TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 21, 2022

Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough.

From the desk of Father Rich Yanos

Today, we celebrate the Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our first reading today comes from the time when the Jews were trying to recover from their long exile and enslavement in Babylon. The prophet who is speaking sees great things for Jerusalem. He tells the people that some day people of all nations would come to worship the God they worshipped. Even the Jewish priesthood would be opened to foreigners. The lesson in this for us is that it reminds us that spiritually the Jews are our ancestors. It shows us also that God wants all people to be saved. The gate of heaven is open to everyone, a wonderful image. But Jesus, who always wishes to keep us in touch with reality, reminds us that, not everyone is headed that way.

****

Sadly, this Labor Day weekend will also be the last chance to attend Mass at Divine Savior Church. Sunday, September 4th at 9:00 a.m. will be the final Mass that will be celebrated for the community of Divine Savior. I encourage all who have been a part of this dedicated community of faith for so many years to be a part of this final liturgy there. This will most definitely be a bittersweet time together, but it should also be a time to celebrate all that the community of Divine Savior has meant to their membership over the years as well as to the community of Norridge since their founding. Experiencing the closing of a parish community is never pleasant nor is it something any of us want to see, however, I choose to remember Divine Savior for the difference it has made in the lives of so many of her membership over the past many decades as well as what I hope Divine Savior's membership will bring to our newly-forming community of faith as we look toward and plan for our future together.

Today, Sunday, August 21st, I celebrate my 65th birthday. Birthdays are usually days that just come and go for me, but this year seems a little different in that for the first time in my life I feel like I am definitely getting older, and I truly realize that I'm not getting any younger. I'm now officially at the age that makes me eligible for "senior" discounts with every group or organization that offers them. I'm also now an official Medicare Card carrier. I always tell others that you are only as old as you feel. Even though I may be chronologically getting older there are days when I still feel like a spring chicken! I hope as I look to the future there are more of these days than the alternative! Ha! Thanks to all those who remembered my birthday this year with your cards and/or gifts. I am very grateful.

Finally, just a reminder that Monday, September 5th, is Labor Day, which is only two weeks away. From its origin as a federal holiday in 1894, Labor Day has celebrated the economic and social contributions of our country's workers. This day has also come to be celebrated by most Americans as the symbolic end of the summer.

Please be aware that there will be one community Mass that will be celebrated on Labor Day so that all three of our unifying parish communities can celebrate the holiday together. This year Labor Day Mass will be held at St. Eugene Church at 9:00 a.m.

I wish all in our parish community a happy Labor Day. May it be a day spent enjoying the company of your family and friends as best as you can and thanking God for the many blessings that each of us has been given.

Please plan on starting your holiday with one another on Labor Day morning at 9:00 a.m. Mass at St. Eugene Church.

Have a safe and great week ahead everyone!

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Our readings today remind us of the larger story of the Bible, of God's purposes and promises for the world. Because of humanity's rejection of God, as told in Genesis, human communities were first dispersed. Isaiah proclaims that one day God will gather these communities to be healed and reconciled with God. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus echoes Isaiah and teaches that all peoples in God's promised future "will recline at table in the kingdom of God." Notice that in Isaiah, the nations coming to God do not lose their ethnicity or unique identity. They bring their own distinct cultural gifts to God's table. Each people has its unique history with God, has received distinct blessings from God, and each is accountable to God. Today, we live in a global and multi-cultural Church. When God's diverse peoples gather in worship today, may we honor and celebrate each other's gifts and blessings.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians share a love for the Byzantine liturgy because it is during the Eucharist that the Church is most true to its identity, expresses its integrity, and discovers its vocation. Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians celebrate essentially the identical liturgy, with only very slight variations. It is a fairly complex ritual weaving together three separate layers of prayers: a liturgy prayed in the sanctuary by priests, often hidden by a curtain or screen; a liturgy sung by the assembly and led by a deacon in front of a screen formed of painted icons; and a third layer of private prayer by the priest, who prays in support of the deacon and the faithful. It is an eyes-wide-open experience, gorgeous in visuals, and filled with the sound of God's people singing prayer. The energy of the worship centers on the presence of Christ, largely through an awareness of heaven touching earth when the Church gathers to celebrate.

In the late twentieth century, Latin Rite Catholics were encouraged to embrace a style of worship that was "full, conscious, and active," a value that has never been lost in the East. The liturgy has great impact in its beauty, in its poetry and contemplation, and by the actions of bowing, signing with the cross, and chanting that are required of the assembly. Contact with the Eastern Church reveals some key values that have been obscured in our own Church and are slowly being recovered. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
