From the Pastor's Desk...

Next weekend all three of our uniting parishes will begin the important process of choosing/discerning a new name for our uniting parish. This process will be led by the pastor and his associates assisted by the members of our Unification Committee who for these purposes will be referred to as our Naming Team. The Naming Team will ultimately present to Cardinal Cupich a list of 3 – 5 suggested names and rationale for selecting each name.

The process has preliminarily begun over the past couple of weeks as I have been writing about it in my bulletin column as well as announcements being read at our Masses. At each of our Masses beginning next weekend all parishioners will be invited to suggest names and the rationale for choosing this name for the new parish. These suggested names will be collected and sorted by members of the Naming Team. They will then compile a comprehensive list of the top six names suggested from all three of our parishes.

These six names will then be given to Fr. Jason Malave, Cardinal Cupich's Liaison to Renew My Church. Fr. Jason will verify that all our suggested names meet the guidelines, and that there are no other multiple Grouping parishes interested in the same name within the archdiocese. If this happens, Fr. Jason will notify me. For different pastoral reasons, a name proposed by a parish community may need to be removed from the list before the final Parish Name Surveys are prepared. If this situation would arise, I as pastor would be contacted by Fr. Jason. After review, our three parishes will be notified that we can prepare the final New Parish Name Surveys for parishioners.

Once we are notified that all is OK to move forward and these top six names have been reviewed and confirmed, a final Parish wide Survey will be taken at all our weekend Masses at all three parishes on the same weekend.

When this is done the Naming Team will gather and collate the results of the parishioner's Name Survey. They will then prioritize this list along with their rationale and prepare a list of the top 3-5 suggestions.

These names will then be sent to Fr. Jason Malave who will present them to Cardinal Cupich and the Bishops who will discuss the names and the rationale for each either at the Episcopal Council or via email. The recommendation from the Cardinal and the Episcopal Vicar will then be brought to the Presbyteral Council for final confirmation at which time we will be notified of our new parish name!

Fr. Rich

To help us all prepare for this important process of discerning a new name for our uniting parishes please read the following information and use it to help you in making your own personal suggestions next weekend.

Guidelines for Naming of a New Parish

> But now says the Lord, who created you, O Jacob, who formed you, O Israel: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name. You are mine. Because you are precious in my eyes, and honored, and I love you…Fear not, for I am with you." Isaiah 43: 1, 4, 5

A newly formed parish will be given a new name to mark the beginning of a new community.

What names are appropriate for parishes?

The name of a new parish should be a title of Christ under a title already accepted in the liturgy or that speaks to a mystery in His life; the Blessed Virgin Mary under a title already accepted in the liturgy; the Trinity; the Holy Spirit; one of the angels; or a canonized saint.

Parishes may choose a name based on a special devotion to a particular saint or because the saint represents a certain cultural or ethnic perspective.

One place to obtain a list of names and a short description of each saint is www.catholic.org/saints.

Other helpful links, listed below, can direct your attention to saints who have been more recently canonized and by which pope.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_saints_canonized_by_Pope_Benedict_XVI

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_saints_canonized_by_Pope_John_XXIII

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_saints_canonized_by_Pope_Pius_XII

Is there any special guidance for proposing a new name for a new parish from Cardinal Cupich?

Yes, Cardinal Cupich has asked that newly united parishes do not consider a name that is already in use as the name of a parish, school, mission, agency, or shrine in the archdiocese. The name for the new parish should have a feast day for the new parish to celebrate. Please consult the updated Directory of the Chicago Archdiocese at https://www.archchicago.org/documents/70111/70558/Parish+Directory.pdf/b302c7ae-7039-4647-a9d4-0ac9fe5448d7

Could the name of the new parish be the name of one of the current parishes?

Normally newly formed parishes will receive new names. However, in some circumstances the Cardinal may decide to retain the name of one of the parishes for the name of the newly formed parish.

Could the name of the new parish combine both existing parish names such as Holy Name and St. Mary?

There is no hard and fast rule about this, but often there are advantages to choose a new name for the new community. New beginnings often call for new names. There are examples in the diocese of the new parish reflecting the names of the uniting parishes. On the Near North Side, the parish is Immaculate Conception and St. Joseph Parish. In Northbrook, the parish is St. Norbert and Our Lady of the Brook.

Who will choose the name of the parish?

Cardinal Cupich, after receiving input from the community, will name the new parish community. Ordinarily, Cardinal Cupich will receive 3 - 5 names for consideration from the community. It is possible he may choose a name outside of the names submitted for his consideration.

Who will be involved in giving suggestions about the new parish name?

The Naming Team, created by the pastor, will lead a prayerful process which will generate names and rationale for the naming of the parish. Parish leaders and parishioners will be invited to express a preference for the name of the new parish entity.

Will our church building have a new name?

No. Once a church building is dedicated, it keeps its name. For instance, in Waukegan, the united parish is named: Most Blessed Trinity Parish with three worship sites: Holy Family, Immaculate Conception and Queen of Peace.

CONVERSATION WITH GOD

Prayer is our focus this weekend. In the Gospel, Jesus gives his disciples, and us, the Lord's Prayer, which we have cherished through the centuries. The first two words encompass much about our faith—unity among all Christians (Our), and a sense that we are in a deeply bonded relationship with God (Father).

In Genesis, we see Abraham in conversational prayer, in his creaturely humility before his Creator, seeking mercy and compassion for the innocent. The psalm is a lyrical prayer of thanksgiving and praise for the God who answered the sincere prayers of a people who had called out for help, showing them mercy. In Luke's Gospel, the disciples want to pray like Jesus, with the same intimacy—to experience God as Abba in the depths of their being.

Do we try to talk to God? Do we listen for answers? This relationship is always a work in progress.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Apart from the period from Thanksgiving through Christmas, the summer is a favored time for family reunions. We trace family trees and recall our origins. Worship has a family tree as well, and the way we celebrate today has been influenced by various styles and customs through the centuries. We are Western Christians of the Latin Rite. By far, we are the most numerous Western Christians, but there are other ritual families as well. The Archdiocese of Milan in Italy follows the Ambrosian Rite, Toledo in Spain preserves the Mozarabic Rite and the Arab language, and Lyons in France is home to the Gallican Rite. Other liturgical families, such as the Celtic in Ireland and the Sarum in England, faded away after the Reformation. Until recent times, members of some ancient religious orders such as Carmelites and Trappists followed a pattern of Mass that varied slightly from the plan observed in Latin Rite parishes.

Isn't the Catholic Church the same everywhere? Not at all. It never has been! The existence of so many liturgical families in the West reminds us that unity, not uniformity, is what the Church seeks to achieve among her children. We are united in faith, but wonderfully diverse in rituals, ceremonies, languages, customs, and spirituality.
