From the desk of Father Rich Yanos

Today (Sunday at 9:00 a.m.) will be the last Mass celebrated at Divine Savior. There is much to be grateful for as we celebrate the rich 67-year history of Divine Savior. This community of faith has served the Norridge and surrounding area faithfully over these many years. To ritualize the ending of Divine Savior's rich history and the beginning of, hopefully, a new relationship with the communities of St. Eugene and Our Lady, Mother of the Church, we will be having a procession of cars from Divine Savior to St. Eugene Church at the end of the 9:00 a.m. Mass. We will be transporting the remaining Eucharist from Divine Savior's tabernacle to the St. Eugene tabernacle. All will be invited to follow in procession as we make this transfer that will also symbolically remind us of our oneness in the Lord. We hope as many as possible will be a part of this procession. Since the Eucharist is at the heart of each of our communities of faith, we thought this would be a highly symbolic reminder to us all that we are all united in Christ especially around his altar table no matter what church we may choose to worship at.

****

This weekend will be your last chance to make your choice regarding the new name that will be chosen for our uniting parishes. I ask that you think and pray long and hard about your choice for the new name of our newly-forming parish. Realize that it will be the name that will very likely outlive all of us. Formal selection forms are in the pews and today's parish bulletins. You can simply tear this page out of the bulletin and drop it in the collection basket or the parish offices of our three parishes. You can also mail them in as well. The deadline for turning in your ballots will be Tuesday, September 6th. Hopefully, by the end of the month we will have a new name to bring us all together as one new parish.

****

Just a reminder that this Monday, September 5th, is Labor Day.

There will be one community Mass that will be celebrated on Labor Day so that all three of our parish communities can celebrate the holiday together. This year Labor Day Mass will be held at St. Eugene Church at 9:00 a.m.

I wish all in our parish community a happy Labor Day. May it be a day spent enjoying the company of your family and friends as best as you can and thanking God for the many blessings that each of us has been given.

Please plan on starting your holiday with one another on Labor Day morning at 9:00 a.m. Mass at St. Eugene Church.

Some have also been asking, when our daily and weekend Mass schedules will change. As I shared with you in the past, we definitely need to provide a schedule of Mass times that offers a wider variety of options than we currently have. (Having three 9:00 a.m. Masses is just not prudent). We only made minor changes to the current schedule of Mass times after the news of our consolidating because it was what each of our parishes were primarily used to and that news was enough change for us to have to bear a couple of months ago. For this reason, very shortly, we will all be presented with several options regarding what our future Mass times can possibly be and the church locations where these Masses will be celebrated. One thing is for sure…we need to provide more options. To do this may mean the specific Mass time that you would prefer might be at a church other than the one that you may have been used to attending. There will be much more information about this in the weeks ahead when we will provide a survey for everyone to let us know what your preferred Mass times would be.

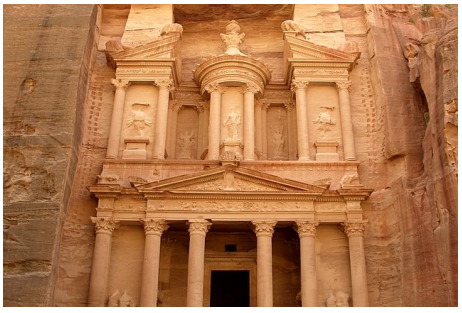

****

Many have also been asking me when we will be rescheduling the pilgrimage to the Holy Land that was cancelled due to the COVID pandemic. I've got good news to share with you. We will not only be going to the Holy Land but as an added bonus we will be adding Jordan to this year's itinerary as well. Very shortly the brochure for this trip will be made available. The trip will be departing around February 25, 2023, for around 11 days. We will also be having an informational meeting about the details of this exciting pilgrimage on Monday, September 26th at 7:00 p.m. So, if you and or your family members or friends might be interested in joining us, mark this date down in your calendar so that you, and they, can come and hear all about it. There will be more information on how to obtain a brochure and reserve your spot for this trip in next week's bulletin. I can promise you a truly wonderful and moving experience as we will be walking in the footsteps of Jesus.

Have a wonderful week everyone!

Voting for Our New Parish Name

Below are the list of approved possible names sent by our Naming Committee to Fr. Jason Malave. Please read the description of each proposed name, along with their image, and cast your votes.

Mary, Mother of Peace Feast Day: January 24

Mary said at the wedding feast of Cana, "Do whatever He tells you!" Jesus, just before he died, said on the cross, "Behold your mother!" In the book "How They Love Mary" the author says, "Every saint is devoted to Mary in some way"! St. Paul observed that, "God sent His Son, born of a woman" expressing the union of the human and the Divine in Christ.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace Feast Day: January 24

The Blessed Mother of Jesus has many different titles, and she is most often referred to as first, Our Lady and then of a specific shrine or of a symbolic representation of character or goodness. Our Lady, Queen of Peace is a beautiful title for Her and most appropriate name for the new parish. With one church closing and another becoming just a worship site, the people of the newly-formed parish will certainly be looking to Our Lady for peace as this transition unfolds.

St. Andre Bessette Feast Day: January 6

After joining the Congregation of the Holy Cross, he was first assigned as a doorkeeper at Notre Dame College in Montreal. When they fell ill, students, people from the school community, and later, from the Montreal area and beyond, came to pray with Br. Bessette, They prayed to St. Joseph, the patron saint of Montreal. Br. Bessette developed a healing ministry, and a huge following.

St. Angela of the Cross Feast Day: March 2

At the age of 19, Angela asked to enter the Discalced Carmelites in Santa Cruz but was refused admission because of her bad health. Instead she began caring for destitute cholera patients, which was quickly spreading among the poor. In 1873 she received the call from God that would mark the beginning of her "new mission" to be "poor with the poor in order to bring them to Christ". While Mother Angela was alive, another 23 convents were established. In fact, Mother Angela herself was known by all as "Mother of the Poor".

St. Callistus I Feast Day: October 14

Callistus was a slave of Carpophorus, a Christian of the household of Caesar. He became a deacon of Rome and the confidential counsellor of the Pope Victor, whom he succeeded. Callistus made a policy of reversing the excommunications of those who had committed murder and adultery and bringing them back into the Church upon their repentance. Pope Callistus is listed as a martyr, but there is no record of how he was martyred or by whom.

St. Florian Feast Day: May 4

May 4th marks St Florian's Day, also known as International Firefighters Day. St Florian is the patron saint of firefighters. Florian was a high ranking Roman Army officer in the Roman province of Noricum. His superiors said he was good with people, a real problem solver, and a dedicated hard-worker. Florian died for his Christian faith, making him a Martyr. Many miracles of healing are attributed to his intercession and he is invoked as a powerful protector in danger from fire, and floods and against drowning.

St. Gianna Molla Feast Day: April 28

Patron saint of mothers, physicians and unborn children. She was an Italian pediatrician born in Italy in 1922 and received degrees in both medicine and surgery from the University of Pavia. From there on, she was especially drawn toward mothers, babies, the elderly and the poor. Gianna was beatified by Pope John Paul II on April 24, 1994, and officially canonized as a saint on May 16, 2004.

St. Lazarus Feast Day: July 29

The disciple and friend of Jesus raised from the dead after four days by Jesus. He was the brother of Martha and Mary. Just as Jesus Resurrected Lazarus, the newly-formed parish will become alive again and more vibrant.

St. Marguerite Bays Feast Day: June 27

St. Marguerite Bays was born in Switzerland in the 19th century. She was a laywoman known for her personal piety and holiness. Later in life she developed the stigmata on her hands, feet, and chest.

St. Jude Thaddeus Feast Day: October 28

St. Jude, known as Thaddeus, was a brother of St. James the Less, and a relative of Our Saviour. He was one of the 12 Apostles of Jesus. Catholics invoke St. Jude when in desperate situations because his New Testament letter stresses that the faithful should persevere in the environment of harsh, difficult circumstances -just as their forefathers had done before them; therefore, he is the patron saint of desperate cases. The Chicago Police Department has made St. Jude their patron saint.

St. Veronica Feast Day: July 12

St. Veronica lived in Jerusalem in the first century. Known for a great act of kindness, Veronica was moved with sympathy seeing Jesus carrying the cross to Calvary and gave him her veil so that he could wipe his forehead. Jesus accepted the offer, and when he returned the veil the image of his face was miraculously captured on it.

LIMITS

Today's readings continue the theme of humility explored last Sunday. All three readings today encourage us to admit that we have limits, and God has none. The poignant poetry of Wisdom resonates with all of us who have ever struggled for peace in situations we cannot control: "For the corruptible body burdens the soul and the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns." Saint Paul recognizes his own limitations, both physically (he is in prison) and spiritually: he cannot compel his friend to obey his wishes; he can only propose his request and respect Philemon's free will. In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that God alone can complete the good we wish to do in the world. While we thank God for the gifts we receive—and the families we love—we acknowledge that they are temporary, and humbly cling to God.

Work makes us more human

"Work is a good thing for man. It's a good thing for his humanity, because through work man not only transforms nature, adapting it to his own needs, but he also achieves fulfillment as a human being and indeed, in a sense, becomes more of a human being."

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In recent years, there has been remarkable progress in drawing persons with disabilities into full celebration. Now it is generally accepted that worship places need accommodations such as ramps or elevators, large-print materials for those who are sight-impaired, and perhaps even an assisted hearing system or signing in American Sign Language. American Sign Language is not merely English translated into movement, but a distinct language with its own grammar, syntax (word order), and vocabulary. For this reason, the American Catholic bishops have approved American Sign Language (ASL) as an official language of the liturgy.

Celebrating liturgy in our own language (the vernacular) means that liturgy must be accessible to all languages and cultures. The fact that Mass is celebrated this weekend in some places in total silence, but with the full participation of deaf people praising God in the movements of their hands, and sometimes even with a priest who is deaf, is nothing less than the Church being faithful to the image of Jesus, who made the deaf hear and the mute speak. Remember too that deafness is an invisible disability, and that there may well be people in your parish who are quietly yearning for Mass to be signed for them in ASL.
