Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions.

From the Pastor's Desk...

This weekend and next all three of our uniting parishes will begin the important process of choosing/discerning a new name for our uniting parish. This process will take place at all of our Masses this weekend and next. After all the names suggested and collected for the next two weeks, I will be meeting with our new Unification Committee, and we will sort through all the suggestions ranking each name and how many times it was chosen. The Unification Team also known as the Naming Team for this task will ultimately present to Cardinal Cupich a list of 3 – 6 suggested names and rationale for selecting each name at the end of this process.

The process has preliminarily begun over the past couple of weeks as I have been writing about it in my bulletin column as well as announcements being read at our Masses. At each of our Masses beginning this weekend all parishioners will be invited to suggest names and the rationale for choosing this name for the new parish. These suggested names will be collected and sorted by members of the Naming Team. They will then compile a comprehensive list of the top six to ten names suggested from all three of our parishes. We will then vote for two more weeks from the top ten to whittle the suggested names down to the top three to six.

These six names will then be given to Fr. Jason Malave, Cardinal Cupich's Liaison to Renew My Church. Fr. Jason will verify that all our suggested names meet the guidelines, and that there are no other multiple Grouping parishes interested in the same name within the archdiocese. If this happens, Fr. Jason will notify me. For different pastoral reasons, a name proposed by a parish community may need to be removed from the list before the final Parish Name Surveys are prepared. If this situation would arise, I as pastor would also be contacted by Fr. Jason. After review, our three parishes will be notified that we can prepare the final New Parish Name Surveys for parishioners.

Once we are notified that all is OK to move forward and these top six names have been reviewed and confirmed, a final Parish wide Survey will be taken at all our weekend Masses at all three parishes on the same weekend.

When this is done the Naming Team will gather and collate the results of the parishioner's Name Survey. They will then prioritize this list along with their rationale and prepare a list of the top 3-5 suggestions.

These names will then be sent to Fr. Jason Malave who will present them to Cardinal Cupich and the Bishops who will discuss the names and the rationale for each either at the Episcopal Council or via email. The recommendation from the Cardinal and the Episcopal Vicar will then be brought to the Presbyteral Council for final confirmation at which time we will be notified of our new parish name!

****

On July 15th – 25th I, and a group of about 30 travelers from many parishes left for a European journey that took us to Oberammergau, Germany to see the world famous, once-every-ten-year Passion Play. It was just phenomenal. A truly moving and prayerful experience even though the Play was performed in German. Of course, we all had a booklet in English so that we could follow along. Though after a while most of us put our booklets down and were just taken in by the Passion story itself. This was a trip that was cancelled in 2020 because of the COVID reality and finally got rescheduled in 2022.

We also visited the countries of Austria, Croatia, Slovenia, Italy, and Germany. We visited Vienna, where we attended a Baroque Concert, walked among some of the 1500 rooms of the Schoenborn Palace which was the summer residence of the Hapsburg Emperors. We visited St. Stephen's Cathedral and had a tour of the city of Vienna among so many other sites. We then drove to Graz for a walking tour of the old town and then continued to the Croatian border through the Alps to Zagreb for dinner.

After breakfast the next day we toured the fascinating city of Zagreb and St. Mark's Church. Continuing our journey, we headed to Ljubljana for a city tour and a beautiful boat excursion on Lake Bled. The next day we visited the natural phenomenon of the Postojna Caves. A miles long series of underground caves where one was more beautiful than the next. They were an exotic jungle of stalactites and stalagmites. From here we went to Mestre, the mainland port of Venice for dinner and an overnight. Getting up the next day we toured the beautiful city of Venice, Italy as well as a stop on the island of Bolzano. On this trip we also included a visit to see The Man in the Ice – one of the oldest and most complete human finds in the world. He was discovered on a glacier in the Otz Valley and is estimated to be 5300 years old. Our trip concluded in Oberammergau, Germany to see the 2022 Passion Play.

One of the best parts of this trip was how neat it was to see people, many of whom, had never met before, becoming friends and companions on this journey. That's one of the nice things about group travel and why I so enjoy travelling with former and present parishioners and their family and friends. Next year in 2023 we'll be providing the opportunity for anyone that might want to join us for either one or both destinations that will be taking us to The Holy Land and possibly Jordan as well as to Italy for a visit to Rome and the Island of Sicily. If you might be interested in joining us or hearing more about these trips just let me know. We'd be glad to have you and your family and/or friends join us next year.

THE CENTER OF A MEANINGFUL LIFE

Today's readings invite us to reflect upon some of life's deepest questions, and to explore the meaning of faith. We hear of the universal human search for meaning in our lives in the book of Ecclesiastes. In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus' parable about one who foolishly seeks ultimate security through the accumulation of wealth. In Colossians, faith in the crucified and resurrected Christ is proclaimed as the path to a richly purposeful and meaningful life. The path of Christian faith places our work, our sufferings, and our limitations within the larger picture of God's purposes for all of us. In Jesus, God is revealed as our companion in human suffering and limitation. God's love is at the center of a meaningful life. We place our trust in this loving God, who created us to share in this love, and to share this love with others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, there was the usual buzz of speculation about likely successors. Cardinal Agajanian, Patriarch of the Armenians, was highly thought of as a likely choice. This took many Catholics by surprise, since he had never celebrated the same liturgy as Pope Pius, but followed ancient Armenian customs according to the Eastern Church, which veils the Eucharisic liturgy from sight by a series of curtains, and in which the priest kneels while the people stand for Communion.

In the years that followed, the Second Vatican Council would affirm the dignity and independence of the Eastern Churches, in complete union with Rome, yet different in patterns of life and worship. We have the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same pope. Yet everywhere in the world our separate Churches are combined into families held together by the ministry of bishops. All of this serves as warning: If you ever say, "But we've always done it this way," you are on very thin ice indeed!
