From the Pastor's Desk...

By now most parishioners know that we along with many other parishes in our area did not receive our Sunday bulletins last weekend. We apologize for this inconvenience. After checking with our bulletin company, J. S. Paluch, we were also informed that we may not be receiving our bulletins again for this weekend as they are having printing supply problems. This matter is beyond our control and will hopefully be rectified soon. Our weekend bulletin, however, can always be received and viewed online by going to our parish website www.st-eugene.org.

I want to congratulate our First Communicants once again as they received our Lord for the first-time last weekend. Their names were on the cover of last week's bulletin but unfortunately most did not get to see them unless they went online to view the bulletin. It was a beautiful day and beautiful celebration. My thanks to our school Principal and Religious Education Coordinator, Mrs. Margaret Kinel and our 2nd grade school and Religious Education teacher, Mrs. Kristy Michel.

I just wanted to update all in our parish community on some of the Renew My Church activities and events that have been keeping me very busy as we make the preparations for the uniting of our three parishes of St. Eugene, Our Lady Mother of the Church and Divine Savior this July 1st. In addition to the tasks and responsibilities of keeping our parish going on a daily basis I have been trying to make connections and contacts with our neighboring parishes of Our Lady Mother of the Church and Divine Savior.

Over the past month I have met with Fr. Jim Blazek, the administrator of Divine Savior parish to discuss a plan of action as we move forward. I celebrated the 7:30 a.m. morning mass at Divine Savior to meet the morning mass attendees and then followed up with a meet and greet with one of their senior groups. Every other week I have a TEEMS mtg. with our Renew My Church Coordinator as we plan for what lies ahead for us. (These meetings will soon be weekly). I have met with the Leadership of the Divine Savior Knights of Columbus to discuss how the two of our Knights' Councils can work together as our parishes begin the process of uniting. I have begun a conversation with the current associate pastor at Divine Savior as he has elected to stay and assist in the upcoming unification. A couple of weeks ago, I celebrated the Saturday evening and Sunday Masses at Divine Savior to meet the folks there and followed up mass with a meeting with their Sharing Ministry Team. I have met with the full staff at Divine Savior to answer any questions that they had and to talk about how the hiring process will work as we transition to one parish. I gathered with all three of our parishes' Senior Groups at a luncheon and very productive meeting sponsored by the Our Lady Mother of the Church Friendship Club. Here we had the opportunity to talk with one another and address some of the concerns of each of our groups. I want to thank Debbie Timmreck for pulling this gathering together. Over 100 seniors came out for the luncheon and meeting. It was a real sign of new life and energy for what now has the potential of becoming a strong and vibrant organization with the three groups joining forces.

Two weeks ago, our Business Mgr., our head of Maintenance and I met with archdiocesan representatives who spent a significant amount of time evaluating the condition of each of our parish and school buildings and facilities. This is part of the detailed assessment that is done as part of the Renew My Church process and will determine the work that needs to be done to bring our facilities up to snuff.

Two weeks ago, I also attended the Divine Savior Women's Club end-of-the-year dinner as they gathered to share memories, to celebrate their many years at Divine Savior and the ending of an era for their group. Hopefully, they will keep their group together as we make the transition to new facilities for them.

This past Monday, I met with the staff of Our Lady Mother of the Church to meet them and allow them to ask any questions that may be on their minds.

As you can see much is happening and I have been kept very busy. These meetings, Masses and gatherings will begin now with Our Lady Mother of the Church as I look forward to working with and getting to know the parishioners there as well.

I truly believe we are all going to come through this process as a people whose hearts and minds will be opened in ways that will bring us closer to one another but more importantly closer to our Lord. When one door closes, it is the opportunity for another door to open. Please keep me and all the members of our unifying parishes in your prayers as we work together to build a brighter future and stronger Church.

We are in the process of forming a Unification Committee for each of our three parishes. If there are any parishioners who might be interested in this important endeavor, please let me know. We are looking for five members from each of our three parish communities. So far there are three who have agreed to be part of this group. The commitment of time you will be making is to participate in a 3-hour on-line training course and one meeting per month.

MAKING ALL THINGS NEW

Although we are five full weeks into the celebration of Easter, today's readings focus on newness. Our Easter food leftovers may be long gone, but the readings insist on every moment's freshness in the risen Jesus. The Acts of the Apostles depicts Paul and Barnabas reflecting on all the innovative work that God has done with them. They have traveled hundreds of miles, introducing faith in Jesus Christ to all who listen, even Gentiles. For the dutiful Jewish scholar Paul, preaching to Gentiles is a completely unique development. Jesus calls Paul, and us, not to be afraid of new challenges: as John the Evangelist reports in Revelation, Jesus promises to "make all things new." In the Gospel reading, Jesus even gives us a new commandment. The Hebrew Scriptures overflow with commandments, but Jesus knows we need one more, perfect mission: "love one another."

FRIENDSHIP CLUB REPORT

Much appreciation to all who came out to enjoy the Friendship Club meeting of 4/26 with guests from Divine Savior and St. Eugene! There were 42 members and 66 guests in attendance. They came for a delicious lunch, friendly conversation and a chance to meet Father Richard Yanos who surprised and delighted those who did not already know him by appearing in a plaid shirt, no Roman collar

When speaking of the coming reconfiguration of the parish, Fr. Rich admitted that change can be difficult. He also invited us to put Christ in the center of the process suggesting many benefits to an enlarged - and united - senior club. We could look forward to increased talent and treasure that would support activities like more trips and enriched programs. Father urged the leadership from the 3 current clubs to meet in order to work out a vision for the new united club.

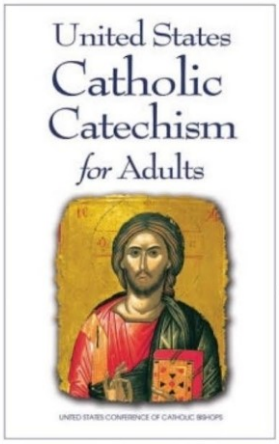

Abundant thanks go to the club volunteers for their countless hours of labor and love who made this get together possible!

What is the Ministry of Prayer?

Volunteers in this ministry pray daily for the needs of the church, community, and world. The goal of this ministry is to provide us with the opportunity to pray "together while apart." Although this ministry was originally directed to those who are homebound, it has expanded to include any of us who would like to pray as a group, even though we never formally get together, using the prayer intentions provided for us, while in our favorite place to pray. The prayers can be as simple as an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be, a decade of the rosary, the Divine Chaplet; it can be a simple conversation with Our Lord, or it could be taking a few minutes to meditate on the prayer intention. Whatever prayer method is used is the best prayer.

If you would like to join the Ministry of Prayer, simply fill out the form below and you will receive the prayer intentions for the months of June, July and August. There is no fee; there are no meetings to attend. Every three months, you will receive the prayer intentions for the next 3 months. All you are asked to do is to pray for the intention of that day — that's it! There is power in prayer, especially when we pray together — even if we are all in our own homes! Won't you join us?

Please fill in the form below; drop it off at the rectory office; drop it in the collection basket; mail it in; or email the information to us.

ST. EUGENE FACILITY RESERVATION REQUEST FORM

One of the key ingredients of an effective parish is its people. The dedication and invested time of our volunteers is truly appreciated. Our collective efforts bring spiritual opportunities, social gatherings, athletic events, financial support for the parish, and just plain fun to our parish community. These activities require planning and reserving a location for these activities. In an effort to make the room reservation process more efficient, a new procedure will be put into place beginning May 1st. Reservations by established parish and school groups/ministries can be made during the month of May. All outside groups can begin reservations June 1st.

Like last year, we are utilizing an online calendar system to make room reservations more accessible. There are two ways to make your reservation: online or a printed yellow form as in years past. The yellow form and online form can be found on the parish website home page beginning May 1st in the section titled "St. Eugene Parish Facility Reservations 2022-2023" or at the rectory office. You only need to fill out an online form or yellow form, not both. Completed yellow forms can be mailed or dropped off at the rectory during normal business hours, to the attention of the Parish Scheduler. Online forms are simply submitted online and the Parish Scheduler will be notified of your submission. Just because you submit the form, does not guarantee you will have that space during that time. The primary contact person listed will receive the confirmation, if the event is able to be scheduled.

The 4 most important take-aways are:

1. Only a filled-out form (whether online or printed) can reserve a location. While verbal communication is informative, a filled-out form is necessary and required.
2. Kindly fill out the form completely: contact person's name, phone number and email; the actual time the function begins, etc. Incomplete forms will delay your reservation.
3. Please notify the rectory in the event of a cancellation, so the room can be made available to other groups/ministries.
4. Past reservations do not automatically renew for this year and submitting the form is not confirmation of your reservation.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION Fifth Sunday of Easter

Frequent fliers today have many ways to accrue air miles, so one doesn't always have to endure long hours in cramped seats to earn free hours in cramped seats. In St. Paul's day, there were no such perks, nor would there have been any legal system for him to protest the shipwrecks he endured. He had other rewards in mind. The churches that he established in the catalogue of cities from today's first reading must have been very different from one another. Language, culture, customs, religious history, obstacles to community, social challenges, the places where they met, their clothing, their bread and wine, all distinct, particular to the area.

There were social customs as well: in a Christian household, the only place where a slave would be able to stand legally as an equal with the master would be at the table of the Lord, because at that table a new world of reconciliation was imaged. While Paul revered local customs, he was relentless about challenging the ways that people lived their Christian lives and how their worship reflected them. It is much the same today, as a global Catholic Church seeks to respect local customs and culture, allowing for differences in many things, yet always giving expression to the underlying presence of Christ, who binds us all together into his body. —James Field, Copyright © J.
