From the desk of

Father Rich Yanos

This weekend the liturgical year comes to a close with the Feast of Christ the King – the last Sunday of Ordinary Time. The irony of this day is the connection between the kingship of Christ and the wood of the cross and His suffering on the cross. The way of God's kingdom is not the way of earthly kingdoms. The road to our eternal home involves suffering and service to one another. This is in direct conflict with the understanding and comprehension of earthly kings and kingdoms of the past. Hopefully, we have all come to better understand that God's ways are not always our ways.

Fr. Walter Ciszek, the Jesuit priest imprisoned for years in a Soviet gulag, writes in his book, He Leadeth Me, "There is a tremendous truth contained in the realization that when God became man, he became a working man--not a king or chieftain, not a warrior nor statesman, not a great leader of nations." Today we see Jesus as King, neither of nations nor tribes, but as King of the Cross, working to free us from sin and bring us to salvation.
Jesus leads by example, and he leads by love. He shows us first how God intends for us to live and then, out of love, suffers for us so that we might be freed from the power of sin and death. Jesus conquers sin, and in so doing, conquers our hearts. We honor him as king crucified, not king glorified, because in his suffering he most identifies with us. And in his glory, he gives us hope.

We serve Jesus and follow him. We do not call him king, though he truly is. We do not call him ruler. We call him Lord, Savior, and Son of God. But mostly, we call him Jesus, our brother. He lives, he rules, he leads and guides. But most of all, he loves us.

As we prepare for Advent, which begins next weekend, may we always remember what the gospels help us all to see and understand – that the lowly are exalted, sinners are called righteous and that the one who dies gives life. We close this and every liturgical year with the ultimate paradox: The one to whom we offer glory, honor and praise is lifted high for all to see -- seemingly powerless on the cross…and what Jesus' tormentors' thought was a mockery by inscribing over his head "INRI" – Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews – was indeed the truth.

**********

This Thursday, November 24th, is Thanksgiving Day. As is our tradition, we will be having Mass at 9:00 a.m. on that day. (not the usual time of 6:30 a.m.) This will be the only Mass celebrated on Thanksgiving when we will gather as a parish family to give thanks to God for all His blessings in our lives and nation.

I truly encourage all in our parish to join us for this special Mass, even if this has not been your practice in the past. What better way to start off this national holiday than to gather around the Lord's Table before we come together later in the day to celebrate with family and friends. And if this will not be the case for you, let us be your family on Thanksgiving morning. So, pop the turkey in the oven and plan on joining us around the Lord's Table with your Queen of Peace family this Thursday.

**********

Finally, I just wanted to let everyone in our parish community know that Cardinal Cupich, in consultation with his advisors, has made the decision to lift the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass that has been in place since the pandemic began. This will take effect next weekend with the First Sunday of Advent. Of course, there are exceptions for some who are elderly as well as immuno-comprised persons, but for the rest of us, it is time to return to the practice of our faith by gathering at the Lord's table on Sundays with our fellow parishioners. Please pass the word on to those who most need to hear this important message.

**********

Our new Mass Schedule for daily and weekend Masses begins next weekend with the First Sunday of Advent. Please be sure to make note of these changes. Very briefly they are:

Saturday
5:00 p.m. at St. Eugene Church

Sunday
8:30 a.m. at St. Eugene Church
10:00 a.m. at Our Lady Mother of the Church
11:30 a.m. at St. Eugene Church

Weekday Masses will be as follows:

Monday, Wednesday & Friday at 9:00 a.m. at St. Eugene Church
Tuesday & Thursday at 7:00 a.m. at Our Lady Mother of the Church
Every Saturday at 8:30 a.m. at St. Eugene Church

**********

Finally, I just want to let anyone who may have been thinking about joining us on our February 25, 2022 – March 9, 2023 pilgrimage to the Holy Land and Jordan that we are only one week away from having to release our reserved air seats back to the airlines. We have a few spaces left, so, if you might be thinking of joining us for this very special experience you will need to either let me know this week or send in your Reservation Form that can be found in the brochure in either the vestibule of church or at the parish office. If you've ever wanted to visit the place of the origin of our faith this would be the opportunity to do so with either your family or friends as well as your fellow parishioners.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Fr. Rich Yanos

Saint of the Week

Saint Cecilia's story, like many of the earliest saints', is largely apocryphal and legendary in nature. According to tradition, Cecilia was born to a wealthy and prominent Roman family. Though she had consecrated her virginity to the Lord, she was married to a man named Valerian. It is said that she was "singing in her heart to the Lord" at her wedding. She confessed her promise of virginity to her new husband revealing that an angel protected her. Valerian would honor her vow only if he too could see the angel. Cecilia told him he would see the angel if he was baptized, which he went to do immediately. When he returned to her, he saw the angel beside her. Cecilia also converted Valerian's brother, Tiburtius. Unfortunately, it was a turbulent time in Rome for Christians. Valerian and Tiburtius were martyred for burying the bodies of Christians, which was illegal. Cecilia was also targeted for her faith. First authorities attempted to suffocate by locking her in the bath in her home and overheating the room. Some accounts say that she didn't break a sweat and even began to sing. They then sent in an executioner to behead her, but he faltered and was unable to complete his task, only succeeding in mortally wounding her. She remained alive for three days before she died.
The saint's body was exhumed twice, first by Pope Paschal I in 821, then by Cardinal Sfondrato in 1599. Both times her body was found incorrupt, the first saint to exhibit this extremity. St. Cecilia is the patron saint of music and musicians.
