From the Pastor's Desk...

The major seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, Triduum, and Easter are now past, but about half the year remains for us to celebrate our redemption in Christ in a more general way. Before we resume the counted Sundays of Ordinary Time, however, we devote this Sunday and next to celebrating two profound mysteries of our faith: the Most Holy Trinity and the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

A special feast in honor of the Most Holy Trinity began in monastic communities as early as the ninth century. By the fourteenth century, the whole Western church was observing it as it does today, on the Sunday after Pentecost.

As we will soon be formally embarking upon the joining together of the three parishes of Our Lady Mother of the Church, St. Eugene, and Divine Savior, I just wanted to let everyone in each of our three parishes know how important it will be to have parishioner cooperation and participation. If our parishes are going to be able to operate and function in ways that will keep us healthy and thriving as we look toward the future, we are going to need many more parishioners from each of our current parishes to step up and sign up for the necessary Liturgical Ministries of Ushers, Greeters, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Sacristans, Lectors, Cantors, and our Choir/Music ministries. This will assure that the Masses and Services that will be celebrated at each of our parishes will be sufficiently staffed with the number of liturgical ministers needed for every Mass.

I can only speak of the current challenges we have here at St. Eugene regarding participation in the above-mentioned ministries. Let's just say that at some Masses we struggle to find individuals to fill these rolls. I would imagine it is the same at Divine Savior and Our Lady Mother of The Church. When the unification of our parishes begins on or near July 1st, we will need to have enough volunteers to provide adequate coverage for all our Masses so that they will run smoothly. Currently there are 8 Masses being celebrated every weekend at our three parishes. If there was ever a time when we need more members of our parish communities to participate in these necessary ministries, it is now. So, I ask that you please speak to the coordinators of the liturgical ministries in your parishes and ask to sign-up to offer your assistance. We need you! especially if you are a regular attendee at the same Mass each weekend. Please consider this minimal commitment as your gift of the stewardship of your time to help meet the needs of our newly-forming parish.

If there is one thing none of us like it is change. For this reason, as the pastor of our newly unified-parish, I am going to propose a minor change in the Saturday evening weekend Mass schedules at each of our three parishes beginning July 2nd. For now, we can call this change a temporary summer schedule. So, beginning the weekend of July 2nd there will be one Saturday evening Mass celebrated for all three of our uniting parishes. It will be at 5:00 p.m. and will be celebrated at the St. Eugene campus church simply because it is the largest of our three churches and can easily accommodate the current number of Saturday evening Mass attendees from all three of our churches. The already scheduled Mass intentions from Divine Savior and Our Lady Mother of the Church for their Saturday night Masses will be remembered and celebrated at the new 5:00 p.m. Mass at the St. Eugene church location beginning on Saturday, July 2nd.

Our Sunday Mass schedules will remain the same in each of our parishes until at least Labor Day weekend. I am doing this with the hope that it will give us all – priests and parishioners – a better opportunity to assess and evaluate the need for a realistic change in Mass schedules down the road that will better meet the needs of the parishioners of our three parishes and provide a flexibility of Mass times to accommodate the needs of our newly-formed community after Divine Savior ceases operation near Labor Day. I can promise you that when we ultimately finalize the Mass schedules after Labor Day, there will be a wider variety and flexibility of Mass times that will meet everyone's weekend schedules.

As far as our daily Mass schedules are concerned, they too will be modified beginning on Monday, the 4th of July. On this day it is fitting that our three communities join together to celebrate our National Holiday. For this reason, on the 4th of July, there will be one Mass for all three of our parishes celebrated at St. Eugene Church at 9:00 a.m. I hope all will join us for this festive celebration. From this day forward, and until Labor Day, daily Masses will be as follows:

Monday, Wednesday & Friday: 8:30 a.m. at Our Lady Mother of the Church
Monday, Wednesday & Friday: 9:00 a.m. at St. Eugene

Tuesday and Thursday: 6:30 a.m. at St. Eugene Church
Tuesday and Thursday: 7:30 a.m. at Divine Savior

1st Saturday of each month: 8:30 a.m. at St. Eugene Church

As you might imagine, this is not going to be easy but will necessitate being done. I pray for and ask for your openness, willingness, and heartfelt cooperation when these decisions will be implemented. This is only going to work if we all try our best to make the best of these changes as well as pitch in and work together for the greater good.

One of the realities we will be faced with is the number of priests that we will have to service our initial three parishes until around Labor Day - with the closing of Divine Savior, and then ultimately, our remaining two parishes – St. Eugene and Our Lady Mother of the Church. After July 1st, we will have 2 full-time priests, possibly 3, and 2 retired priests whose retired status must be respected yet will be infringed upon with the time and commitment required to keep our parishes functioning. This is a major factor when making decisions about the number of daily and weekend Masses that will be able to be provided, not to mention the weddings, funerals, and baptisms that will need to be celebrated. Currently, based purely on the present and projected numbers for our three parishes, we are looking at almost 200 funerals per year alone. Presently, there are 8 weekend masses celebrated and 15 daily masses celebrated weekly between our three parishes. With two less priests to provide these Masses after July 1st these changes to our weekday and weekend Mass schedules will need to be made. For these reasons among others, we will be looking at how we can realistically provide a weekday and weekend Mass Schedule that is both flexible and accommodating to our new parish community. After Labor Day, this might mean perhaps attending Mass either at Our Lady Mother of the Church or St. Eugene depending upon which new Mass times better meets your personal schedule.

Again, I would like to say that change is never easy, but when you look at the bigger picture we will continue to be blessed and fortunate to have the opportunity and easy accessibility to attend Mass and the many religious and sacramental services we have grown accustomed to at either what was formerly our own or a neighboring church that will also be less than 5 to 10 minutes' drive away. When you really think about it, this is truly a small sacrifice for something so important to each of us.

Father's Day is next weekend. Here in our country, we set aside this special day to remember and celebrate these special men in each of our lives who, with our mothers, have been instrumental in not only bringing each of us into this world, but have also helped to provide a loving home and a strong male role model that is much needed today. We honor these men who have cared, nurtured, fed, and even sacrificed for us because of their deep paternal love for us.

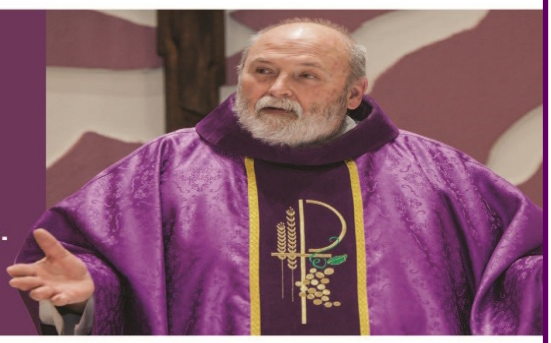

Whether living or deceased, hopefully a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your dad. If you might wish to have your father remembered in a special way at all our Father's Day Masses, as well as having his name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your father's name on the special Father's Day envelope provided in your packet this month. They can be placed in the collection basket with your contribution this week or next and their names will be added to the memorial page(s) that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on our altar for an entire year.

BIBLICAL ROOTS OF THE TRINITY

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth" (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John's Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure. TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION The Most Holy Trinity

Today's feast, extending a dimension of Easter joy into Ordinary Time, reminds us that every aspect of worship centers on the mystery of God in three persons. At baptism, we are initiated into Christ and the Spirit. The Creed we recite at Mass every Sunday has its roots in the ancient celebration of baptism, when a new believer was questioned at the edge of the waters of the font with three questions: Do you believe in God, the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit? Three questions, three affirmations, three immersions into the saving waters. Because every liturgy abounds with references to the Trinity, not only in words but in blessings by the sign of the cross, this feast was not easily accepted into the calendar. Pope Alexander in the eleventh century remarked that the liturgy is so laden with praise of the Trinity that there was no need for a special feast. Two hundred years later, while in exile in France, Pope John XXII proclaimed the feast, but it was not until 1911 that Pope St. Pius X gave it status as a solemnity.

A favorite image in art for today is the Icon of the Trinity, showing three glorious winged men seated at a table laden with bread and a cup of wine. It recalls Abraham's hospitality to angels and gives expression to the inner life of God, a life lived in relationship, a life poured out in abundance whenever Christians gather at the table of the Eucharist to give praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Spirit. —James Field, Copyright © J. Say Good-bye to Clogged Gutters!

Receive a $50 restaurant gift card with in-home estimate & free gutter inspection!

Consumer Disclosure/Award Rules: All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $50 gift card. No purchase is necessary. Retail value is $50. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings, Inc. Limit one gift card per household. LeafGuard procures, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or have a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a valid photo ID, understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of LeafGuard or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a LeafGuard in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former LeafGuard customers. Promotion may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that LeafGuard may substitute a gift card of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card and terms and conditions (https://www.darden.com/gift-cards/terms-and-conditions) of each gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class US Mail within 21 days of receipt of promotion form provided at consultation. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Darden Restaurants and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Offer ends 3/31/2022.

*Does not include cost of material. Expires 3/31/22.
