From the desk of

Father Rich Yanos

Today, we celebrate the 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Two weeks ago, I let you know that we have a new Sharing Parish – St. Eulalia in Maywood Park. Please read the following to learn more about an important ministry offered at St. Eulalia and how you might get involved in some of the good work going on there.

Supporting St. Eulalia's Food Pantry

For many years, St. Eulalia in Maywood was Divine Savior's Sharing Parish. In addition to the normal financial support, Divine Savior parishioners also supported the Food Pantry in the Quinn Center at St. Eulalia with grocery donations. The Quinn Center, in addition to the food pantry, runs community suppers, after school care, summer programs, tutoring, vaccination clinics, Thanksgiving meals, and Christmas gifts for residents of the Maywood area.

When COVID hit in 2020 and churches were no longer offering public Masses, a group of parishioners became concerned that this would seriously reduce the quantity of groceries donated to the Quinn Center, right at a time when it was apparent the need would increase. In late Spring and Summer of 2020, food "caravans" from Divine Savior brought weekly supplies to the Center. At first, they delivered donated items to the outdoor food distribution staging area; but after a bit, these moms, dads, and kids started helping fill the grocery bags to be given away. As the weather cooled and the groceries needed to be kept indoors, the effort evolved into a well-organized, weekly shopping and packing operation funded by donations from Divine Savior parishioners.

Each bag of groceries provides several meals for, on average, four people. These are basic staples – canned veggies, fruit, beans, tuna, chicken, ravioli, chili, soup, rice, mashed potatoes, cereal, ramen, spaghetti sauce, pasta, peanut butter, jelly, dessert.

Shopping and packing continued weekly through the end of 2020, throughout 2021, and into 2022. Today, the grocery distribution is a monthly event, but the need isn't decreasing. Last summer, we all thought the economy was improving, and we saw numbers decreasing to 50 or 60 bags being packed each time. Today, the number has grown to 90, 100, or even 120 bags each month, more than during any previous period. On Tuesday, January 10, 111 bags of groceries were distributed to families comprised of 489 people. With the current state of the economy, it's easy to see that this need will continue for the foreseeable future.

St. Eulalia is now Queen of Peace's Sharing Parish, and we encourage you to become involved with this ministry. What can you do? Financial support is, as always, imperative. You can donate to a specific Food Pantry account via Give Central, drop off a check at the Parish Office marked for the food pantry, or just drop a contribution in a plain envelope marked Quinn Center Food Pantry in with your weekly offering. Our shoppers are expert at getting the most for your dollars. (Please note: financial contributions in the Sharing Parish envelope in our bimonthly packet of envelopes DO NOT go to the food pantry but to St. Eulalia/Sacred Heart parish for their needs.)

Additional shoppers and packers are always needed. And this isn't an adults-only ministry. Children as young as four and five have become expert in the process of organizing and packing groceries! It's a good opportunity for young people needing service hours. If you're interested in joining our weekend efforts, please contact Jan Magnuson at 312-806-7210 or email her at jan7744@comcast.net. We can always find work for willing hands. Come join us and have some fun while doing good!

I just wanted to remind everyone in our parish that next Sunday, February 12th, our Knights of Columbus Father Breen Council will be providing a delicious pancake breakfast in St. Eugene's Shaunessy Center. Breakfast will be served from 7:30 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. You really need to experience their Pancake Breakfast because it is much more than what it sounds like. There will definitely be pancakes provided. Usually, two or three different varieties. There will also be French toast, scrambled eggs, sausage, baked apples, surprise specials of the day, as well as orange juice, coffee, tea, and milk.

The cost is $10 for adults, $7 for children 5-12 years old and children under 5 are free!

Our Knights would like to make this a true community event where we come not only to eat, but also socialize and get to know one another. If you have never experienced this breakfast before, please give it a try. You won't be sorry you did. You will also be supporting all the fine work our K of C's do for the community. Hope to see you there!

Also, on Saturday, February 11th before and after the 5:00 p.m. Mass as well as Sunday, February 12th after the 8:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Masses, Blood Pressure Screening will take place in the Narthex. Our Faith Community Nurse, Terri Kaisling will be providing this valuable service to all our parishioners. Thank you so much, Terri!

Finally, I just want to let everyone know that we now have two deacons in our parish community. Deacons Ted Marszalek and Chris Virruso are both from Our Lady Mother of the Church. Deacon Ted is dealing with some physical and health issues that has kept him from active ministry lately, but Deacon Chris is still very much active. As a matter of fact, beginning the weekend of February 18th at the Saturday night 5:00 p.m. Mass, and every third weekend thereafter, Chris will be serving as deacon and preaching at both Our Lady Mother of the Church and St. Eugene's. Please give him a warm welcome when you see him especially as he serves at St. Eugene for the first time on February 18th. Welcome Chris!

Prayer Shawl Ministry

As we continue to meet the first and third Wednesday of every month, we are so grateful for all the donations of yarn the last few months. We are like kids in a candy store to look thru the latest donations.
In the month of February we delivered a small load of shawls and lap robes to Resurrection Life Center on Talcott. The Chaplain wanted to start out small and go from there. Hope it's the start of a lasting Friendship to keep all the residents warm and toasty and in Gods embrace. The parish nurse also brings them to the homebound.
If anyone knows of places that would be interested in shawls or lap robes, please feel free to contact Pam at: 773/685-7586. Please keep us in your prayers as we continue our Ministry, and again we thank you and will keep you in our prayers.

When I came to you, brothers and sisters,

Live The Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

We can't be afraid to season our lives with the truth, even if we face a world of picky eaters. Christians, don't be afraid of flavor!
Or
It's hard to shine the light of truth in a world that so often prefers darkness. But God has built his city on a hill, not a valley. His glory, by definition, exists to be proclaimed, as salt exists to give flavor.

Saint of the week

Venerable Father Mazzuchelli was one of the fist Catholic missionaries to the Great Lakes region traveling the vast area via horseback, canoes, and on foot. He worked alongside new immigrant settlers and native tribes to establish over 24 Catholic communities.

Prayer

Prayer for the Beatification of Father Samuel Mazzuchelli

Lord Jesus, you called your servant, Samuel, even in early youth, to leave home and all for a Dominican life of charity in preaching your holy gospel. You gave him abundant graces of Eucharistic love, devotion to your holy Mother of Sorrows, and a consuming zeal for souls. Grant, we beseech you, that his fervent love and labors for you may become more widely known, to a fruitful increase of your Mystical Body, to his exaltation and to our own constant growth in devoted love of you who with the Father and the Holy Spirit live and reign one God, world without end.

Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I recently decided to learn to cook. As I sit at the feet of various YouTube cooking masters, I notice how much of cooking is adding ingredients that don't provide any more nourishment, like herbs and other seasonings. But man! They make all the difference because they make the meal delightful to eat and share.

Jesus calls his disciples "salt of the world." No one eats just salt. So, Christians are not meant to replace or do away with the world. They are meant to be agents of preservation and glorification. Notice how often these days the Church seeks to preserve what is threatened: the goodness of marital and family love, the desires of young people for greatness, the value of honest work, healthy economics, and altruistic political engagement, the dignity of the poor and vulnerable. Over and over, we say to a world who wants to throw things out, "It's worth saving! We'll preserve it! We'll show you it's wonderful." If we can't engage the world like that, Jesus says we are the ones who get thrown out, because salt alone is worthless.

Jesus only asks us to do for others what he does for us. He is the "salt" of everything in our lives. Is there something in your life starting to rot a bit? Something tasting bland and boring? Let Jesus salt it and see if you like it better.

— Father John Muir

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden."

- Mt 5:13a, 14

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

The prophet Isaiah spoke of God's desire for us to not only feed the hungry and take care of the afflicted but also to rid ourselves of malicious and accusatory speech. Which of these directives might you be able to do this week?

Second Reading

Paul teaches the Corinthians to place their faith in the power of God more so than in human wisdom. What could be some good ways to make sure this becomes a regular spiritual exercise?

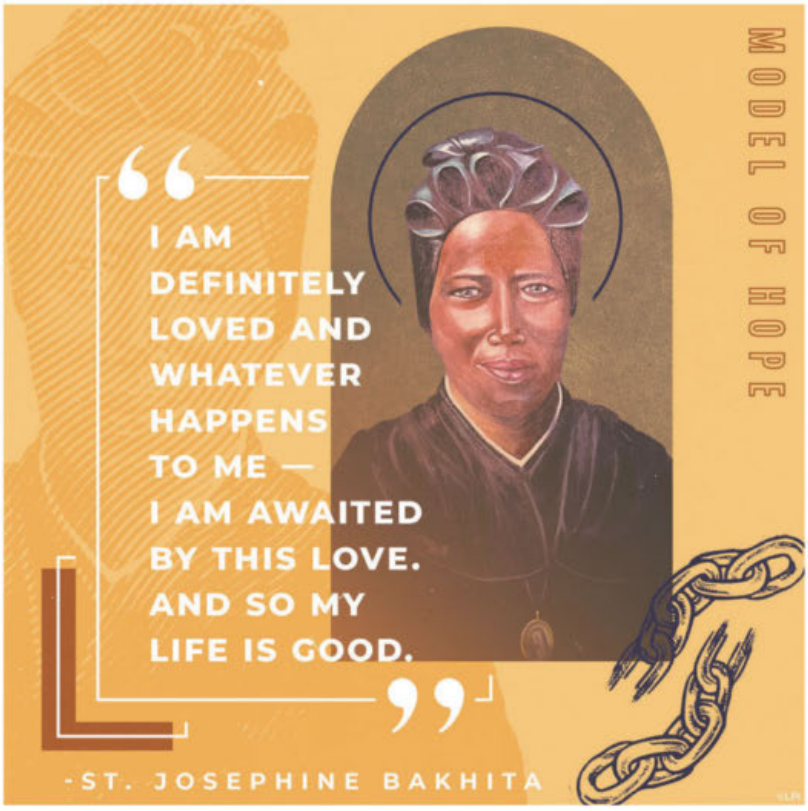

Gospel Reading

Jesus calls his followers to be salt of the earth and light of the world. In other words, Jesus is calling his followers to have a positive influence on the world. In what ways can believers today do good in the world?

Support our local advertisers

Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local.
