THIRTIETH Sunday

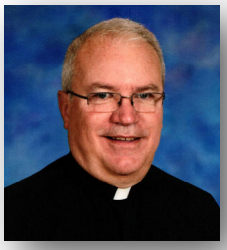

IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:14

October 23 2022

From the desk of Father Rich Yanos

BLESSED PAULINE JARICOT

Foundress of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith

"A young French woman, Pauline Jaricot, founded the Society for the Propagation of the Faith exactly two hundred years ago. Albeit in poor health, she accepted God's inspiration to establish a network of prayer and collection for missionaries, so that the faithful could actively participate in the mission 'to the ends of the earth'"

Overseen by Pope Francis, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith has a 200-year history of solidarity. Today when you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Pope to provide support to:

- 844,000 catechists teaching the faith
- 258,540 Religious Sisters caring for children and families
- 38,140 seminarians preparing for the priesthood
- 26 million children in primary schools
- 12,000 clinics caring for the sick and dying
- 8,750 homes for orphaned children and the elderly

When it seems that so much divides us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each one of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,100 mission dioceses. If you are able, place a donation to support World Mission Sunday in the 2nd collection today, or you can make a donation online at: WeAreMissionary.org/wms.

Tuesday, November 1st, is ALL SAINT'S DAY – A Holy Day of Obligation. This means that all Catholics are obliged to attend Mass on this day to celebrate and honor those men and women of days gone by that have led and modeled for us exemplary lives of faithfulness and solid Christian living. We will offer five Masses on Tuesday, November 1st. At St. Eugene there will be Masses at 6:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m. and at 7:00 p.m. At Our Lady, Mother of the Church there will be Masses at 8:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Please note that there will not be an anticipatory Mass on Monday night, October 31st.

On Wednesday, November 2nd, we will celebrate the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed with ALL SOUL'S DAY. Masses on All Soul's Day will be celebrated at both parishes as well. Morning Mass on Nov. 2nd will be celebrated at Our Lady Mother of the Church at 8:30 a.m. At St. Eugene Church Masses will be at 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. with the special celebration for all three of our parishes at the 7:00 p.m. Mass. All in our community are invited and encouraged to attend this special evening Mass to honor and remember your deceased loved ones. This Mass will be a powerful expression of remembrance for those who have gone before us, not only in our parish community but within our own families as well. At this Mass all will be given the opportunity to personally acknowledge their deceased loved ones.

In addition, if you would like to remember your deceased loved ones in another special way, you may write their names in the spaces provided on the special All Soul's Day envelope that was included in your October Sunday envelope packet. If your church does not have these envelopes in your weekend offering envelope packet you can simply write the names of your deceased loved ones on a piece of paper and place them in a plain envelope with your offering. The envelopes can be placed in the regular Sunday offering or brought to the parish office. The names that you submit will then be published in our parish bulletin within one or two weeks (this is so we can gather all the names submitted that often come in after All Soul's Day) and placed upon the altar during the month of November and throughout the year.

We hope that this time of prayer together will renew our hope and heal our pain and grief. In the sharing of our grief, we believe that our grief is diminished. May our loving God continue to bless and comfort you as you mourn the loss and celebrate the memories of your loved ones.

We are currently looking carefully at the data that was submitted regarding the choices for weekend Mass times in our parish communities submitted a few weeks ago. Currently we are looking at both these choices and the October count numbers of parishioners attending Mass at both of our churches. The first week of November we will be letting you know of what the new weekend and daily Mass times and locations will be beginning the 1st weekend of Advent which will be November 26th/27th, 2022. I ask for everyone's cooperation and support as we look realistically at the current total number of Mass attendees, the sizes of our churches, the almost 200 funerals that are expected annually, the reality we are facing with the diminishing number of priests to serve our parishes, the fact that we currently have only two full-time priests – Fr. Jacek and myself, and the blessing of two retired priests – Fr. Greg and Fr. Ed, that are truly a gift to our community for as long as we are able to have them. We are facing challenging times and for that reason we must all accept the reality that things just cannot be what they once were when we had five priests living here at St. Eugene, three priests at Divine Savior and one at Our Lady Mother of the Church. However, we will do our best to offer and provide the opportunity to receive the Eucharist on a consistent and regular basis. It may mean, though, that the Mass time you prefer and were accustomed to attending at your own parish may now be at our other worship site. When you think about it, it is really a small inconvenience for something so important to us all. We priests have already been setting this example by going to all three of our churches to celebrate Mass since July 1st.

Finally, I want to offer best wishes and congratulations to all who received the gift of the Holy Spirit as the Sacrament of Confirmation was conferred last weekend. Bishop Francis Kane celebrated a beautiful and meaningful Mass for our candidates and their families and friends. To the Confirmation Class of 2022, may this the beginning of a stronger and more meaningful relationship with Jesus and his Church. Congratulations to your families as well.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 23, 2022

GOD'S VISION

In these waning weeks of the liturgical year, our readings present us with God's vision for the world, in which the prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds and the humble are exalted in God's sight. It is not always easy to follow Jesus, to stand for justice, share love, and bring peace when there is so much division, poverty, loneliness, and pain in our homes, workplaces, cities, and world. We do not stand alone, however. We who are disciples and servants are assured that the Lord will hear our petitions, stand by us, and give us strength as we strive to bear witness to the good news of salvation.

THE LORD HEARS THE CRY OF THE POOR

It is easy for those who do not face food insecurity or homelessness to turn a deaf ear to those who struggle for survival. We may regularly drive by the street corner and ignore the person who stands there each day asking for help. We might see the commercial on TV, hear the plea on the radio or in our churches, and yet not let the message in, ignoring not only the need, but the people whose needs are great. The prophet Sirach and the psalmist tell us that the Lord is not like us—God hears the cries of the oppressed, the orphan and widow, the vulnerable among us. As Christian disciples we are called to become more like our loving, compassionate God who hears the cry of the poor.

DO WE?

Jesus' parable in today's Gospel tells the story of two people. The Pharisee is puffed up with his own importance. His prayer is more a statement of self-justification in which he positions himself as being above the rest of humanity. So much so that he prays to himself, thanking God that he is so much better than everyone else! The tax collector on the other hand raises his eyes to God and acknowledges his sinfulness. He is the one Jesus says is justified, exalted in God's sight. What about us? Are we so puffed up with our own importance, so caught up in the stuff of our daily lives that we fail to recognize our failings or to see the needs of the people around us? This week, let us ask the Lord to pierce our hearts, help us to genuinely admit our failings, and truly live as followers of the one who gave his life so that all might live life to the fullest. God hears the cries of the weakest and relies on us to respond.

October Is the Month of the Holy Rosary

This Sunday, October 23, is World Mission Sunday, so our Rosary intention this week is for the missions and missionaries. Anyone may lead the Rosary before the 8:30 a.m. Mass. We thank all who pray at least one Rosary for the weekly intention, including Rosary Guild members Emily A., Lori G., James H., John I., Evelyn K., Terri K., Gilda M., Lonnie M. Mary M., Ted M., Josephine N., Emilie P., Stefania P., Jean R., Shirley S., and Milabelle T.

The Living Rosary is where people each pray a decade of the Rosary daily for the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and in honor of Saint Philomena, who is the patron of the Living Rosary. If you would like to pray daily the next available decade, Jesus Dies on the Cross, please contact the rectory office.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

We have started to meet and continue to meet on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of every month from Noon to 3:00 P.M. in the Hayes Center of Our Lady Mother of the Church.
Our sincere appreciation to all who donated yarn and money so that we can continue our ministry.
We are overwhelmed with your generosity. Boxes will remain in church for a bit longer.
We will pray for all of you and ask you to keep us in your prayers as well.
If you crochet please join us for fellowship and giving back to the community.

Faithful Departed

Question:
How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

Answer:
We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

St. Eugene Church
Mondays 4:00 pm - 6: 00 pm.
Benediction at 5:45 pm

"Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us."
St. Alphonsus Liguori

MADE RIGHT BEFORE GOD

Although the opening lines of today's first reading claim that the Lord "knows no favorites" (Sirach 35:15) and is "not unduly partial toward the weak" (35:16), the remainder of the passage makes it clear that the Lord does indeed pay special attention to the weak, the oppressed, and the orphans and widows. The psalmist reiterates: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor" (see Psalm 34:18). In the Gospel, Jesus claims that a tax collector is more justified in his prayer for mercy than the Pharisee, whose prayer was an account of his own righteous deeds. Jesus' point could not have been clearer: tax collectors in the Jewish society of Jesus' day were not just lowly; they were considered outcasts and cheaters. They collected taxes for the hated Romans and almost certainly collected enough to assure a generous income for themselves. Tax collectors were among society's outcasts; didn't this one just admit his own sinfulness? How could a tax collector be "justified" (that is, made right) before God, while the Pharisee was not? Why would God even listen to the prayer of a tax collector? This surely was a surprise, upsetting common assumptions about righteousness.
