From the Pastor's Desk...

Last week at all three of our churches we began the process of suggesting names for our uniting parishes. I want to thank everyone who submitted possible names for our new parish. This process will continue again this weekend so that we can gather as many names as we can. Our newly-formed Unification Committee will gather all the suggested names when we get together on August 16th. They will all be sorted and counted and prioritized based on popularity. The top ten of these names will then be placed on a ballot for all the parishioners of each of our parishes to choose their favorites. These will then, also, be tallied and sorted and will be vetted to ensure any of these suggested names have not already been chosen by any of the Renew My Church groupings or other parishes in the Archdiocese. One they are vetted the top 3-5 names will be sent to the Presbyteral Council and the Cardinal for his decision and approval. Hopefully, we will have our new name by the end of September or the beginning of October. I want to thank you all for your participation in this important process. I will let you know when the final decision is made.

Just a reminder to the members of each of our parishes that confessions are offered weekly at our St. Eugene worship site in the reconciliation/cry room in the back of church beginning at 4:00 p.m. until all are heard.

Also, we are looking for as many members as possible from our three communities of faith to fill the roles of usher, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, lectors, and choir members. Please see the Ministry page in our bulletin to contact the coordinators of these ministries to sign up. We will provide the training for each of these ministries. There is no reason why we should be lacking ushers for any of our masses at each of our churches. So, I am asking that men and women, young and older, please sign up to join this ministry in particular, as well as the others. A faith-filled, vibrant church is reflected in the spirit of volunteerism in its membership. No one is unworthy of filling these rolls. Please do your part as an active parishioner to help us meet our needs. My goal as pastor of our communities of faith is to have every parishioner engaged in one way or another in some form of ministry within our parish. Remember our parish will only be what we are willing to make it!

Hopefully you've noticed some of the landscaping work that has been done to spruce up the St. Eugene Campus this summer. Shrubs have been trimmed around the church, school, and convent as well as mulch spread around all existing shrubs and trees. I also want to thank Boguslaw Krolikowski, Maintenance Supervisor from OLMC, for patching some of the potholes in the parking lots of Our Lady Mother of the Church and St. Eugene. Though there is much work that yet needs to be done to bring our facilities up to snuff, we will tackle them one at a time. We are currently working with the Archdiocese in evaluating the physical needs of each of our campuses. I will fill everyone in on the results of these findings in the near future. It is clear, however, that we have deferred maintenance on our facilities for too long now and as a result our facilities are badly in need of repair and fixing up.

****

It is now time for our parish families to register for our school and religious education programs if you have not done so already. The Religious Education Program for all three of our parishes will be held at the St. Eugene Campus this coming year. You can find all the information you need to sign up in the bulletin or by calling the St. Eugene School office at 773-763-2235.

Have a great rest of the summer everyone!

To help us all prepare for this important process of discerning a new name for our uniting parishes please read the following information and use it to help you in making your own personal suggestions next weekend.

Guidelines for Naming of a New Parish

> But now says the Lord, who created you, O Jacob, who formed you, O Israel: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name. You are mine. Because you are precious in my eyes, and honored, and I love you…Fear not, for I am with you." Isaiah 43: 1, 4, 5

A newly formed parish will be given a new name to mark the beginning of a new community.

What names are appropriate for parishes?

The name of a new parish should be a title of Christ under a title already accepted in the liturgy or that speaks to a mystery in His life; the Blessed Virgin Mary under a title already accepted in the liturgy; the Trinity; the Holy Spirit; one of the angels; or a canonized saint.

Parishes may choose a name based on a special devotion to a particular saint or because the saint represents a certain cultural or ethnic perspective.

One place to obtain a list of names and a short description of each saint is www.catholic.org/saints.

Other helpful links, listed below, can direct your attention to saints who have been more recently canonized and by which pope.

Is there any special guidance for proposing a new name for a new parish from Cardinal Cupich?

Yes, Cardinal Cupich has asked that newly united parishes do not consider a name that is already in use as the name of a parish, school, mission, agency, or shrine in the archdiocese. The name for the new parish should have a feast day for the new parish to celebrate. Please consult the updated Directory of the Chicago Archdiocese at How Shall We Name Our New Parish?

As you know, Divine Savior; Our Lady, Mother of the Church; and St. Eugene have united to form one parish as of July 1, 2022. All parishioners have the opportunity to participate in choosing a new name for the Parish to mark the beginning of a new community.

As a reminder, here are the guidelines:

- The name of the new parish should be one of the following:
  - A title of Christ under a title already accepted in the liturgy or that speaks to a mystery in His life
  - The Blessed Virgin Mary under a title already accepted in the liturgy
  - The Trinity
  - The Holy Spirit
  - One of the angels
  - A canonized saint
- Not a name already in use as the name of a parish, school, mission, agency, or shrine in the Archdiocese.
- The chosen name should have a feast day for the new parish to celebrate.

Fill out the form below and be sure to include why you chose this name for the newly-formed parish.

Example: St. Anthony Mary Claret. He was a Spanish archbishop, saint, and spiritual father of Cuba. He was a missionary and religious founder of both priests and sisters (Claritians). Among his many initiatives: established vocational schools for disadvantaged children; advocate for the imprisoned and oppressed; social reform; denounced racism. He was devoted to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
His feast day is October 24.

FAITH

Our readings today explore how faith begins and how faith works. Faith begins with God's initiative of love, together with God's promise about the future. The passage from Hebrews urges readers to have an assured confidence in God, who promised and delivered a lasting legacy to Abraham. The book of Wisdom reminds readers of the God who promised and delivered freedom from slavery during the Exodus. In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus begins with the promise that "your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom," before describing how to live faithfully during times when God seems absent. God's promises mean that God is fully invested in our future. Living in these promises, we can confidently let go of fear and insecurity. We can anticipate that when God intervenes in our lives, it will be for our benefit. And we can become God's partners in fulfilling these divine promises.

His place on the list

Sometimes the sayings of Jesus seem far removed from reality. Consider Luke 12:32-40: 'Do not fear, little flock. Sell everything - give to the poor where your treasure is, there is your heart.' Sell everything?!! And then how do we feed ourselves, who will give us shelter? But this sticky question shows us the true power of this lesson: It's the attitude, not the act Jesus is truly looking for. Every day we struggle to set priorities. What goes first on the list? God? Missions? Our parish? No, sadly, it's usually paying bills, running errands, social activities. That's the problem. If we could only manage to put God at the top of the list, we'd have the attitude right. There would be no reason to sell off" all our other priorities if God already has His rightful place. Take a good, hard look at your list today. Could it stand a little revision?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The wonderful diversity of life and worship among Roman Catholics of East and West is an example of God writing straight with crooked lines. The steady hand of the villainous Emperor Diocletian drew a line across Europe and Africa that split the empire in two, and for the most part determined how Christians would worship two thousand years later.

Italy's heel and the far northern city of Trieste fell on the Eastern side, and have had a form of Eastern liturgy ever since. Constantinople, which soon became the seat of the Roman Empire, became a base for Christianizing the East up to Russia and Poland. Poland was on the Eastern side, but a series of wars and medieval mayhem pushed the religious boundary back to the Ukraine, and Poland remains an outpost of the Latin Church to this day.

An old rule of thumb declared that whatever religion was observed by the local prince, the people had to follow. This gave rise to persecution and migration as people sought toleration for their expressions of faith. In the United States, we are accustomed to peaceful collaboration among Christians of East and West, a situation that challenges churches that still feel the pinch of age-old division.
