating.

Also, this year the entrance/admission to this event will be by ticket only as seating will be limited. The donation cost for tickets will be $10.00 for adults, $5.00 for children ages 4 to 14, and children 3 and under will be free. Tickets will be color coded for each seating. Remember that this is a charitable event and that all proceeds from the sale of tickets will go to help the poor and needy of our area who are struggling. To assure a seat for this year's table you are encouraged to get your tickets early. They will be able to be purchased at the rectory during normal business hours and/or in the vestibule of the church after our weekend Masses beginning February 1st. You don't want to miss out on this year's event. I know that so many of our parishioners are looking forward to getting out of their homes and to share in some delicious food and fraternity with fellow family members, friends, and parishioners while at the same time helping out our Social Concerns Ministry. We look forward to seeing you all on St. Joseph's Day.

There will also be a special St. Joseph's Day Mass offered on Saturday, March 19th at 8:30 am. This Mass is being offered especially for all the volunteers and workers making our St. Joseph's Table possible as well as for anyone in our parish and larger community that might want to celebrate St. Joseph's Day.

The 2023 Mass Book will be opened this Tuesday, January 25th, at 9:00 a.m. and be available for the addition of your special mass requests throughout the year. Please remember that there are some days when individual Mass Intentions will not be available such as All Soul's Day, Mother's Day and Father's Day. On these days we will have only one Mass Intention that will be for all of our deceased loved ones (All Soul's Day) as well as all of our living and deceased mothers and fathers (Mother's Day and Father's Day). There will be an opportunity, however, to include the names of your own personal deceased loved ones for All Soul's Day and for your individual living and deceased mothers, fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers, etc. for Mother's Day and Father's Day on the special envelopes that will provided in your monthly offering envelopes. These names, when submitted to the parish office or dropped in the collection basket, will then be printed on special pages in our parish bulletin as well as kept on our altar throughout the year.

Wishing all in our parish a safe and enjoyable week ahead.

GOD'S LAW

Scripture has always held God's law to be the path to human happiness. In today's first reading, Ezra the priest reads the scroll of the law to the people returned from exile. They weep—then are joyful. Israel's relationship with God had always been defined by how they kept and lived God's law. The author of Psalm 96 likewise praises the law of God as the source of wisdom, joy and enlightenment, purity and justice.

In his advice to the bickering Corinthians, Paul points out that, just as God has made all parts of a human body essential for the health of the whole, living as "Christ's body" requires that each member be recognized as necessary for the good of all. Finally, in Luke's Gospel Jesus claims that the Spirit is sending him to relieve human suffering. Like Ezra, he is reading from a scroll, proclaiming God's "law" of mercy to those in need.

You are cordially invited to join the Ministry of Prayer.

What is the Ministry of Prayer?

Volunteers in this ministry pray daily for the needs of the church, community, and world. The goal of this ministry is to provide us with the opportunity to pray "together while apart." Although this ministry was originally directed to those who are homebound, it has expanded to include any of us who would like to pray as a group, even though we never formally get together, using the prayer intentions provided for us, while in our favorite place to pray. The prayers can be as simple as an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be, a decade of the rosary, it can be a simple conversation with Our Lord, or it could be taking a few minutes to meditate on the prayer intention. Whatever prayer method is used is the best prayer.

If you would like to join the Ministry of Prayer, simply fill out the form below and you will receive the prayer intentions for the months of January & February. There is no fee; there are no meetings to attend. Every three months, you will receive the prayer intentions for the next 3 months. All you are asked to do is to pray for the intention of that day — that's it! There is power in prayer, especially when we pray together — even if we are all in our own homes! Won't you join us?

Please fill in the form below; drop it off at the rectory office; drop it in the collection basket; mail it in; or email the information to us.

Leave Your Legacy Through a Bequest

As we begin the New Year, please consider one of the greatest acts of stewardship an individual can make by including a gift to our parish in your will or trust. A bequest can be made to our parish using the following language:

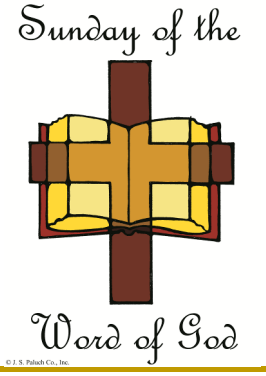

"I give [insert specific dollar amount, or percentage of net or residuary] to The Catholic Bishop of Chicago, Tax ID #36-2170826, a corporation sole located in Chicago, Illinois, to be used for the benefit of St. Eugene Parish located in Chicago, Illinois. However, if St. Eugene Parish ceases to exist in its current form, then to the new parish or parishes erected in its stead."

Please consult an attorney and financial advisor when drafting your will or trust. For more information, please contact Anthony Woldeit, Business Manger, at St. Eugene Parish at 773.775.6659 at awoldeit@st-eugene.org or contact Krystina M. CATHOLIC CATECHISM FOR ADULTS

For anyone in our parish that might want to own their own personal copy of The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, you can purchase one or more for yourself and/or your family members or friends for only $20 each. This is a substantially reduced price from the regular price of $29.95. They can be purchased at the rectory during normal business hours and occasionally in the vestibule of church after our weekend Masses. The monies collected from the sale of these books will be given to our Young Adult Group to provide funding for some of their upcoming activities and events.

The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults includes stories, doctrine, reflections, quotations, discussion questions and prayers leading the reader to a deepening faith. It is also an excellent resource for preparation of catechumens in the Rite of Christian Initiation and for ongoing catechesis and faith formation for adults. It can also be used as a guide for individuals and small groups to deepen their faith. This is a resource every Catholic household should have.

They will be made available to our parish community until they are sold out.

No rights

Today unborn children remain the only class of people accorded absolutely no rights. And the first right which the unborn are denied is the keystone: life. For if one lacks a right to exist, all other rights are rendered meaningless.

"What is really at stake in this matter of making exceptions to the right to live? Answer: The real issue is whether life is a gift of God or of the State. Innocent life is non-negotiable precisely because it comes from God." Pope John Paul II

All life is sacred

Human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains forever in a special relationship with the creator, who is its sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim the right to super cede God's place as the giver and taker of life.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - Rejoicing in the Lord

In the first reading, Ezra gets a strange reaction from the people to whom he reads the book of the law. First they lie down, with faces to the ground, and then they all are weeping. Remember the background of this reading. The people of Israel had returned from exile and needed to become a unified nation. Most had never heard the laws, so when they learned what was expected of them and realized how much of the Law they had broken, they wept from shame. Many probably didn't know that they had been breaking the law. Others might have been overwhelmed with all the requirements of the law.

Ezra and Nehemiah console the people by reminding them that their return makes this a day "holy to the LORD" (Nehemiah 8:10). He adds that they would draw strength from "rejoicing in the LORD." That may be good advice for us also.

We might find ourselves so trapped in sin that we think we could never be forgiven. We need to remember that Jesus loved sinners so much that he gave his life on the cross to free us from sin. No sin can be so bad that God's love cannot forgive it. In other words, God's forgiveness is only limited by our failure to ask for it. As the psalms say, God's mercy endures forever. In fact, the more I have to repent, the more God wants to forgive. So we can rejoice in the Lord's forgiveness and the Spirit will give us the strength to change our lives.

And what about those who find the law overwhelming? That usually means a lack of faith in God's willingness to help us or in our ability to do the best we can to live as Christians. It can also be because we have forgotten Jesus' saying that all of God's laws are contained in the command to love God and love our neighbor as we love ourselves. The more we come to accept God's presence in our lives and see God in others, the easier it becomes to keep the law of love.

ONE CHRIST, ONE BODY

Last week's reading from Corinthians concerned the one Spirit who gives many gifts, yet is the source of our unity. Paul continues this theme today using the image of the body, whose different members each have an important and distinct role to play. The Spirit of baptism forms that one mystical Body of Christ. The Spirit of baptism fills the many members, but unites them always as one. The Spirit of baptism is on each member, as it was for Jesus in the synagogue at Nazareth. That Spirit of our baptism anoints each of us as a member of Christ's Body to be glad tidings, proclaim liberty, bring clearer vision, lift the oppressed, to announce God's reign to all. As different members of Christ's Body, we are each called upon to do this in our own way. We may face opposition or rejection, as Jesus did, but we can always turn again in faith to the Spirit of our baptism who is still with us.

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

WE ASK THIS IN THE NAME OF

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION - The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The cause of church unity is commended to Christians for prayer and action every year around this time. This week is not so much to focus on the many divisions within the Christian family, but on bonds of faith and mission. Even though Christians have always shown an inclination to fracture, spin off, and mutate into new expressions, recent history shows some new points of convergence and agreement. Catholics are more firmly rooted in the word of God, for example, and many Protestants are more likely to celebrate Communion than in years past. Some denominations are merging and pooling resources, and people from various traditions are collaborating on projects.

The call of this week is to be mindful of the diversity of our traditions and customs while treasuring what we hold in common. The old advice to "lighten up" is good medicine, because sometimes our differences are delightful and amusing. If someone says, "Let us pray," a Catholic might close the eyes, bow the head and fold hands; a Protestant reach out and clasp hands with the person in the next chair; and someone belonging to an Orthodox tradition might stand up with eyes wide open. Each has taken a different path, but the goal is always the same. This is a week not for focusing on the well-worn paths of divergence, but for mutual delight in a common goal.
