From the desk of

Father Rich Yanos

Today we celebrate the 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. Next Sunday, January 22, 2023, is also the 50th Anniversary of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton, the U.S. Supreme Court decisions that permitted abortion on demand throughout all nine months of pregnancy. It has also been designated a Day of Prayer and Penance for Life. Although this decision has recently been overturned, thousands of children continue to be aborted in our nation. This national tragedy has a tremendous local impact. Tens of thousands of abortions took place in Cook and Lake Counties over the past decade – a number that continues to increase from previous years.

As a result of this reality, thousands of women and men suffer post-abortion aftermath in silence in the pews of our churches, while many more have left the church. As the Body of Christ, we are left with the significant task of reaching out with Christ's hope and healing to those who are suffering from post-abortion aftermath, while peacefully working to prevent the additional killing of thousands of innocents right here in our own communities. The prayers and penance of the faithful for the cause of life will ultimately transform the broken, the guilty, and the vulnerable.

The Archdiocese invites you to contact Project Rachel, a path of healing and reconciliation if you have been injured by abortion. Project Rachel is a sensitive, private, free, and confidential experience with a network of specially trained priests and caring people who understand the painful road back from abortion. It is open to Catholics and those of other faiths. To begin the healing journey, simply call Project Rachel at 1-312-337-1962 or 1-888-456-HOPE, for a referral to a priest, counselor, or support group. In your meeting with the priest, he will guide you to the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Generally, the process will include counseling, prayer, and scripture. There are also periodic retreats, overnights, days of prayer and healing and special gatherings.

Next Sunday and always, I ask you to remember the unborn, the most innocent and helpless of our brothers and sisters, in your prayers. An innocent child is a human person created by God with a specific purpose in life. Every unborn boy and girl should be cherished, since each one has been created out of love.

God knows each one of us by name; he has counted every hair on our heads and every minute of our lives. We, then, must cherish all human beings, including the new children with which he blesses us.

You may recall that six months ago we formed a Unification Committee to assist with and navigate some of the challenges and opportunities that were to come with the uniting of our three parishes that comprise Divine Savior, St. Eugene, and Our Lady, Mother of the Church. This Committee is made up of five representatives of each of our parishes and has been faithfully meeting on a monthly basis. This team of dedicated parishioners was instrumental in the re-naming process, in the modification of the Mass time schedule, as well as offering their valuable ideas and input as representatives of our three communities that have now become one. We are also looking at possible events that we might be able to offer to bring us all together in a social way such as a Spaghetti Dinner or an entertainment event. Stay tuned!

For the past couple of months, we have been working diligently on the creation and formation of a new Mission Statement that would be representative of our newly formed Queen of Peace Parish. After much thought, input, deliberation, and prayerful effort we now have a statement that we hope describes what our common goal/mission will be. You will see this statement proudly presented in our weekly bulletin in a week or two, but before it does, I want to share it with you now:

We, the Catholic community of Queen of Peace Parish, centered in the Eucharist, strive to grow in our faith and our relationship with God as a welcoming people, working for peace and justice through service to others.

It is our hope that all in our parish will do their part to put these words into action as we make every effort to live out this Mission that is now at the heart of who we are as members of Queen of Peace Parish. My sincerest thanks to all on our Unification Committee for their faithfulness, dedication, and commitment as we work together to strengthen the Body of Christ that we are.

For anyone who loves to travel but may have felt nervous or intimidated about travelling to other parts of the world on your own, seeing the world with fellow parishioners, family members or friends may take away some of that anxiety. For over 30 years I have enjoyed seeing many beautiful countries and sharing this experience with members of the parishes I have been a part of. If you might be interested in experiencing the sights, food and fun of Sicily and southern Italy you are welcome to join us this coming October. To find out more about our upcoming trip to Italy, we will be having and informational meeting TODAY (Sunday, January 15th at 1:00 p.m.) in Meeting Room 110 of the school. The entrance is located just off the church parking lot at the west end of the school near the rectory garage.

This trip will fill up very shortly as there are already many signed up. So, if you are interested and want to assure yourself a spot, I encourage you to sign-up soon. Hope to see you there today!

Have a great week everyone.

Fr. Rich Yanos

Important Information from the Parish Finance Office:

Charitable Contributions from Your Traditional IRA

If you are currently taking a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from your Traditional IRA or if you are 72 ½ and must start taking an RMD this year, there is a way to save on your taxes AND help the Church at the same time.

Any money you receive from your RMD is, of course, taxable – unless you give it DIRECTLY to a recognized charity. This kind of charitable donation is called a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) and, as long as the IRS recognizes the recipient(s) as a bona fide charitable organization, it is not taxable to you. You can decide how much you wish to donate, to whom, and how much you wish to receive yourself; of course, the portion you receive is taxable income to you.

You could use a QCD for a general donation to our parish, to cover your Sunday offerings or a specific ministry of the parish. Or you could use it for your Annual Catholic Appeal contribution. It's up to you.

Begin by talking with your Financial Institution or Financial Advisor on the specifics of making a QCD donation. They will ask you for information concerning the amount and the name and address of the organization to which you want to donate; you may be asked to complete a form giving that information. Your financial institution will either mail a check directly to the charity or mail it to you for you to give to the charity. It's also possible to have the money transferred electronically.

That contributed money is NOT taxable to the donor as income, thus lessening the amount of your taxes. However, you (the donor) are not able to take that contribution as a charitable deduction on your taxes. People who have directly contributed to a charity such as a Church or other institutions known as bona fide charities have found that their taxes are lower than if they had received the RMD money and then given the amount to charity.

So, if you must take a Retired Minimum Distribution (RMD) from your Traditional IRA, please consider helping yourself and your church by giving a gift to your parish, Queen of Peace.

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

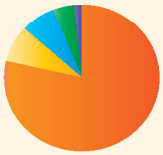

Have you ever wondered how Eucharistic hosts for Mass are made, and who makes them? Orders of religious sisters and nuns commonly manufacture hosts as a means of supporting the work of their communities. Not only does this work offer a means of self-support for those communities, but it also forges a tangible, physical connection between the sisters and the parishes and other diocesan ministries that use the hosts at Mass and bring the Blessed Sacrament to prisoners, seniors, and others who cannot attend Mass.

The Conceptionist Sisters of Fortaleza, Brazil, is one community that makes the hosts used at Masses in the diocese. After years of manufacturing hosts, the sisters needed new, more reliable, modern equipment for baking and cutting the hosts. With the assistance of a grant from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Church in Latin America program, the sisters purchased new machinery that allows them to continue this work of service and unity for the local Church now and for years to come. Your generous donations to the Collection for the Church in Latin America are your way of participating in the sisters' work and that of communities throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Showing Up

I broke my foot once, when my second child was only 12 weeks old, and I was about to move houses. For six weeks I was confined to a chair, a shrieking newborn in my arms, a toddler running circles around me, and my right foot rendered useless by a plaster cast. I couldn't do anything without assistance. I couldn't eat or get a drink or change my clothes or feed my children.

My family was in dire straits. A lot of people offered help, but there was a core group of friends and family members who really saved us.

These are the people who turned up in my driveway with empty vans and cooked meals. These are the people who blocked off their Saturdays to haul furniture, mow our lawn, and run after unruly kids. These are the people who said: "Here I am. Give me a job."

If you've ever really, really needed another person's help, you know that "showing up" means more than saying: "Let me know what you need." It means saying: "I'm already here. Tell me what to do."

So often, I pay lip service to the idea of submission. "What do you want, God?" I ask, and I secretly hope that what He wants isn't one of those things that I'm not willing to give.

What if I really strove to "show up" for God? What if I was ready to give what He asks of me, whatever it is?

Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.
— Psalm 40

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

John the Baptist had been told that he would see the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. He listened, he believed, and he kept his eyes open. He was ready when God revealed the truth. Let's ask ourselves: are our eyes open? Are we ready?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Known as the Snowshoe Priest, Venerable Bishop Frederic Baraga, was a lifelong missionary to the Native American people of the upper Midwest. He loved the people he served, knew their languages, and even published the first Ojibwe-English dictionary!

PRAYER

Prayer for the Cause of V. Frederic Irenaeus Baraga

O God, thank you for the life and holiness of your servant, Frederic Baraga.

I pray you will honor him by the title of Saint. He dedicated himself completely to missionary activity to make you known, loved, and served by the people who you love. As a man of peace and love, Baraga brought peace and love wherever he traveled.

Lord, grant Venerable Bishop Baraga the grace of beatification.

We ask this in Christ name.

Amen.
