From the desk of Fr. Rich

Today is the Fifth Sunday of Easter. Earlier in the Book of Acts, we hear of Saul (later known as Paul) persecuting Christians in Jerusalem. When he went down to Damascus to do more of the same, he experienced a dramatic conversion. It was several years before he returned to Jerusalem, the site of his earlier persecutions. His first visit to Jerusalem as a Christian is described in today's first reading.

During this Easter Season, our second Scripture reading is from the first letter of John. In today's passage, the author is dealing with some members of the community who have defected. They seem to have believed that, as long as you have faith in Jesus, it doesn't matter what you do in your daily life. The author directly refutes that position.

We are fortunate to have our Parish Mission beginning tonight (Sunday) at 7:00 p.m. and continuing Monday and Tuesday nights as well. This year we will all be gathering at Our Lady, Mother of the Church for these evenings of renewal and reflection. We are also fortunate to have as our presenter, Fr. Tom McCarthy, O.S.A. He is a gifted speaker and comes to us highly recommended by so many other parishes who have had Fr. Tom as their mission speaker.

I want to STRONGLY encourage all in our parish to invite their neighbors, family and friends for a little spiritual uplifting and renewal this Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, April 28, 29 & 30th. It has been many years since we have had an event such as this. Over these years we have heard many of our parishioners asking for a gathering such as this so I am hoping you will plan on joining us for this sort of mini retreat along the day-to-day journey of your life.

There will be hospitality offered each night that will include refreshments and snacks. We hope that you will set these evenings aside for your own personal benefit and that of our community of faith. Looking forward to seeing you there.

Mother's Day is only two weeks away. Here in our country, we set aside this special day to remember and celebrate these special women in each of our lives who, with our fathers, have been instrumental in not only bringing each of us into this world, but have also helped to provide loving homes that are much needed today. We honor these women who have cared, nurtured, fed, and even sacrificed for us because of their deep maternal love for us.

Whether living or deceased, hopefully a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your mom. If you might wish to have your mother remembered in a special way at all of our Mother's Day Masses, as well as having their name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your mother's names on the special Mother's Day envelope provided in your May packet of your Sunday offering envelopes including also your Mass offerings for this purpose. They can be placed in the collection basket at church, mailed to or dropped off at the rectory and their names will be added to the memorial page that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on our altar for an entire year. In addition, our living and deceased mothers will be remembered at all the Masses on Mother's Day.

Congratulations to Fr. Ed Pacocha who celebrates his 62nd anniversary of ordination today, Sunday, April 28th!

Finally, I just received the most updated Annual Catholic Appeal contribution report and I want to sincerely thank all in our parish who have supported the Annual Catholic Appeal this year. Your pledges and contributions enabled us to not only reach our goal of $77,560.10 but surpass it by $6,400.00! Our parish will receive these excess funds if everyone makes good and pays the balances due on their pledged amounts. Thank you all so much.

Hand-Carved Olive Wood Gifts from the Holy Land

Weekend of May 4th & 5th, after each Mass in St. Eugene & OLMC

Proceeds benefit Catholic schools in the Holy Land.

Did you know that 600 Christian families living in Bethlehem are completely dependent on carving olive wood figurines for their livelihood? The recent clashes in the Middle East have stopped the tourism industry in Bethlehem, causing most of those families serious harm in earning their living and forcing many of them to leave their homeland. Emptying the land of Christ from Christians can have tragic consequences on the Holy sites. Issam, from the "Star of Bethlehem" group came to the United States with a mission to help those families by selling their beautiful religious handicrafts. The cost of goods goes to benefit the Christian carvers to keep them working in the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, the profit from sales goes directly to the needy Catholic schools and clinics in the Holy Land. The Star of Bethlehem has been approved by many bishops and dioceses of Jerusalem. Please show your generosity to our Brothers and Sisters in the Holy Land.

Prayer for a First Communion

Lord Jesus Christ,
bless those coming forward to receive
Holy Communion for the first time.
May this day be the step toward a life-long love of the Eucharist.
Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to you for comfort, guidance, and wisdom
as they grow into full discipleship.
Thank you for their goodness.
May their eagerness to receive your Body and Blood inspire all of us to cherish this sacred Sacrament.

Amen.

150 Bags of Groceries – There and Gone … Again!

It happened again. On Sunday, April 7, a group of Queen of Peace volunteers joined the Quinn Center food pantry team to pack 150 bags of groceries. Needless to say, we couldn't have done it without them. It took 25 people to unload vehicles, shelve the products, and pack 150 bags of groceries. Check out these photos of our great team and the mountain of grocery bags they put together.

And by 6:00 pm on Tuesday, April 9, distribution day, all the bags were gone. In fact, the people at the Quinn Center had to pack an additional 8 bags to meet the needs of 158 families, representing 650 people. Earlier, the Quinn Center staff had prepared 600 bagged meals – nothing fancy, a sandwich, chips, fruit, dessert – and they ran out of that, too.

The line of people kept pouring through the St. Eulalia parking lot but … to quote Coordinator Martha Minnich, "Everybody got fed – and that's a miracle in itself." Over the last few months, we've seen continuously rising numbers, but no one has been able to pin down one specific driver. Whatever it is, the need is real – and basic.

Our next bagging date will be in early May (We're trying to schedule around Mothers' Day! So it's still TBD as of this writing.). If you would like to join us, please contact Jan Magnuson at 312-806-7210 or at jan7744@comcast.net. We really need your help!

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:
Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him
to the apostles,
and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord,
and that he had spoken to him. (Acts 9:27)

Psalm:
I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people. (Ps 22)
Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:
And his commandment is this:
we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. (1 Jn 3:23)

Gospel:
"I am the vine, you are the branches.
Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit,
because without me you can do nothing." (Jn 15:5)

Live The Liturgy
Inspiration of the Week

Every Christian is a vine awaiting the loving attention of our gardener to prune and perfect us, to remove the parts of ourselves that are dead so that the fruitful parts burst forth with life. Trust the wisdom of the gardener. He alone can make us bloom.

Saint of the week

St. Teresa of Jesus of the Andes was a teenage Chilean Carmelite novitiate. Although she died of typhoid when she was 19, she proved that one's life doesn't have to be particularly long and filled with lofty accomplishments to be an amazing example of the love of Christ.

Prayer of Fruitfulness

God in Heaven,
Your grace surrounds us every day as we seek to live and move and grow in You. Prune the spaces in our lives that distract us from You! Plant Your word more deeply within us!
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

My friend and fellow pastor, Father Paul, noticed unsightly, overgrown trees near his parish church. He asked the maintenance crew to cut back the growth, which they happily did, telling him the trees would be much healthier and even fuller after a good pruning. A few days later, Father Paul received a letter from an irate man in the neighborhood who wrote, "Jesus would never prune trees like that. He loves trees, unlike you."

I suspect that the neighbor was not familiar with this week's Gospel in which Jesus says of his Father, "He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit" (John 15:2) I don't mean to pick too much on that fellow. He was perhaps ignorant of arboriculture. But I'd wager his main confusion was the pruning and removing quality of God's love. That confusion afflicts us all to some degree, doesn't it? It is just so darn easy to react negatively when God cuts something out of our lives and assume it's not his work at all. In the moment, all we see is the loss, and not the loving desire for future flourishing.

The cross is the great pruning of Christ's body. Jesus' rising is the brand-new growth. It is God's promise to us that all the painful pruning in life is leading us somewhere beautiful. What has been cut back or out in your life? A friend, an opportunity, a sense of certainty, a job, health, a relationship? This week, offer those dry branches to the one who lovingly prunes us in order to make our lives burst with verdant growth.
