From the Pastor's Desk...

To all in our parishes of Divine Savior, Our Lady Mother of the Church and St. Eugene…this weekend begins a new chapter in the history of our newly-uniting parish. Welcome aboard! The days, weeks and months ahead will be filled with much activity, new information and, hopefully, new opportunities for growth, renewed hope, and a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and one another. I so look forward to participating and sharing in this new journey for us all. I hope you do as well. There may be mistakes made along the way, but, hopefully, we can learn something about ourselves as we pick ourselves up and recover from them. Rather than being frightened, fearful and afraid of what is to come, I pray that we look to our future together with openness, anticipation, honesty, excitement, and enthusiasm. As I have said so many times before, with the Lord at our side we can move mountains together. Today, we begin this journey as we take our first steps!

This Monday, July 4th, our country will celebrate Independence Day. We have much to be grateful for as citizens of this great and free nation. I invite you to begin the celebration of this day by joining your fellow parishioners at St. Eugene Church for Mass at 9:00 a.m., if only to give thanks to God for all that we've been blessed with, both personally and as a nation.

This year will be special in that the three parishes of Divine Savior, Our Lady Mother of the Church and St. Eugene will be coming together to celebrate this national holiday. I hope that as many as possible from each of our parishes will join together to celebrate this National Day of Independence.

On behalf of our priests and secretarial staff I'd like to raise your awareness about a particular challenge that we have in our effort to serve you, our parish members. Often times during any given week we receive calls at the parish office from persons identifying themselves as parishioners. So far, so good. Some of these calls are from people we see at either daily or weekend Mass or even quite regularly at parish activities. Yet, when we need to contact you for whatever reason, and we go to our parish database we find out that your address and/or phone number are just not there because you have never formally registered. We have a very comprehensive database that includes registered parishioners all the way back to our earliest days of record keeping. If you have registered with us, your important contact information is in our database, however, if you have changed any of your pertinent information you may have neglected to update our parish office with this new information. REMEMBER, all those who wish to call our newly-forming parish community their "parish home" and have not already done so in their former parishes, will need to formally register now by filling out and completing our registration form.

"But" you may ask, "How do I know for certain if I am registered? I don't remember if I ever did register" One easy answer to this question is that every registered parishioner is receiving stewardship envelopes in the mail. They go out to our entire active database. If you are not receiving envelopes, your information is not part of the parish database. It is very important that those who worship with us be registered. This is not just so we can send you envelopes. (Though, of course, this is one essential element of good stewardship for all faithful Catholics.) We would like to have a complete census of everyone who regularly attends our parish, as we would like to be able to include you in our upcoming mailings about information and events that affect the entire parish community. Having your name, address, phone number and email address in our database also enables us to contact you when we find your personal items left in church, when you are sick or in the hospital, or so that we can follow up with a call or visit etc. This will be even more important as we begin to merge our databases and bring our three parishes together.

So, if you are not officially registered yet, please take a moment to either stop by the parish office at the St. Eugene campus during the week or weekend during business hours. It would be wonderful to "officially" welcome you to our parish family. YOU ARE IMPORTANT TO US – and we really want to know who you are. Thank you for taking your relationship with your parish community seriously by handling this important responsibility!

Since our three parishes will be uniting as one new parish beginning July 1st, (this weekend) if you are already registered at Divine Savior, St. Eugene, or Our Lady Mother of the Church and are already receiving envelopes you do not need to re-register. Soon this will all be taken care of as our data bases will be merged. Also, for those who are currently receiving parish envelopes and are not using them for whatever reason, but are not giving electronically, this, too, will be addressed in the near future as all active members of our parish are expected to do their part in supporting our parish community by using their provided envelopes or by using electronic options of giving. More important information will follow on this matter.

By the way, your envelopes can now be placed in either of our three parish's baskets or receptacles.

****

May all in our parish community have a safe, relaxing, and enjoyable 4th of July weekend!

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon.

In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing.

The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

Prayer for our country

Father, A handful of courageous men and women, in a moment of danger pledged their lives, fortunes, and honor to proclaim a nation whose citizens' rights were based not on the nod of king or ruler, but on creation by Your hands. Grant to our administration a rededication to that ministry: service to all, not the few. Grant that our political leaders will uphold public interest, not private profit. Give our judiciary wisdom, Your wisdom, to interpret laws in the light of Your eternal truth and justice. Send Your Spirit on our people that they may become active in healing the differences among all the world's peoples, instruments of your peace and love.

June 14, 2022
St. Eugene Parish

Dear community of St. Eugene Parish

Thank you for your contribution of $3,619.00 on 12/31/2021 to the November 2021 collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD)

Your generosity had a direct impact on workers, seniors, immigrants, people with disabilities, and families. In 2021-2022 CCHD invested in 8 local organizations have shown great perseverance in their work as they challenge oppressive systems and promote the God-given dignity and rights to life, fair housing, employment, education, health care, equity, safety, freedom, and economic opportunity of all of God's children.

Together, your contributions have enhanced the prophetic commitment of the Church to seek justice in our society with the poor as "agents of their own development" (Aparecida).

Again, we thank you for your faithful support of CCHD. If you have any questions or if you would like to explore opportunities to engage with CCHD beyond the collection, please contact Dr. Angela Swain at ohds@archchicago.org. Additional information about CCHD grants, funded groups, and educational resources is available at www.CCHDchicago.org

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are "among the missing." Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the "sabbatical" rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, "Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live." By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situates us in community, and evokes a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life.

Say Good-bye to Clogged Gutters!

$99 Installation*

Receive a $50 restaurant gift card with in-home estimate & free gutter inspection!

Consumer Disclosure/Award Rules: All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $50 gift card. No purchase is necessary. Retail value is $50. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings, Inc. Limit one gift card per household. LeafGuard procures, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or have a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a valid photo ID, understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of LeafGuard or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a LeafGuard in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former LeafGuard customers. Promotion may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that LeafGuard may substitute a gift card of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card and terms and conditions (https://www.darden.com/gift-cards/terms-and-conditions) of each gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class US Mail within 21 days of receipt of promotion form provided at consultation. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Darden Restaurants and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Offer ends 3/31/2022.

*Does not include cost of material. Expires 3/31/22.
