From the desk of Fr. Rich

This weekend we celebrate the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The first reading today is taken from the book of Job and is a long parable which grapples with the question of why bad things happen to good people. In today's passage, God responds to Job and in effect says, "I created, and I sustain the whole universe, including the mighty oceans. So, answers to questions like why people suffer are beyond your limited knowledge."

In today's second reading, some members of the Corinthian community found it hard to accept Paul's teachings. They challenged his credentials as an apostle because he was not an eyewitness to the earthly life of Jesus. In this passage Paul defends his ministry as an apostle.

Next weekend we will be taking up the annual Peter's Pence Collection. The Holy Father's mission of sharing the Gospel and Christ's mercy with the world depends upon the daily operations of more than one hundred papal nunciatures worldwide, as well as the Roman Curia and the dicasteries that help him employ his ministry. These dicasteries carry out the pope's charitable outreach in the form of disaster relief, care for migrants and refugees, and the missionary activities of the Church, among other aspects of the Holy Father's mission.

These daily operations of the Vatican are funded through the annual Peter's Pence Collection. In recent years, these dicasteries have been reorganized to reduce internal expenses and increase efficiency, so that the Holy See can more effectively support the Holy Father's mission.

Your contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection help fund not only all the activities of the dicasteries of the Roman Curia that assist the pope in his ministry but also several solidarity projects that aid those most in need.

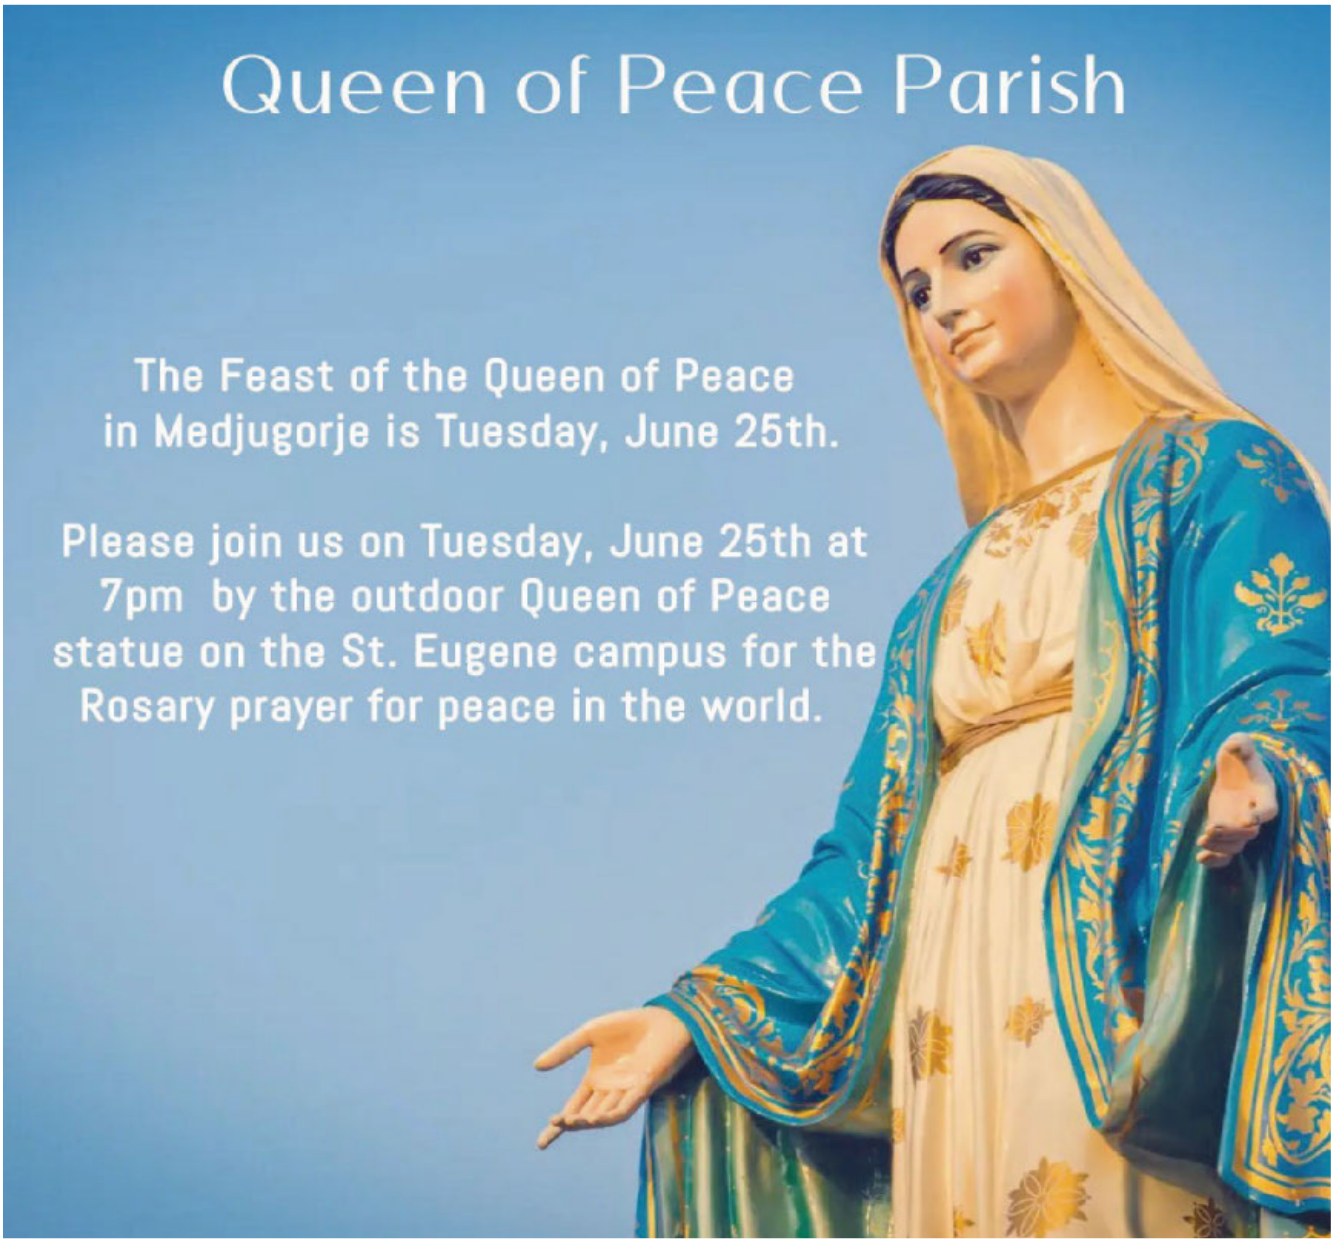

Thank you for continuing to be a sign of mercy by your support of this important collection.

Next weekend will be Fr. Jacek's last Sunday with us before he begins his six-month sabbatical. On behalf of our entire parish community, I want to wish him well as he embarks upon this time of continuing education, rest, and renewal. Since his last Mass with us before he starts his sabbatical will be the 10:00 a.m. liturgy at Our Lady, Mother of the Church, next weekend, there will be a farewell reception immediately following that Mass. Let me remind everyone that this is not a final farewell but rather a temporary departure as he will be returning to us at the end of his sabbatical time on January 1st.

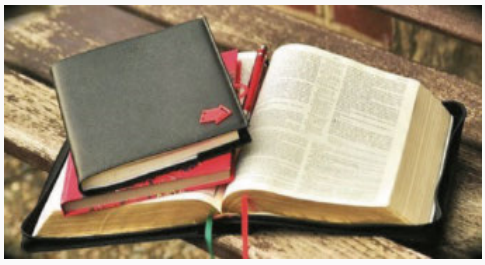

Enjoy these early days of summer everyone!

Fr. Rich Yanos

10 a.m. Mass and Hospitality June 30

Father Jacek is celebrating the 10 a.m. Mass next Sunday, June 30 at the Our Lady, Mother of the Church worship site.

Afterwards, there is hospitality in the gathering space, as Father Jacek's sabbatical starts the next day.

He is returning after the sabbatical is over, so please, no cards, no gifts, no goodbyes, just your well-wishes, and to keep him in prayer.

BECOMING CATHOLIC — OCIA (FORMERLY RCIA) ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith and for those seeking more information on the Catholic Church. OCIA can also be a method for Catholics to complete their reception of the initiation sacraments. The manual used in the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults states that the rite is designed for adults "who after hearing the mystery of Christ proclaimed, consciously and freely seek the living God." The manual also states when speaking about those in the process "By God's help they will be strengthened spiritually during their preparation and at the proper time receive the sacraments fruitfully."

WHO IS OCIA FOR?

- Non-Catholics who want to find out more about the Catholic Faith
- Those who want to join the Catholic Church through Baptism, or Profession of Faith
- Those who were baptized Catholic as infants but never received religious education, Confirmation, or First Eucharist.

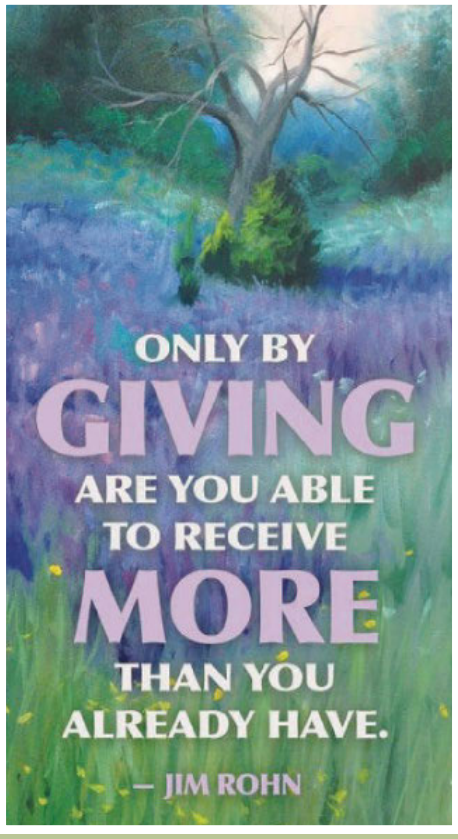

The great Solemnity of Pentecost marks the great gift of the Holy Spirit to those God the Father calls to be his own. Perhaps you can think of someone who longs to have a closer relationship with our Heavenly Father. Can you plant the seeds of hope as you speak of our Father's loving care, and his everlasting promises fulfilled in the sending of his Son, and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit? Ask about the RCIA inquiry sessions for those who are not baptized, are of other faiths, or are adult Catholics who were not confirmed by contacting the Parish Office at 773-775-6660

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

God challenges Job not to question His power over creation. Have you ever challenged or questioned God in prayer?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of believers in Christ as a "new creation." In what ways do you sense something new in your life as a Christian?

Gospel:

The disciples feared for their lives while caught in a violent storm until Jesus calmed the wind and the sea. When has your faith in Jesus helped calm your fears?

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Perfect Storm

I am writing this on a Saturday morning. Saturdays are my writing days, when my husband takes over the kids and the house and I disappear into the office with an enormous cup of coffee and noise-canceling headphones. Saturdays are sacred — if work can be called sacred.

But Saturday morning is also the only time I'm able to consistently get to confession. Every other time the sacrament is offered in my area during the week, I seem to have unavoidable commitments — but on Saturday morning, all I have is work, and how can I let work come before a sacrament, as much as I might secretly want to?

I've spent a good deal of time being bitter about this, because it's just not convenient, having to carve out time from work to run to the other side of town, especially when I get there and there's a line. I sit there in the sanctuary, waiting my turn, checking the clock, stewing, fretting. Obsessing over forgetting one of my sins. Thinking of how much work I have when I get home.

Saturday mornings: a perfect storm, I sometimes call it in my head.

I forge ahead, though. I've never gotten up and dashed back to my desk. I make it into the confessional and I stammer out my pathetic little list and receive absolution. Then I go before the tabernacle to perform my penance.

It's while I am kneeling there that it happens. Always. God awakens, and he cries into the depths of my heart: "Quiet! Be still! Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

After teaching all day by the shore of the sea, Jesus asks his disciples to remove him from the crowds. He wants to escape the noise, the clamor, the disquiet. But the clamor follows him, because the world is full of it. Storms crop up wherever we go.

Jesus sleeps through the storm, because he understands what the disciples do not: the storms of the world cannot hurt us. They are only so much noise.

"Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" — Mark 4:41

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?
Catholic Life Explained

Question:
We are considering homeschooling our children. Does this present a problem when it is time for them to receive the sacraments? What must we do?

Answer:
Homeschooling is legal in all fifty states and like other types of education, has its advantages and its drawbacks. There are many factors to consider, and each family has to decide what the best way to educate its children is. With religious education, many dioceses have a formal policy that outlines procedures and expectations, some of which include more than just academic information. Call the religious education office to find out what they are for your area.

In general, though, an appointment with your parish priest to discuss your situation is the best first step. An opportunity to discuss what is available, what the expectations are for each sacrament, and how you can best prepare your child helps make your time of preparation more effective. The priest can direct you to good catechetical materials, parent information classes, and other choices and possibilities for your child. All parents need to be part of their child's religious education, taking a lead in instilling the values and beliefs of their faith. Communication and information helps us all to teach and preach the Gospel as Jesus did.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Right now, you and I are only worried about one of only two things: wind or water. Bear with me. This week we hear the account of the terrified disciples waking Jesus in a sea-storm. He chastises them for their lack of faith, and then, "rebuking the wind, he said to the sea, 'Quiet, be still!'" He rebukes the wind and stills the water. In the Bible wind and water represent the two most fundamental poles of our experience of creation. Wind means heaven, spirit, that which gives identity, unity, order, light. Water stands for earth, variation, potential, that which can be drawn into identity, darkness, chaos.

Too much "wind" is when things get way too rigid, abstract and ideological — when we face oppressive leaders and tyrants, when we get addicted to our own way of doing things, when our attention is too narrowly focused on one thing. Too much "water" is excessive novelty, passivity, indifference, and chaos — when our attention is too broadly diffused on many things, when things seem to be crumbling without direction into the dark abyss. We know both terrifying experiences all too well.

The point of the miracle is that God in Christ is the One who brings final cosmic harmony between these two vital but threatening forces. He ultimately does so from the wood of the cross, when he breathes forth the wind of his spirit and pours forth the water from his side to establish a new creation, filled with harmonious peace. When the wind and water are out of control, trust him.

Fill Up Time at the Quinn Center

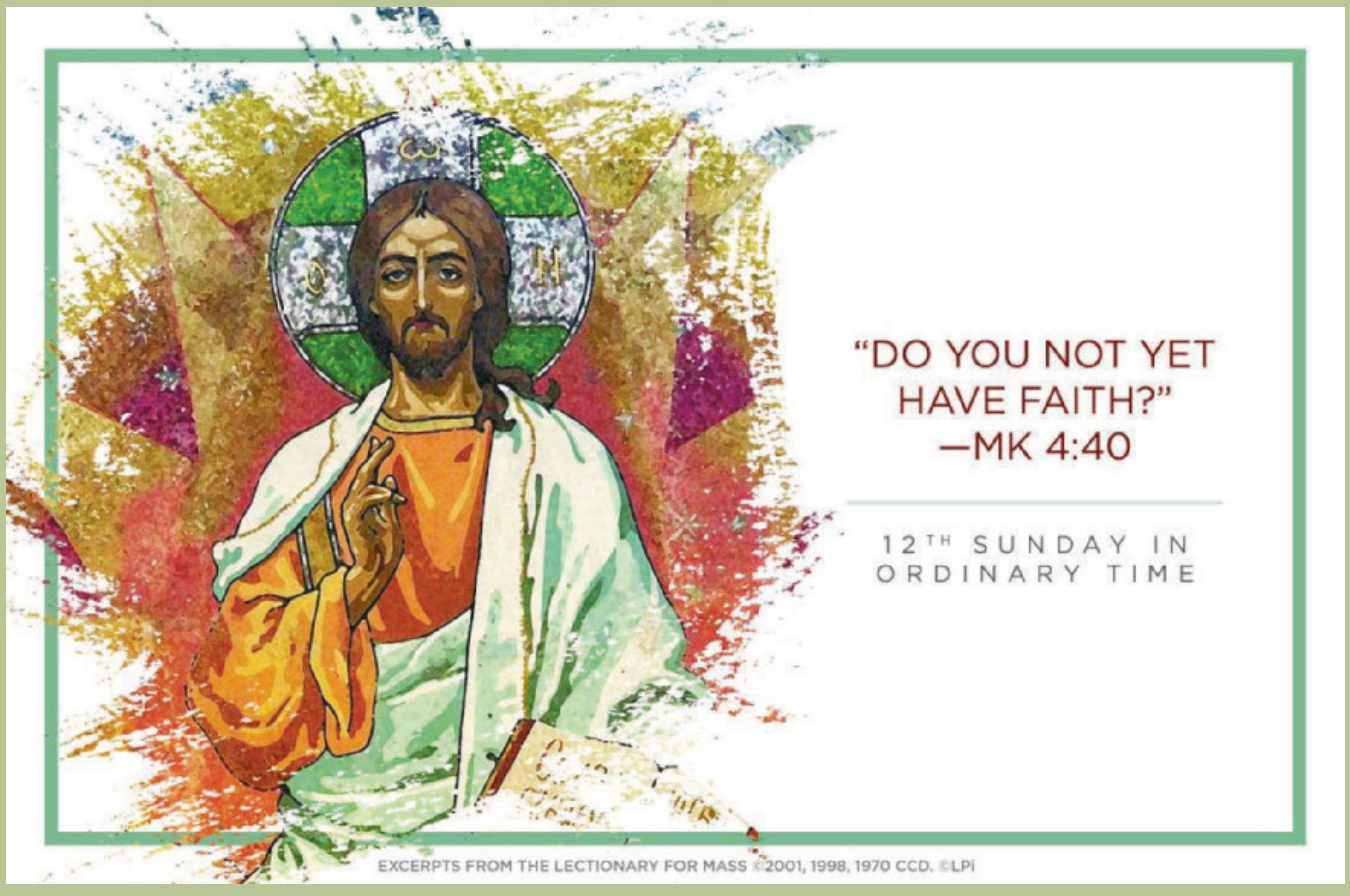

Sunday, June 9 was a great day at St. Eulalia's Quinn Center. We had approximately 18 volunteers sorting, shelving, and filling 120 bags of groceries. Many willing hands make for speedy work – and more fun. As you can see in this picture, we were working in close quarters sometimes. Traffic jams in the corner were common – but fun! That's the kind of traffic jam we don't mind being in.

On Tuesday evening, June 11 those bags were distributed to over 120 families representing roughly 600 people. They also received bagged dinners of sandwiches, chips, fruit, and dessert. Think about how it would help your food budget to have one evening's meal provided and to have groceries to make a couple more. This is what your contributions help the Quinn Center do. Young people, seniors, families, singles, homeless folks, people who drive up, people who walk up, even a few people who come on their bikes, are all served through your generosity and volunteerism.

Thanks to receiving an astonishing amount of groceries from the USPS's recent grocery donation drive, we purchased fewer groceries for June, thereby stretching your monetary contributions. Thank you to the USPS and everyone who contributed to their drive. Being a good neighbor isn't defined by geography – just ask the Good Samaritan.

Our next bagging session will be on Monday, July 8 at 1:30 pm, meeting in the Quinn Center parking lot on 8th street and Bataan Drive, Maywood. If you would like to join us, please contact Jan Magnuson at 312-806-7210 or at jan7744@comcast.net. We really need your help if you are available at that time in the afternoon to replace those usual helpers who are at work!

So often when we are weathering the storm, it feels like God is asleep — but we never even tried to wake Him up! Bring God your fears, your doubts, your uncertainties. He will show you that He steers the ship, and even the wind and the seas obey.

Next Sunday:	13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint of the week

St. Faustina was a polish sister of Our Lady of Mercy. Her miraculous experiences and writings about her revelations of God's Divine Mercy sparked a worldwide Catholic movement refocusing the faithful on the Mercy of God and how to share that mercy with their neighbors.

Prayer for Inner Peace

Jesus,
Speak your command of "Quiet! Be still!" into the dark recesses of my mind — my fears, concerns, and anxieties. Be with me, at every moment, no matter the storm.
Fix my eyes upon you.
Amen.

Kids Corner

Prayer

Heavenly Father, when I am afraid, give me hope and courage.

Mission for the Week

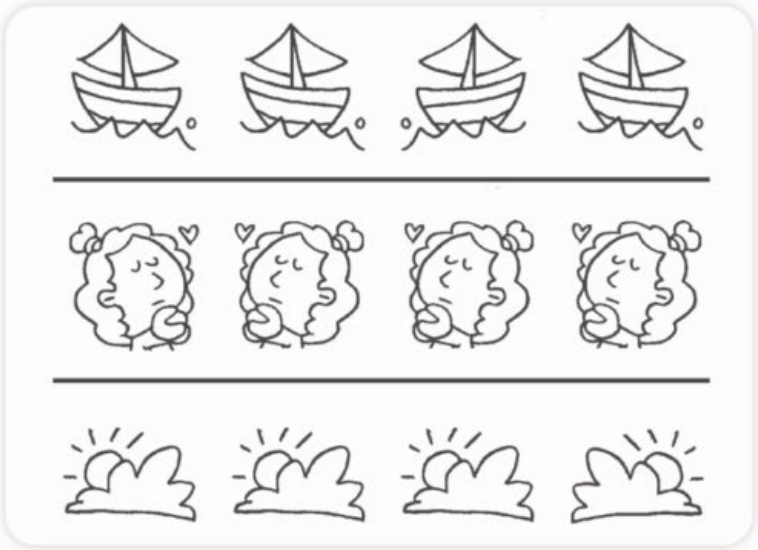

If your friend is afraid, ask God to make the fear go away.

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus and his disciples were in a boat on the water. Hurricane winds turned the boat on its side. Jesus was sleeping. The disciples awoke Jesus saying, "Teacher, we're going to drown. Save us. Save us." Jesus was upset because his disciples believed that he would let them drown. Jesus waved his arms over the sea. The wind stopped blowing. The waves calmed down. The disciples were amazed and thankful.
