From the Pastor's Desk...

I invite you to spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal materials you should have received in your bulletin last weekend or in the mail. The Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection: It is a pledged commitment to make a gift over time. Your pledge can be made payable in installments. Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services to answer the call of "Making all things new … God's promise and our responsibility." If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back. If you received it here in church, please drop it in next week's collection basket. This year, we also encourage our parishioners to make their Annual Catholic Appeal gifts online at annualcatholicappeal.com.

****

Many parishioners have shared with me how much they appreciated the "Little Blue Books" of Advent. These books have made such a positive impact here in our parish that we have purchased the "Little Black Books" for your personal spiritual and prayer life during Lent. In the gathering space and at the doors of the church next weekend you can pick up a copy to carry with you in your purse, car, pocket, etc. Please use these informative books to spend just six minutes a day in personal meditation/reflection and as your traveling companion for the season of Lent and Holy Week. Enjoy them!

All in our parish will be receiving a newsletter of sorts that contains my annual Lenten/Easter letter along with the schedule of services and activities throughout these seasons. Hopefully it will arrive in your homes before Ash Wednesday. In it, you will also find the most up-to-date information about the recent unification of the parishes of Our Lady Mother of the Church, Divine Savior and St. Eugene's. We felt it was important to get all this information to everyone in our parish who may not be able to get a bulletin or have the ability to go online and especially for those that have not yet returned to Mass.

Finally, I'd like to congratulate Fr. Ed Pacocha who celebrated his birthday this past Wednesday. Happy Birthday, Fr. Ed!!

LOVE AS GOD LOVES

Our Gospel today continues Jesus' Sermon on the Plain, in which we heard Luke's version of the Beatitudes. This week, Jesus gives us new "commandments," telling us how to live and act in the world as his disciples, rooted in the radical love of God for humanity. It reminds us of his later speech about loving one another as he loves us, in other words with a God-like love, the kind we see in today's psalm about God's mercy. How else could we do as Jesus tells us by loving our enemies, which seems impossible, until we remember that God gave us the example of Jesus, who is like God but also like us? David understands this merciful love when he spares the life of his enemy in the first reading. Finally, Paul tells us that we will become like Jesus if we act as he did, as God does.

Get the valuables out of the vault

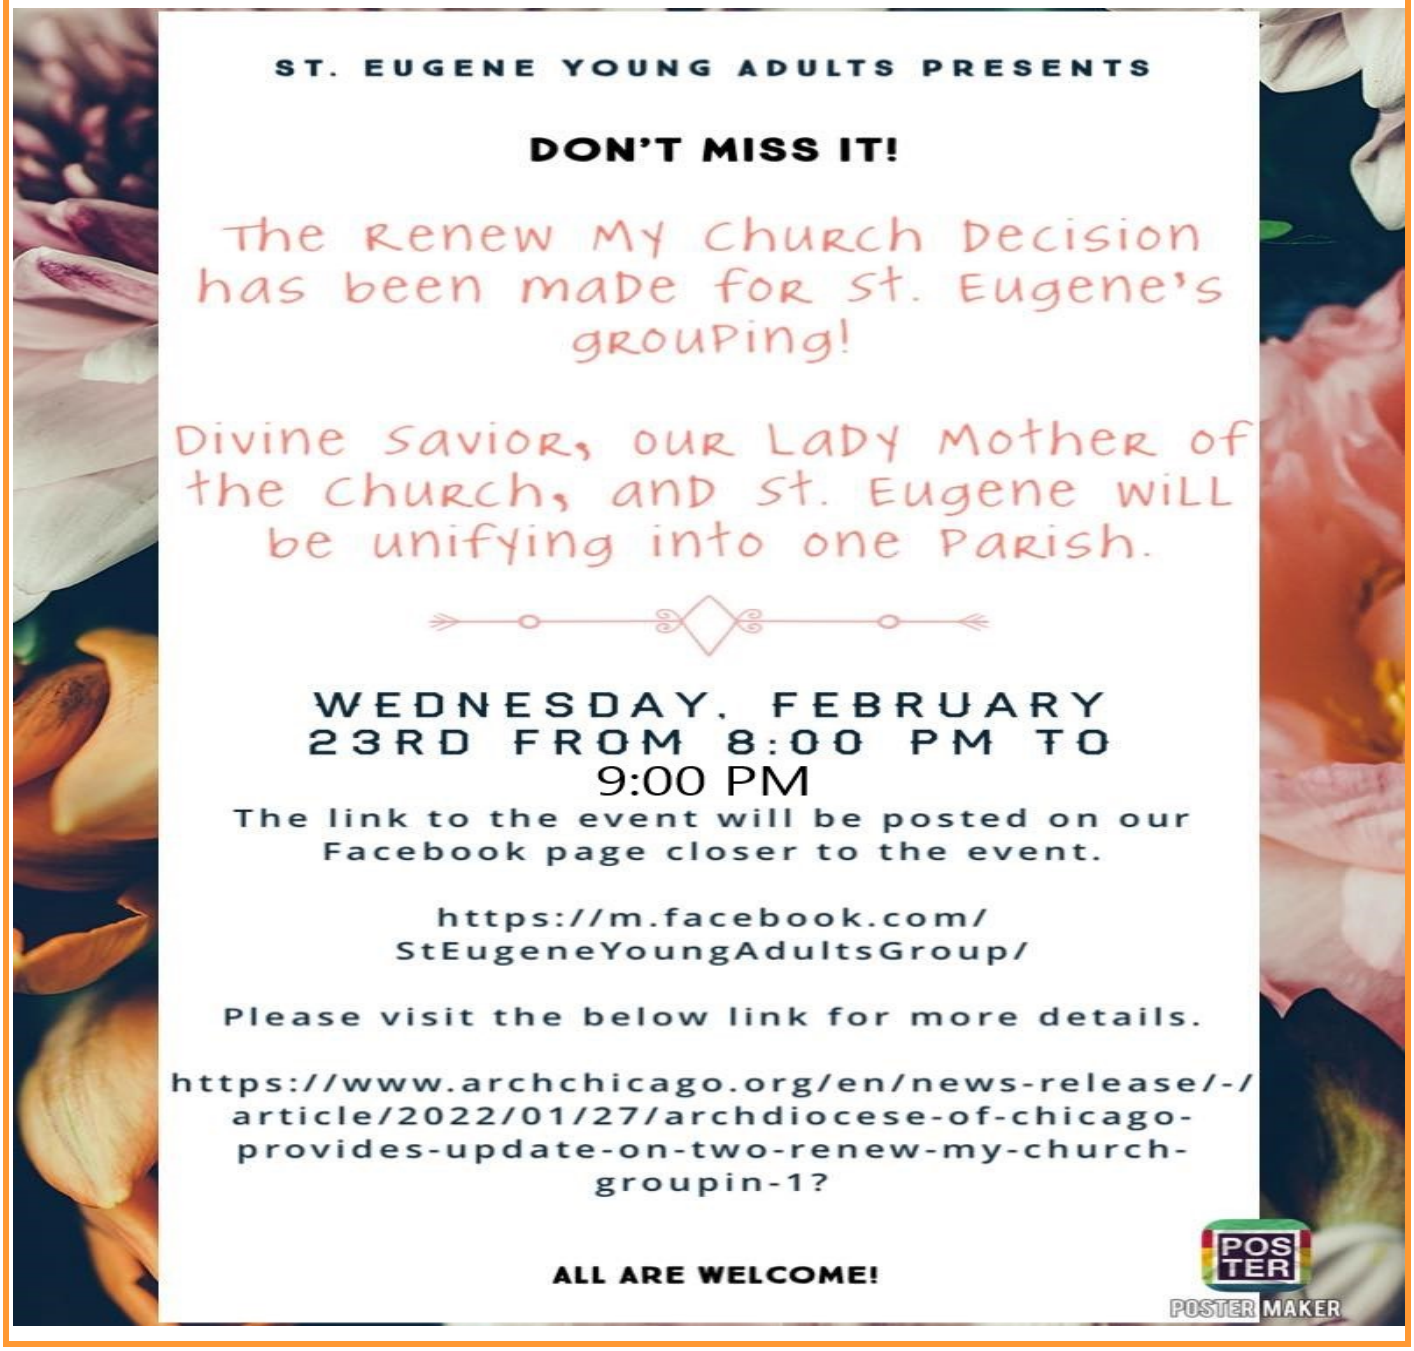

Both in Matthew and in Luke, we find versions of the well-known Sermon on the Mount. In it, Jesus calls us to be His committed followers, a people who can overcome obstacles, even the most personally painful ones. Choosing to live our faith fully may keep us from earning those longed-for millions, it may shatter those plans for plush homes or fast cars. We may find ourselves despised, spurned or ostracized because we desire to lie like Christ. But along with the warnings, Jesus' sermon also reminds us that God sees our true value. We are critically important to the work of God's kingdom here on earth. We are responsible for proclaiming the gospel and not "letting someone else do it". Each of us personally must be the one who will spread the Good News of forgiveness that is found in Jesus Christ. We cannot stay "hidden," much as one might keep the family diamonds locked up in the vault. We must show put our Christian faith "on display", everyday, for Christ.

CATHOLIC CATECHISM FOR ADULTS

For anyone in our parish that might want to own their own personal copy of The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, you can purchase one or more for yourself and/or your family members or friends for only $20 each. This is a substantially reduced price from the regular price of $29.95. They can be purchased at the rectory during normal business hours and occasionally in the vestibule of church after our weekend Masses. The monies collected from the sale of these books will be given to our Young Adult Group to provide funding for some of their upcoming activities and events.

The United States Catholic Catechism for Adults includes stories, doctrine, reflections, quotations, discussion questions and prayers leading the reader to a deepening faith. It is also an excellent resource for preparation of catechumens in the Rite of Christian Initiation and for ongoing catechesis and faith formation for adults. It can also be used as a guide for individuals and small groups to deepen their faith. This is a resource every Catholic household should have.

The Golden Rule

Do to others as you would have them do to you. Luke 6:31; Matthew 7:12
This Christian Golden Rule is also part of other World Religions:

Treat not others in ways that you yourself would find hurtful.
Buddhism (Udana-Varga)

Do not do to others what you do not want done to yourself.
Confucianism (Analects)

This is the sum of duty:
do not do to others what would cause pain if done to you.
Hinduism (Mahabharata)

Not one of you truly believes until you wish for others what you wish for yourself.
Islamism (Hadith)

What is hateful to you, do not do to your neighbor.
Judaism (Talmud Shabbat)

Regard your neighbor's gain as your gain,
and your neighbor's loss as your own loss.
Taoism (T'ai-Shang Kan-Ying P'ien)

On Saturday, Feb. 12, 2022, the St. JP II Eucharistic Adoration Assoc. met at St. Paul of the Cross Parish along with EA chapel leaders and adorers from our vicariate. He also shared information on how this multi-year three-part plan will be implemented in our dioceses, our parishes, and our communities.

St. Eugene Adoration chapel leaders Mary Unger, Joanna Portenlanger, and Joseph Portenlanger shown with Tom Curtin (JPII Director,) Stephen Hegarty (JPII President), and Auxiliary Bishop Mark Bartosic. Adorers Glory Bermas and Priscila Medrano also attended the meeting.

During the meal, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. "Take this," he said, "this is my body." - Mark 14:22 -

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION - The Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week's calendar appears at first to have a feast day for a piece of furniture: the Chair of Peter. In fact, it functions as a kind of ecclesial "Presidents' Day." The church day points to Peter, but just as Presidents' Day began with Washington's birthday and now includes all presidents, this day celebrates the Petrine ministry: Peter's apostolic presidency passed down in our tradition as an essential aspect of Catholic identity. Maybe the day should be subtitled "Popes' Day." As for the "chair" itself, it can be traced to the house of Priscilla and Aquila in ancient Rome. Peter sat there to instruct the faithful and to receive the newly baptized. When Christianity became legal, the house was transformed into a place for public prayer, and soon the chair was transported to the tomb of St. Peter on the Vatican hill. Over the centuries, the hill was leveled, but the tomb and the chair were preserved.

Today, it is said that the chair from that ancient Roman community is raised high above the altar in St. Peter's, clearly visible just beneath the oval window showing the descent of the Holy Spirit. The symbol of the chair reminds the current occupant of the Petrine office of his duties to shepherd the flock by clear teaching and by building up the unity of the Church. Last year, on this very day, Pope Benedict XVI named fifteen new cardinals as an expression of this pastoral care for the unity of the Church, drawing them from a variety of cultures everywhere around the globe.
