Welcome the Stranger
Your support honors Jesus' call

Asylum seekers — men, women, and children — are arriving in Chicago. Will you welcome the stranger? We are the body of Christ alive in this world. The stranger is hungering and thirsting — Christ is presenting himself to us in their need. We are called to respond with faith and love.

Thousands of people are fleeing violence, political oppression, and overwhelming poverty in Central and South American countries. Since early September, parishes, priests, religious sisters and brothers, church ministries, and Catholic Charities have shown an outpouring of concern for these travelers.

These brothers and sisters in need have revealed to us the fragility, strength, and sacredness of our shared humanity. In turn, they are experiencing the love of Christ through the compassion of volunteers and employees.

Over 3,000 asylum seekers arrived in Chicago by mid-October, and a coordinated Catholic response is underway so we can maximize our collective impact. We are providing pastoral care and considering options such as transitional shelter and parish-family sponsorship opportunities.

How You Can Help

Make a financial donation at Mass today, November 5th & 6th. There will be a second collection taken up to directly support our collective response. Catholic Charities is serving as the central collection point for donations, which can also be made online at www.catholiccharities.net or by calling (312) 655-7525.

Join response efforts by contacting Tori Bawel at Catholic Charities (WelcomeTheStranger@catholiccharities.net)

Pray for our brother and sister asylum seekers arriving in Chicago. Pray for these mothers and fathers, sons, and daughters, that they are welcomed and embraced with Jesus' compassion — and pray that those serving them are sustained by God's grace.

This Tuesday, November 8th is Election Day and as I am writing this article, I pray that all will be participating in our right and privilege to vote today.

This week, November 6-12, is National Vocation Awareness Week. It is a time for each of us to pray for an increase in Holy vocations to Matrimony, Consecrated Life, the Diaconate, and the Priesthood. For this reason, if there is a young man or woman that you are aware of that you feel has the gifts and charisms of making a good priest or religious please don't hesitate to let them know that you see these qualities in them and encourage them by affirming these gifts that you see. You might even suggest that they speak to one of their parish priests or one of the sisters here who can help them to discern the possibility of pursuing priesthood or the religious life.
In any case I ask all in our parish to especially pray for our seminarians who are currently on the road to the priesthood. To help you do so and to put a face to the names of our seminarians you will find on a table in the gathering space of the church little cards with the names and pictures of our present seminarians along with a little biography for each of them. Please take one or two cards home with you and pray for them. Ask God to empower these young men with the gifts they will need to serve His people as they make their way to ordination.

In just two and-a-half weeks our country will be celebrating the Thanksgiving holiday. Without a doubt, there is so much for all of us to be grateful for. As a way of providing an opportunity for us to offer our thanks to God for the gifts he has bestowed upon us we will be having a special Mass of Thanksgiving on Thanksgiving Day, November 24th, at 9:00 a.m. This will be the only Mass of the day. There will not be the usual 6:30 a.m. Mass on this day. I encourage everyone in our parish to make a sincere effort to join us for this parish Mass. What better way to start the day off? So, pop the turkey in the oven and join us around the Lord's Table here at St. Eugene Church on Thursday, November 24th. If you've never come to Mass on Thanksgiving let this be the start of a new tradition for you. I look forward to celebrating in this festive liturgy with you all.

As was promised I wanted to let everyone in our parishes know of the decisions regarding the new weekend and daily Mass times beginning the weekend of November 26/27 which is the First Sunday of Advent. This past week I met with our Unification Committee which is made up of representatives from all three of our parishes to discuss the results of the surveys many of our parishioners filled out regarding their choices for future Mass times. I also waited to get the results of the October Mass attendance counts from each of our churches so these numbers could also be factored in. And, as a matter of fact, these numbers are what had to play an important part in the ultimate decisions that were made.

So, beginning Saturday, November 26th,

Weekend Masses will be as follows:

Saturday

5:00 p.m. at St. Eugene Church

Sunday

8:30 a.m. at St. Eugene Church
10:00 a.m. at Our Lady Mother of the Church
11:30 a.m. at St. Eugene Church

Weekday Masses will be as follows:

Monday, Wednesday & Friday at 9:00 a.m. at St. Eugene Church
Tuesday & Thursday at 7:00 a.m. at Our Lady Mother of the Church
Every Saturday at 8:30 a.m. at St. Eugene Church

These decisions were based on the sizes of our churches, the number of parishioners currently attending Mass and where the majority of our parishioners are currently going to church. St Eugene Church seats a little over 1,000 people. Our Lady Mother of the Church seats a little over 400 people. Last months October count revealed that on average 119 of Our Lady Mother of the Church parishioners attend their 9:00 Mass and 129 their 11:00 Mass. St. Eugene parishioners average 297 attending their 5:00 p.m. Mass, 339 attending their 9:00 Mass, and 327 attending their 11:30 Mass. From the May 2022 counts (just five months ago), St Eugene saw an increase of 315 worshippers. During the same period Our Lady Mother of the Church saw a decrease of 80 parishioners and this total was based on their three previous weekend Masses as opposed to the current two.

Another factor that was looked at was that if we combined our current two 9:00 a.m. Masses there would be a total of 422 attendees which would make for a very tight squeeze at OLMC and make it a little uncomfortable for those who are still COVID conscious. If we combined the current 11:00 and 11:30 Masses, there would be almost 500 attendees which would make attendance at OLMC impossible. So, you see, in order to provide a variety of Mass times we need to utilize the churches that can accommodate these numbers of people while at the same time recognizing that we don't have manpower/priest power we once had in the not-too-distant past.

The bottom line is that we do not really need five Masses on the weekend given the current number of Mass attendees which averages 241 per Mass per our current five Masses. Another factor here is that we presently have only two full-time priests currently serving our three communities of faith, myself, and Fr. Jacek. Granted, we have two other priests, Fr. Greg and Fr. Ed offering their much-needed assistance, but they are both retired and should be enjoying their hard earned and much deserved retirement. Without them we would be in a much different situation.

Just four years ago there were 10 priests serving and/or living in our three rectories. Today there are only 4. We are currently on track for and are anticipating almost 200 funerals annually between our three parishes. This is an enormous number of funerals in addition to all the daily and weekend Masses for only 3 priests currently celebrating the majority of them.

You should note, however, that we have added a Saturday morning Mass every week in addition to what has been just the 1st Saturday of the month since COVID hit us.

What we all must sadly and realistically accept is that things are not and cannot be what they once were. I ask for your understanding regarding these realities and that do your best to adjust your schedules to make this new schedule work for us all. This is not easy for any of us, but we are still blessed to have the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass offered and available to us seven days a week and in churches that are no more than a five minutes' drive away for most of us. I pray for your acceptance and understanding during these challenging and changing times.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

St. Eugene Church
Mondays 4:00 pm - 6: 00 pm.
Benediction at 5:45 pm

"He has remained so that you could eat Him, and visit Him and tell Him your concerns; and so, by your prayer beside the tabernacle and by receiving Him sacramentally, you could fall more in love each day, and help other souls, many souls, to follow the same path. Good child: see how lovers on earth kiss the flowers, the letters, the mementos of those they love…Lord, may I never again flutter along close to the ground. Illumined by the rays of the divine Sun – Christ – in the Eucharist, may my flight never be interrupted until I find repose in Your Heart."

St. Josemaria Escriva (19th-20th centuries)

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one.
Also, please call the rectory when your loved one returns home.

A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel.
This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A Prayer

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

Indulgences Event

Did you know that during the first apparition at Fatima Our Lady revealed that a girl would remain in Purgatory until the end of the world? Truth is, although we might think Purgatory is a mere stop to Heaven, we might spend a longer time in Purgatory than we might think. Plenary indulgences are a powerful way to obtain the remission of punishment and limit the time spent in Purgatory. Indulgences can be applied either to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but Indulgences cannot be applied to living people on earth.

On Saturday, November 19,
join the Young Adults group at 3:00pm
for a meditation in front of the Blessed Sacrament followed by Confession and Mass.
Participate in all 3 to obtain a plenary indulgence
and help a soul in Purgatory be reunited with God,
and gain an intercessor in Heaven.
All parishioners are welcome!

Prayer Shawl Ministry

We have started to meet and continue to meet on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of every month from Noon to 3:00 P.M. in the Hayes Center

Our sincere appreciation to all who donated yarn and money so that we can continue our ministry.
We are overwhelmed with your generosity.
Boxes will remain in church for a bit longer.
We will pray for all of you and ask you to keep us in your prayers as well. If you crochet please join us for fellowship and giving back to the community.

The Healing Prayer Group

Meets on the second and fourth Wednesdays,

Come before or after Sunday mass
and invite all your friends and celebrate the new beginning of Queen of Peace parish!

Who earned that for you?

It was the Veteran, not the reporter,
who has given us the freedom of the press.
It was the Veteran, not the poet,
who has given us freedom of speech.
It was the Veteran, not the lawyer,
who has given us the right to a fair trial.
It was the Veteran, not the campus organizer,
who has given us freedom to demonstrate.
It was the Veteran, who salutes the flag,
who served under the flag,
and whose coffin is draped by the flag,
who allows the protestor to burn the flag.

Rosaries for an Increase in Vocations

November 6-12 is National Vocation Awareness Week, so we will pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life. If you would like to pray a Rosary for our weekly Rosary intention, the Rosary Guild is for you! Members are Emily A., Lori G., James H., John I., Evelyn K., Terri K., Gilda M., Lonnie M., Mary M., Ted M., Josephine N., Emilie P., Stefania P., Jean R., Shirley S., and Milabelle T. To add your name to this list, and/or to lead the Rosary Guild, which involves selecting the Rosary intention and submitting a bulletin article announcing the new intention each week, please reach out to the parish office.

Living Rosary

The Living Rosary Association was founded on December 8, 1826, by Blessed Pauline-Marie Jaricot in Lyon, France. She also founded the Society of the Propagation of the Faith, of which we just had a second collection for on World Mission Sunday. If you would like to pray a decade of the Rosary daily for the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and in honor of Saint Philomena, the patron of the Living Rosary, please contact the rectory office. The next decades available are Jesus Dies on the Cross, and each of the five Glorious Mysteries.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Every believer wonders about what the experience of heaven will be like. Popular images of people walking around in white robes, becoming like angels, and reunions with those who have gone before us all tickle human imagination. Jesus never got too specific about what heaven actually looks like. But he assures us that it exists and that all are alive in God. Clinging to the traditions of our faith, we persevere through life's challenges confident that God's promise of eternal life will come to be. We are told that we shall become like God and see God as He is. As God has made us, He also loves us and sustains us. Desiring to be with God above all other desires gives us the hope that when we close our eyes in death, we will fall into the arms of the One who will gently bring us where we need to be. Knowing ahead of time what we find when we arrive changes little.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Martin of Tours was born a pagan in what is now Hungary around 316, but he was raised in Italy where his father, a tribune, was posted. At 15 he was compelled to serve in the Roman military, though he was already a catechumen. There is a popular legend that while on campaign the saint cut his cloak in half to share with a cold beggar. That night he dreamed of Jesus and his cloak was restored. He was baptized at 18. Only two years after his baptism, he was released from the military, he had refused his battle pay and to fight saying he was a soldier for Christ. He is the first recognized conscientious objector.

After his release from the military, he became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers. He worked diligently against the Arian heresy, which denies the divinity of Jesus Christ, and established a community of hermits near Poitiers in 361, the first French monastery.

In 371 he reluctantly became bishop of Tours. Nearby, he founded a second monastery, Marmoutier, because he preferred the life of a monk he retreated often. In 384 there was a popular heresy infecting the Church in Spain, led by the bishop Priscillian and his followers. The emperor Magnus Maximus became involved, ordering the execution of the heretics. Saint Martin opposed the executions and protested the emperor's involvement in Church matters. Unfortunately, the Priscillians were executed anyway.

Saint Martin died in Candes-Saint-Martin, Gaul in 397. He is notably one of the first saints who was not martyred. He is the patron saint of France.

Help Make Thanksgiving Happen in Maywood

St. Eulalia in Maywood has been Divine Savior's Sharing Parish for many years. As part of that relationship, parishioners contributed food items to their food pantry and enjoyed participating in special Thanksgiving and Christmas collections of food and gifts. Maywood would never be described as an economically advantaged community, so support for the food pantry in their Quinn Center ratcheted up to an exceptional level during the COVID pandemic. At our last grocery distribution three weeks ago, 116 families, comprised of 463 people, received groceries. (More about how you can get involved in that continuing effort in a later Bulletin!)

Right now though, we're looking forward to Thanksgiving when the Quinn Center plans to distribute 850 food baskets. Yes, 850 baskets of groceries. Maywood is a "food desert" and has no large grocery stores. There are several ways YOU can help.

You can contribute groceries or money directly to the Quinn Center. This link will take you to their webpage. Check out the list of items needed; the second and third sections talk about making food or monetary contributions. (The first section explains how to sign up to receive a basket.)

https://www.quinncenter.org/thanksgiving-baskets-2022.html

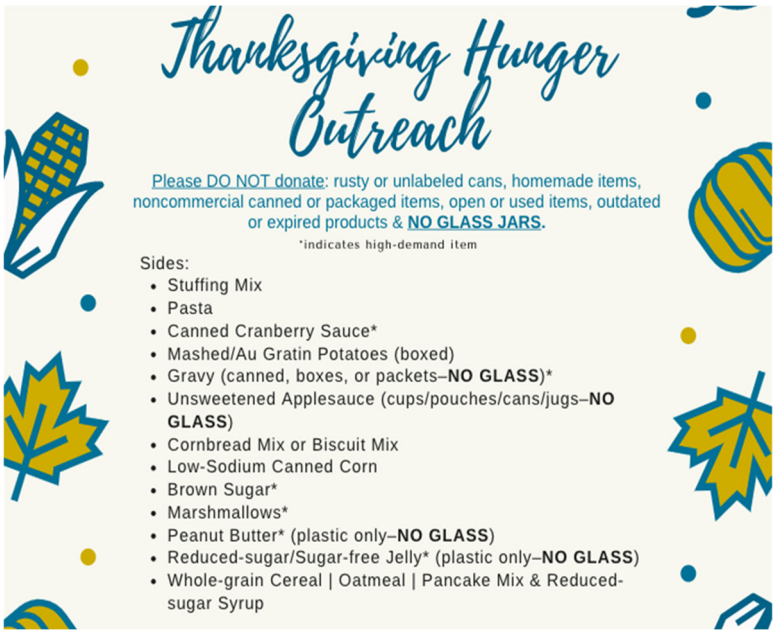

You can volunteer. Here is the link to sign up to volunteer for shifts at the Quinn Center to help sort, pack, and distribute food.

And here's a third alternative! If you want to create a basket yourself (actually, a cardboard box will do) or donate groceries, we have a team of drivers who are willing to pick up and deliver your donation to the Quinn Center. Contributions will be picked up in mid-November so they reach the Quinn Center by November 16.

If you want to take advantage of our pick-up service, please contact Jan Magnuson (jan7744@comcast.net, 312-806-7210), Jen Adams (Jennifer.adams17@yahoo.com, 312-485-4687) or Kacie Bratko (773-527-9660, kacie723@yahoo.com).

We sincerely thank you for your support of these needy brothers and sisters in Christ.
