From the Pastor's Desk...

Today is the Second Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy. Divine Mercy Sunday focuses on the gift of mercy and love given through Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. As John Paul II stated, "Divine Mercy reaches human beings through the heart of Christ crucified."

Many people ask what the message of the Divine Mercy is for us? As in the prayers that form the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, there are three main themes to the Divine Mercy devotion: to ask for and obtain the mercy of God, to trust in Christ's abundant mercy, and finally to show mercy to others and act as a conduit for God's mercy towards them.

Hopefully, each of us has felt the depth of Christ's mercy many times throughout our lives. May this gift to ourselves be the impetus for our being merciful to others.

Having celebrated Holy Week, the Paschal Triduum and Easter now, I just wanted to express my deepest thanks to all in our parish who do so much in service to God and to our community of faith. I am reminded time and time again after celebrating the beautiful liturgies of Holy Week of the many men and women of our parish who give of their time, talent, and treasure to help make our parish a beautiful, joyful and welcoming community of worship. Special thanks to our Liturgical Environment and Art Committee for the countless hours and labor of love you so generously give to enhance our worship space to make it a sacred and prayerful environment for all our liturgies not only at this time of the year but every season of the year.

It's that time of year when most priests and deacons in the Archdiocese celebrate their ordination anniversaries. Our Ordination Day anniversary, like a wedding anniversary, is a significant reminder to us of the commitment we made to serve you, our parish families. I ask that you keep all of us in your prayers, as you always hold a special place in ours. For those of you who may wish to know these dates and the anniversary years being celebrated, they are:

April 28	Fr. Ed Pacocha	60" years ordained
May 3	Fr. Jim O'Brien	62 years ordained
May 7	Fr. Rich Yanos	39 years ordained
May 14	Fr. Greg Rom	47 years ordained
June 19	Fr. Jacek Dada	29 years ordained

Mother's Day is only two weeks away. Here in our country, we set aside this special day to remember and celebrate these special women in each of our lives who, with our fathers, have been instrumental in not only bringing each of us into this world, but have also helped to provide loving homes that are much needed today. We honor these women who have cared, nurtured, fed, and even sacrificed for us because of their deep maternal love for us.

Whether living or deceased, hopefully a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your mom. If you might wish to have your mother remembered in a special way at all of our Mother's Day Masses, as well as having their name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your mother's names on the special Mother's Day envelope provided in your May packet of your Sunday offering envelopes including also your Mass offerings for this purpose. They can be placed in the collection basket at church, mailed to or dropped off at the rectory and their names will be added to the memorial page that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on our altar for an entire year. In addition, our living and deceased mothers will be remembered at all the Masses on Mother's Day.

****

Just to let everyone know, Fr. Greg Rom, our retired resident assistant, will be away from St. Eugene's for a month from May 5th thru June 6th. He will be the temporary administrator for Christ Our Savior Parish in South Holland during this period. The pastor there, Fr. Gosbert Rwezahura, will be going home to visit his family in Tanzania. This is only a one-month assignment as Fr. Gos and Fr. Greg are friends. So, if you don't see Fr. Greg during the month of May this is why. He'll be giving Fr. Gos a little respite to see his family. We will miss Fr. Greg while he is away.

Finally, in case you may be wondering why you haven't seen me before or after Masses this weekend it is because I am celebrating the weekend Masses at Divine Savior parish. Their administrator, Fr. Jim Blazek and I thought it would be a great opportunity for the parishioners of Divine Savior to meet their future pastor.

On behalf of our entire parish as well as myself, I also want to congratulate Fr. Ed Pacocha as we honor him this weekend on the occasion of his 60th Anniversary of Ordination. This is quite a milestone, and we are blessed to have him here with us. Congrats, Fr. Ed!

DIFFICULTY, SURVIVAL, AND GLORY

In Revelation, John the Evangelist tells us what we can expect as followers of the risen Jesus: distress, endurance, and a kingdom. Although we are only eight days into our fifty-day Easter feasting, we cannot ignore the distress weighing down our daily lives. Jesus' resurrection does not erase individual suffering, but his glorious triumph over death cultivates endurance in our hearts. We remember that Jesus did not spare himself, and we ask for the strength to endure as he did. Imitating Christ helps us grow as members of God's royal family. As beloved citizens of the Kingdom of God, we recognize our kinship with all people. Peter demonstrates his care for others as he heals multitudes of broken, suffering people. In the Gospel, Thomas accepts his own spiritual healing when Jesus helps him to believe. In times of difficulty, survival, and glory, we borrow Thomas' declaration of faith: "My Lord and my God!"

You are cordially invited to join the Ministry of Prayer.

What is the Ministry of Prayer?

Volunteers in this ministry pray daily for the needs of the church, community, and world. The goal of this ministry is to provide us with the opportunity to pray "together while apart." Although this ministry was originally directed to those who are homebound, it has expanded to include any of us who would like to pray as a group, even though we never formally get together, using the prayer intentions provided for us, while in our favorite place to pray. The prayers can be as simple as an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be, a decade of the rosary, the Divine Chaplet; it can be a simple conversation with Our Lord, or it could be taking a few minutes to meditate on the prayer intention. Whatever prayer method is used is the best prayer.

If you would like to join the Ministry of Prayer, simply fill out the form below and you will receive the prayer intentions for the month of May. There is no fee; there are no meetings to attend. Every three months, you will receive the prayer intentions for the next 3 months. All you are asked to do is to pray for the intention of that day — that's it! There is power in prayer, especially when we pray together — even if we are all in our own homes! Won't you join us?

Please fill in the form below; drop it off at the rectory office; drop it in the collection basket; mail it in; or email the information to us.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Second Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy

An ancient title for this Sunday is Dominica in Albis, or "Sunday in White." During the Easter Vigil, the newly baptized are invested with a white garment, a sign that they have put on Christ. At one time, the garments were worn for a full week of celebration and reflection, and on this Sunday the newly baptized would appear in their robes again in their new place among the faithful for Eucharist.

In later centuries, the energy of new life at Easter was largely forgotten, and this Sunday was renamed "Quasimodo Sunday," or "Low Sunday." In recent years, with the recovery of the insight that Easter is the privileged time for celebrating and renewing baptism, there is nothing "Low" about this Sunday. At a week's distance, the beauty and grace of our Easter celebration is sustained by joyful alleluias, the blessing and sprinkling of holy water, and the comfort of the Lord's presence to us. He is risen, and he summons us together, opening up the scriptures for us, breaking the bread, filling us with new life.
