TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth.

From the desk of Father Rich Yanos

As you might imagine, there is so much that is happening for us all with the work we have been about in the past few months in trying to bring our three parishes together. It goes without saying that at times it can be overwhelming. What is making this all "doable" is the cooperation I feel I have been receiving on the part of all our parishioners from Divine Savior, Our Lady Mother of the Church, and St. Eugene. It has not been easy navigating the different church environments, sacristies and adjusting to the many "different" ways we put our faith into practice. What has impressed me and made our lives easier as priests is all of you who have gone out of your way to help us navigate our ways in our three churches. I thank you all for that.

As I said at Mass this past weekend, I am convinced we are going to get through this process because we will do it together. We will learn as we go, and we will come out stronger in the end. I truly believe what we are going through will have positive and long-lasting results as we continue to build up, strengthen, and creatively work together to unite our parish families. A great example of this was last weekend's pizza, donut, and coffee socials after all the Masses. It was a great start as parishioners from each of our parishes were talking to each other, introducing themselves and starting to get to know one another. We've got to start somewhere. I want to thank Lonnie Muehlfelder, Mary Marszalek and Mary Unger and all the volunteers from each of our parishes who pulled together to make these socials possible. I had a great time and I think everyone that came did as well.

Over the past couple of months, in my bulletin articles I had let you know that we would be re-evaluating our Sunday and daily Mass schedules. As you know, having three Sunday morning 9:00 a.m. Masses going on simultaneously was not ideal. Also, given the small numbers of daily Mass attendees; having two Masses a day is just not practical and realistic with only two full-time priests and the almost 200 funerals a year we anticipate based on previous year's statistics. To determine the new daily Mass Schedule we will be asking specifically the daily Mass attendees for their input on the new schedule since they are the ones who attend our weekday morning Masses.

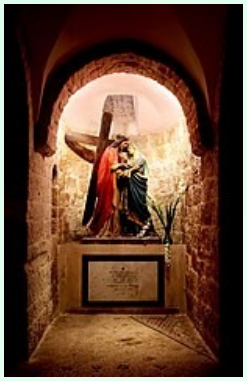

For these reasons, over the next two weekends at all our Masses, we will be asking everyone in our, now, two worship sites to let us know what your preferences of Weekend Mass times will be. We will provide a ballot that will be easy to read and understand on which you will be able to let us know what choices you would prefer for Saturday evening and Sunday Mass times. We will more than likely be looking to start our new Mass time schedule on the 1st Sunday of Advent which would be November 27th.

If you've ever wanted to experience the origins of our Christian faith, a trip to the Holy Land with your fellow parishioners, family and friends could make that a possibility. I make this invitation to anyone who has always wanted to visit this very sacred and special place to truly consider this opportunity to walk in the footsteps of Jesus this coming February 25th for a 13-day Pilgrimage. I will be taking another group to Israel and the Holy Land this coming Lent. This is truly a special time of the year to experience the Holy Land and this year we will also be adding a few days in Jordan. If you might want to read more about this once-in-a-lifetime experience or if you would like your own brochure outlining this trip you can simply fill out the form contained in the Holy Land article in today's bulletin and send it back to me and I will mail or email you a copy. I can promise you and anyone that might be going with you a truly prayerful, reflective, educational, and very enjoyable experience.

We will be having our 1st Informational Meeting about this trip on Monday, September 26th, at 7:00 p.m. – just one week away! Our travel agent will be present as well. All are invited to attend. It will be held in the School's Meeting Room 110 at St. Eugene. This room is located just off the church parking lot. You can park your car in the church parking lot and walk the short distance to the entrance at the west end of the school building near the rectory garage. I hope to see you there, if only for you to hear and learn more about where we will be going and what we will be seeing. It would be wonderful if we had a large group from our new parish community going. What a greater way can there be to get to know one another than by travelling together.

Today's 2nd Collection will be used to support our seminarians on their journey to the priesthood through the Annual Seminarian Education Fund. Your generosity is so much needed and deeply appreciated. The funds that are generated from this important collection will continue to grow the mission of Mundelein Seminary as they strive to form compassionate, well-trained priests for the future of the Church.

Seminarians take a great leap of faith and invest vast amounts of time, talent, and their own treasure to answer God's call to serve his Church. To provide the necessary formation they need, please give generously in today's 2nd collection.

Many thanks to everyone in our three parishes who are "trying out" attending Mass at both St. Eugene and/or Our Lady Mother of the Church. Have a great week everyone.

PRIORITIES

Make a choice. God or money, material things, earthly pleasure. This is what Jesus asks us to do in today's Gospel. The Pharisees and scribes, and many people, want it both ways. God and wealth. But Jesus knows that "no servant can serve two masters." It is not that wealth is inherently bad, but the pursuit of it to the exclusion of what is good and righteous is. Our faith is meant to guide and shape the way we live. If we are followers of Jesus Christ, we will treat others, especially the poor and vulnerable, fairly and justly. We will live with devotion to God and let our lives speak the truth of God's love for all. We will put first things first, or more precisely, put God and God's ways first, assured that when we do, everything else will fall into place.

Morris Drop in Club

Over the past several decades, the Morris Drop In members met at Divine Savior Church. With the closing of that campus, we will be moving to Our Lady Mother of the Church campus. After the 8:30 a.m. Mass, we will meet every Monday in the Hayes Center, until around noon. We are a social club where we exchange information and play card games, namely the game "31" or any others that the group wants to play. We gather every Monday. All members of the newly-combined parish are welcome to join.
For information, contact Jackie Pomis at 708-705-4552 or email at jbpomis@hotmail.com.

We need leaders who enable peoples to grow in mutual understanding and dialogue, thus giving birth to the determination to build a more stable and peaceful world, with an eye to future generations. This will take understanding, patience and dialogue with all.

PLEASE CALL THE RECTORY IF YOU WANT TO ADD A NAME TO THE SICK LIST.

You are cordially invited to join the Ministry of Prayer.

What is the Ministry of Prayer?

Volunteers in this ministry pray daily for the needs of the church, community, and world. The goal of this ministry is to provide us with the opportunity to pray "together while apart." Although this ministry was originally directed to those who are homebound, it has expanded to include any of us who would like to pray as a group, even though we never formally get together, using the prayer intentions provided for us, while in our favorite place to pray. The prayers can be as simple as an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be, a decade of the rosary, the Divine Chaplet; it can be a simple conversation with Our Lord, or it could be taking a few minutes to meditate on the prayer intention. Whatever prayer method is used is the best prayer.

If you would like to join the Ministry of Prayer, simply fill out the form below and you will receive the prayer intentions for the months of September, October, and November. There is no fee; there are no meetings to attend. Every three months, you will receive the prayer intentions for the next 3 months. All you are asked to do is to pray for the intention of that day — that's it! There is power in prayer, especially when we pray together — even if we are all in our own homes! Won't you join us?

Please fill in the form below; drop it off at the rectory office; drop it in the collection basket; mail it in; or email the information to us.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When the Roman Empire turned a favorable eye toward the once-persecuted Christians, among the effects was a population explosion in the baptismal font, as Christian sympathizers stepped from the shadows. With more and more people becoming Christians, laws were passed to protect Sunday as a work-free day. Soon, it became possible to celebrate Mass later in the morning, rather than the older custom of gathering before dawn to celebrate Eucharist. Amazingly, despite the increasing numbers of Christians, there was great resistance to adding to the number of worship events; the Eucharist that began as a few friends around a table soon was transformed into a more formal event with throngs crowding a large hall. All the Christians in a city or town would gather around the bishop for the one Sunday Eucharist, and only when the crowds became unmanageable was there an impulse to divide the assembly by splitting off a new bishop and flock.

Now, sixteen hundred years later, many parishes see a need to trim or combine Mass schedules. This is often seen as tough surgery. Yet our forebears in the faith would see it as a gain: a filling up of the Eucharist with a large and vigorous assembly, a fullness of ministry, an opportunity to make the Church more fully visible and stronger for service.
