From the desk of Father Rich Yanos

Today our Church celebrates the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. It is also the first weekend we are coming back to you, our parishioners, with the final Grouping of Names that have been gathered and approved by our fifteen-member Unification Team. They have also been vetted by Fr. Jason Malave, the Cardinal's liaison for Renew My Church. He made sure none of the names that will be offered have been taken by any other parish in the Archdiocese. There were approximately 279 forms received from all three of our parishes. Of these forms submitted, 16 names were sent to Fr. Jason and eleven of these names were approved for this next step in the process of choosing our new name.

The following eleven names that have been approved are:

Mary, Mother of Peace
Our Lady, Queen of Peace
St. Andre Bessette
St Angela of the Cross
St. Callistus I
St. Florian
St. Gianna Molla
St. Lazarus
St. Marguerite Bays
St. Jude Thaddeus
St. Veronica

I ask that you think and pray long and hard regarding your choice for the new name of our newly-forming parish. Realize that it will be the name that will very likely outlive all of us. Formal selection forms should be in the pews and/or our parish bulletins this weekend and/or next. You may also use this page to circle your top choice. You can simply tear this page out of the bulletin and drop it in the collection basket or the parish offices of our three parishes. You can also mail them in as well.

With the last Mass for Divine Savior being held on Sunday, September 4th at 9:00 a.m., which is coming up next weekend, we were trying to think of a way to ritualize the ending of Divine Savior's rich history and the beginning of, hopefully, a new relationship with the communities of St. Eugene and Our Lady Mother of the Church. Since the Eucharist is at the heart of each of our communities of faith, we will be having a procession of cars from Divine Savior to St. Eugene Church at the end of the 9:00 a.m. Mass. We will be taking the remaining Eucharist from Divine Savior's tabernacle to the St. Eugene tabernacle. All will be invited to follow in procession as we make this transfer that will also symbolically remind us of our oneness in the Lord. We hope as many as possible will be a part of this procession.

Many have also been asking me if and when our daily and weekend Mass schedules will change. As I shared with you in the past, we definitely need to provide a schedule of Mass times that offers a wider variety of options than we currently have. (Having three 9:00 a.m. Masses is just not prudent). We only made minor changes to the current schedule of Mass times after the news of our consolidating because it was what each of our parishes were primarily used to and that news was enough change for us to have to bear a couple of months ago. For this reason, very shortly, we will all be presented with several options regarding what our future Mass times can possibly be and also the church locations where these Masses will be celebrated. One thing is for sure — to provide more options this may mean the specific Mass time that you would prefer might be at a church other than the one that you may have been used to attending. There will be much more information about this in the weeks ahead.

Also, just a reminder that Monday, September 5th, is Labor Day, which is only one week away. From its origin as a federal holiday in 1894, Labor Day has celebrated the economic and social contributions of our country's workers. This day has also come to be celebrated by most Americans as the symbolic end of the summer.

Please be aware that there will be one community Mass that will be celebrated on Labor Day so that all three of our unifying parish communities can celebrate the holiday together. This year Labor Day Mass will be held at St. Eugene Church at 9:00 a.m.

I wish all in our parish community a happy Labor Day. May it be a day spent enjoying the company of your family and friends as best as you can and thanking God for the many blessings that each of us has been given.

Please plan on starting your holiday with one another on Labor Day morning at 9:00 a.m. Mass at St. Eugene Church.

Finally, I'd like to welcome all our school children back to the start of a new year. I'd also like to welcome any of our new families and faculty that have joined our school community and hopefully our parish as well. It's hard to imagine any Catholic family making the financial sacrifice and investment in Catholic education today and not participate fully in the Eucharistic celebration that is the Mass where our faith is nurtured and fed. There is no greater combination than a solid Catholic education nurtured by our gathering around the Lord's Table together with our family of faith. It's what gives meaning to who we are and what we believe and what we want to pass on to our children and the next generation.

May God's peace and strength be yours.

Fr. Rich

Voting for Our New Parish Name

Below are the list of approved possible names sent by our Naming Committee to Fr. Jason Malave. Please read the description of each proposed name, along with their image, and cast your votes.

Mary, Mother of Peace — Feast Day: January 24

Mary said at the wedding feast of Cana, "Do whatever He tells you!" Jesus, just before he died, said on the cross, "Behold your mother!" In the book "How They Love Mary" the author says, "Every saint is devoted to Mary in some way"! St. Paul observed that, "God sent His Son, born of a woman" expressing the union of the human and the Divine in Christ.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace — Feast Day: January 24

The Blessed Mother of Jesus has many different titles, and she is most often referred to as first, Our Lady and then of a specific shrine or of a symbolic representation of character or goodness. Our Lady, Queen of Peace is a beautiful title for Her and most appropriate name for the new parish. With one church closing and another becoming just a worship site, the people of the newly-formed parish will certainly be looking to Our Lady for peace as this transition unfolds.

St. Andre Bessette — Feast Day: January 6

After joining the Congregation of the Holy Cross, he was first assigned as a doorkeeper at Notre Dame College in Montreal. When they fell ill, students, people from the school community, and later, from the Montreal area and beyond, came to pray with Br. Bessette, They prayed to St. Joseph, the patron saint of Montreal. Br. Bessette developed a healing ministry, and a huge following.

St. Angela of the Cross — Feast Day: March 2

At the age of 19, Angela asked to enter the Discalced Carmelites in Santa Cruz but was refused admission because of her bad health. Instead she began caring for destitute cholera patients, which was quickly spreading among the poor. In 1873 she received the call from God that would mark the beginning of her "new mission" to be "poor with the poor in order to bring them to Christ". While Mother Angela was alive, another 23 convents were established. In fact, Mother Angela herself was known by all as "Mother of the Poor".

St. Callistus I — Feast Day: October 14

Callistus was a slave of Carpophorus, a Christian of the household of Caesar. He became a deacon of Rome and the confidential counsellor of the Pope Victor, whom he succeeded. Callistus made a policy of reversing the excommunications of those who had committed murder and adultery and bringing them back into the Church upon their repentance. Pope Callistus is listed as a martyr, but there is no record of how he was martyred or by whom.

St. Florian — Feast Day: May 4

May 4th marks St Florian's Day, also known as International Firefighters Day. St Florian is the patron saint of firefighters. Florian was a high ranking Roman Army officer in the Roman province of Noricum. His superiors said he was good with people, a real problem solver, and a dedicated hard-worker. Florian died for his Christian faith, making him a Martyr. Many miracles of healing are attributed to his intercession and he is invoked as a powerful protector in danger from fire, and floods and against drowning.

St. Gianna Molla Feast Day: April 28

Patron saint of mothers, physicians and unborn children. She was an Italian pediatrician born in Italy in 1922 and received degrees in both medicine and surgery from the University of Pavia. From there on, she was especially drawn toward mothers, babies, the elderly and the poor. Gianna was beatified by Pope John Paul II on April 24, 1994, and officially canonized as a saint on May 16, 2004.

St. Lazarus Feast Day: July 29

The disciple and friend of Jesus raised from the dead after four days by Jesus. He was the brother of Martha and Mary. Just as Jesus Resurrected Lazarus, the newly-formed parish will become alive again and more vibrant.

St. Marguerite Bays Feast Day: June 27

St. Marguerite Bays was born in Switzerland in the 19th century. She was a laywoman known for her personal piety and holiness. Later in life she developed the stigmata on her hands, feet, and chest.

St. Jude Thaddeus Feast Day: October 28

St. Jude, known as Thaddeus, was a brother of St. James the Less, and a relative of Our Saviour. He was one of the 12 Apostles of Jesus. Catholics invoke St. Jude when in desperate situations because his New Testament letter stresses that the faithful should persevere in the environment of harsh, difficult circumstances -just as their forefathers had done before them; therefore, he is the patron saint of desperate cases. The Chicago Police Department has made St. Jude their patron saint.

St. Veronica Feast Day: July 12

St. Veronica lived in Jerusalem in the first century. Known for a great act of kindness, Veronica was moved with sympathy seeing Jesus carrying the cross to Calvary and gave him her veil so that he could wipe his forehead. Jesus accepted the offer, and when he returned the veil the image of his face was miraculously captured on it.

HUMILITY

Today's readings praise the virtue of humility and offer concrete ways for us to become more humble. The Book of Sirach suggests a practical reason for acting with humility: humble people are more likeable than the arrogant. Even God "finds favor" with those who humble themselves. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus provides real-world suggestions for growing in humility and teaches us never to assume we are better than others. His words change our outward behavior and expand our hearts and minds to care about people we might have dismissed before. This practical, almost "folksy" wisdom about humility helps us behave better in daily life and makes our lofty goal of eternal life more accessible. Our reading from Hebrews affirms that heaven is indeed approachable. The personal love and sacrifice of Jesus have opened "the city of the living God" to us. Humility prepares us for paradise. Peace is primarily an attitude of the heart. It is born of justice, grows in fraternity, flourishes on gratuitousness. It inspires us to serve the truth.

God blesses the humble

The humble realize that of themselves they are nothing, and that they stand in extreme need of help and grace of heaven; but the proud are convinced that they are full of grace and virtue. That is why God takes pleasure in showering His gifts on the former and in depriving the latter of His bounty.

St. Augustine of Hippo

NO SURPRISES

We are told by all spiritual writers that one important point to bear in mind,
as we seek to attain humility,
is not to be surprised by our own faults and failures.

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

LORD, HOLD OUR TROOPS IN YOUR LOVING HANDS.
PROTECT THEM AS THEY PROTECT US.
BLESS THEM AND THEIR FAMILIES
FOR THE SELFLESS ACTS THEY PERFORM
FOR US IN OUR TIME OF NEED.
WE ASK THIS IN THE NAME OF
JESUS OUR LORD AND SAVIOR. AMEN

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings today center on mindfulness, awareness of where we stand in God's plan. The mountain of Sinai carries a message of the majesty and distance of God, while Jesus' presence as host of the banquet speaks of intimacy and mystery. September's shadow calls us all to mindfulness as we prepare to return to life outside of summer. The Christian life holds these two places of knowledge of God in careful balance. Even in the accounts of the Passion we see the table of the upper room in balance with the Mount of Olives.

Altar means "high place," yet it is also a table. The former liturgy of the Latin Rite began with the priest bowing at the foot of the altar's three steps, chanting Introibo ad altare Dei, or "I will go to the altar of God," followed by the altar servers' response, "The God who gives joy to my youth." Many parishioners can recall and recite this scene by heart. As with so many things in liturgy, there are layers of meaning in our worship. The altar table evokes memories of the high places once reserved for encounter with the holy, and the intimacy of the table where hospitality draws us to share food and drink.
