From the Pastor's Desk...

On this weekend, our Church celebrates Pentecost Sunday, a day often referred to as the birthday of the Church. Jesus says in the Gospel today: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you. Then he breathed on them and said, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

Jesus says these words to us, too: "As the Father has sent me, SO I SEND YOU." He also gives us the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is here among us NOW, in our communities of St. Eugene, Divine Savior, Our Lady Mother of the Church, in our families, in all our thoughts, in our prayers, and in our outreach.

There was a song where we sang: "Every time I feel the Spirit movin' in my heart, I will pray…" We could expand that to say: "Every time I feel the Spirit movin' in my heart, I will do…" or Every time I feel the Spirit movin' in my heart, I will give… or "…I will forgive…" or "…I will love…" The list goes on and on because the Spirit moves in us all the time. The Spirit breathes where and as it wills.

Jesus sends us to be loving people in all that we do or say and gives us the gift of the Spirit who nudges us into action or whispers an inspiration to our hearts. The Spirit does move in our hearts every time we call someone with a kind or comforting word, -- a congratulations or an offer of help… or perhaps when we take the time to write a note to someone just to say we're thinking about them.

Yes, the Spirit moves in our hearts when we go out of our way to give a compliment or a smile, or we volunteer to spend time with our own and other people's children in coaching, providing treats after a game, driving carpools, and teaching catechism. The Spirit is also moving when we reach out to help our neighbors as well as when we join various ministries in our parishes of Our Lady Mother of the Church, Divine Savior and St. Eugene. We live our faith through the generosity we extend to others.

Today is the Feast of Pentecost, and we invite you to prayerfully consider whether you can help build our newly-emerging and united parish community into an even more vital and Spirit-filled place.

Can you share your gifts, your talent, and your time in one of our volunteer ministries? Think of what you already do, and praise God for the gifts you have been given. Think seriously about how you can best use those gifts, with the help of the Holy Spirit, in your life. And realize that, since your own baptism, you have become a disciple of the Lord, and He addresses each one of us today, as he did that day: "So I send YOU. Receive the Holy Spirit." Indeed, the Spirit breathes where and as it wills. Pentecost reminds us of all of that. And unfettered Palestinian Jews went forth that day as empowered CHRISTIANS!

How will we go forth into our post pandemic world today and show that we have indeed been empowered by the Holy Spirit by our use of God's special gifts to us?

Next weekend the Annual Collection for our Archdiocesan Priest's Health and Retirement will take place. There will be a special 2nd collection taken up for the retired priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago. The retired priests of the Archdiocese receive no funds from the Retired Religious Collection taken up in December. Those funds are used solely for religious nuns and brothers and religious order priests.

You may not be aware that there are currently over 200 Retired Archdiocesan Priests. They represent over one quarter of all the priests serving in the Archdiocese. Over half of these are currently over the age of eighty. Many are over age ninety. Collectively our retirees represent over 11,000 years of service to our Archdiocese.

Normal retirement age is currently 70 for Chicago priests. Many of our retired priests still live in a rectory and assist the parish on a regular basis. Close to 130 retired priests celebrate Sunday Mass weekly; perform marriages and baptisms; and visit the sick in hospitals, much like Fr. Phil Grib and Fr. Jim O'Brien had done and what Fr. Ed Pacocha and Fr. Greg Rom continue to do. Without these dedicated men, many parishes/religious institutions would not be able to provide the full range of Masses and sacraments that are currently offered.

Many of you remember with fondness the priest that baptized you, gave you your First Communion, celebrated your marriage, and visited you when you were sick at home or in the hospital. For most of us, these memories probably include some of the retired priests of our Archdiocese and our parish.

There are two independent living residences for retired priests that are subsidized by the Chicago Archdiocese, with space for some of our retired priests to enjoy communal living with their brother priests in retirement. All these rooms are currently being used.

Last year many of our retired priests received or were currently receiving nursing home assistance or had or have full -time aides coming to their home or rectory. Last year, PRMAA also spent over $1,914,000 providing for this care. Spending has increased in providing home care to keep retired priests in the surroundings where they are most comfortable.

The Priests' Pension Fund is losing principal and needs significant contributions to stabilize and secure this benefit for future generations of priests.

The Archdiocese is committed to caring for our retired priests, but we need your assistance. Please help in any way you can, by supporting next week's collection and many, many thanks for your prayerful and financial support of these dedicated and selfless priests and servants of God. Envelopes have been provided in your monthly packets and are also at the entrance doors of our church. They can be put in the 2nd collection basket or can be mailed in or dropped off at the rectory either in person or in the mailbox slot in the front door.

Father's Day is only two weeks away. Here in our country, we set aside this special day to remember and celebrate these special men in each of our lives who, with our mothers, have been instrumental in not only bringing each of us into this world, but have also helped to provide a loving home and a strong male role model that is much needed today. We honor these men who have cared, nurtured, fed, and even sacrificed for us because of their deep paternal love for us.

Whether living or deceased, hopefully a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your dad. If you might wish to have your father remembered in a special way at our Father's Day Mass, as well as having his name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your father's names on the special Father's Day envelope provided in your packet this month. They can be dropped off in the either of the collection baskets, placed in the mail slot in the front door of the rectory or mailed in as well with your contribution in the next few weeks and their names will be added to the memorial page(s) that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on our altar for an entire year.

Wishing you all a fantastic week ahead.

THE SPIRIT'S ACTIVE POWER

The mystery of the Trinity refers to one God in three persons. We frequently acknowledge Jesus as "the second person of the Trinity," but referring also to the Spirit as a "person" comes less naturally. In religious art, the Holy Spirit often appears as a dove or, as in today's reading from the Acts of the Apostles, tongues of fire. Much rarer are images of the Spirit as a "person" in recognizable human form. Today's readings do not settle the issue of how to picture the Spirit, but they certainly give shape to the Spirit's active power in the world and in each human heart. In Acts, the Spirit enables people to speak and understand a variety of languages. Paul's letter to the Corinthians praises the Spirit for all kinds of spiritual gifts, services, and "workings." Finally, in John's Gospel, Jesus calls the Spirit our Advocate and our divine teacher.

A PRAYER TO THE SPIRIT

Spirit of Jesus,
poured out in flames of fire upon your disciples
on the day of Pentecost,
we pray to you:
Set afire the hearts of your faithful
so that they will announce in all the languages of the world
the wonders of the salvation of God.

ST. EUGENE ADULT CHOIR

Choir practice takes place
Wednesday, at 7pm
Please meet Lydia,
our Director of Music,
at the organ in church at 7 pm.
We will sing at the 11:30 am Mass.
Everyone is welcome to sing with us!!!

Save us

Save us from the comfortable sins, Father, that grasp us and have us in their power: the ritual of busy-ness that has no meaning, the easy desecration of other people's character, and the endless boredom because we attempt so little. Help us to find true satisfaction won through risks. Amen

Make me a light

God make my life a little light
Within the world to glow
A little flame that burns so bright
Wherever I may go
God make my life a little flower
That gives sweet joy to all
Content to bloom in native bower
Although the place be small
God make my life a little staff
Whereon the weak may rest
That so what health and strength I have
May serve my neighbor best.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION Pentecost Sunday

Today we are at the fiftieth day of the Easter celebration: seven weeks of seven days, a week of weeks, now culminating in a festival fiftieth day. While the liturgical color of the Easter season is gold, on this last day we have red. For the first thousand years of the church, there were no firm rules for using colors. Only wealthy churches could afford a full array of colors, and most places used the best vestments, no matter the color, for the greatest feasts. The Church spelled out an exact plan for color, including red for Pentecost, only in 1570, but local differences held on until the 1800s.

Color experts tell us that red is a hot color, best used for fast-paced, upbeat, active experiences. It is hard to be neutral before red, as any matador will tell you. It invites commitment, draws you in. It is a stimulating color, engaging the eye, stirring hunger. It is the most fitting color for this day when we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit into our lives, a dynamic presence overturning neutrality in favor of passion and commitment.

Promotion may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that LeafGuard may substitute a gift card of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card and terms and conditions (https://www.darden.com/gift-cards/terms-and-conditions) of each gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class US Mail within 21 days of receipt of promotion form provided at consultation. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Darden Restaurants and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Offer ends 3/31/2022.

*Does not include cost of material. Expires 3/31/22.
