FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICH

Today, we begin the Liturgical Season of Ordinary Time with the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

In our first reading taken from the last part of the book of Isaiah we find the words of a prophet who lived after the Jews returned from exile in Babylon six centuries before Christ. Upon their return, they found their temple destroyed and the city of Jerusalem leveled. Still, the prophet sees a wonderful future for them because God loves them so much. Note the beautiful images he uses to describe that love.

Today, and for the next few weeks, our second reading will be from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians. Corinth was a busy cosmopolitan seaport located in the central part of modern-day Greece. Here, Paul addresses problems his converts are experiencing as they try to live a Christian life in this non-Christian environment.

Each year, Christians around the world mark the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity from January 18, the traditional Feast of the Chair of St. Peter, through January 25, the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. This annual observance is a special time to pray for unity among all of Jesus' disciples so that the world might come to believe in Christ's redeeming love. Organized in collaboration with the Vatican, the theme for this year is Do you believe? Jesus announces the truth of the new Covenant to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whover believes in me, even if they die, will live. Those that believe in me will never die." He invites a response from Martha when he says, "Do you believe this?"

Each year Christian churches and communities from a different part of the world develop the theme and materials for the Week of Prayer.

In 2025, the whole Church commemorates the 1,700th anniversary of the first Ecumenical Council of the entire church at that time, called by the Emperor Constantine at Nicaea (presently in the country of Turkey) in the early summer of 325. The result was an agreed upon Creed, what we today call the Nicene Creed.

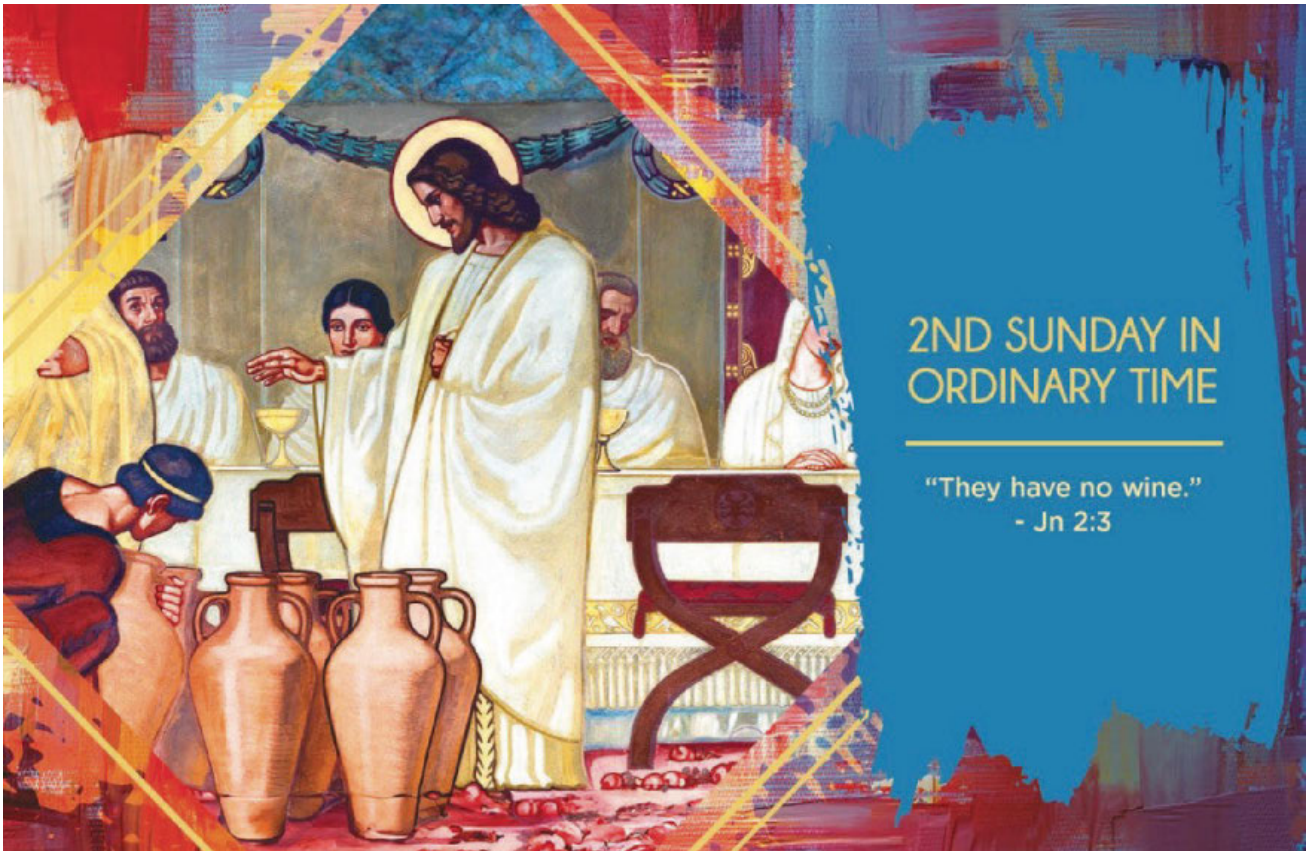

This theme, by offering a way to see that faith is not just a static set of beliefs, but an active means of receiving grace, is most appropriate for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in 2025. If faith can raise the dead and conquer all fear, surely faith will bring us the miracle of unity as Christians. Remembering that division, separation and rejection are symptoms of sin, the healing of the Church comes about in the power of the Holy Spirit. We pray knowing to whom it is we pray, as one community. God wills us to reconcile. God wills us to love one another. God will give those who profess the faith of Martha, of Nicaea and of all the holy ones who have gone before us, the precious gift of unity.

QUEEN OF PEACE PARISH

By now, many are receiving in the mail the request to support this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. I want to encourage all in our parish to do what you can to support this effort that helps both our parishes and the Archdiocese of Chicago to continue to serve our parishioners in so many ways. This year our targeted goal is $77,460.00 which is based on 7% of last year's offertory income. Speaking of last year, I want to once again congratulate and thank all of you who supported the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal. Because of your generosity last year, you enabled our parish to surpass its assigned goal and receive a rebate of almost $15,000! which has helped us to pay for some of the enormous bills we have had with repairing or replacing our failing heating and air-conditioning systems at both Our Lady, Mother of the Church and St. Eugene Church and School facilities. Thank you all!

Finally, I ask for your prayers as this coming week our Parish Advisory Committee that has served so well in uniting our three merged parishes over the past 2½ years, comes to an end and as we begin looking at a new process of parish leadership moving forward.

OCIA
Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

BECOMING CATHOLIC — OCIA (FORMERLY RCIA)
ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith and for those seeking more information on the Catholic Church. OCIA can also be a method for Catholics to complete their reception of the initiation sacraments. The manual used in the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults states that the rite is designed for adults "who after hearing the mystery of Christ proclaimed, consciously and freely seek the living God." The manual also states when speaking about those in the process "By God's help they will be strengthened spiritually during their preparation and at the proper time receive the sacraments fruitfully."

WHO IS OCIA FOR?

- Non-Catholics who want to find out more about the Catholic Faith
- Those who want to join the Catholic Church through Baptism, or Profession of Faith
- Those who were baptized Catholic as infants but never received religious education, Confirmation, or First Eucharist.

The preparations for Christmas include buying or making gifts for those whom we love. You can give no better gift than the gift that God has given to us: his Son, Jesus. Invite someone who is not Catholic to attend Mass with you at Christmas. For information about the RCIA, contact the Parish Office at 773-775-6660 or Fr. Carlton at rcarlton@archchicago.org for any questions.

How is Jesus working in our lives to fulfill his call to evangelize?

How are we called to respond in the midst of conflict, rejection, and outright persecution?

There is no better place to look for guidance in the New Evangelization than the Acts of the Apostles.

This chronicle of the Church in action gives us the blueprint for the life and mission of the Church today.

In 'Evangelization and the Acts of the Apostles', Dr. Mary Healy combines Bible study with Church teaching and practical wisdom to show how modern Catholics can effectively impact people for Jesus Christ.

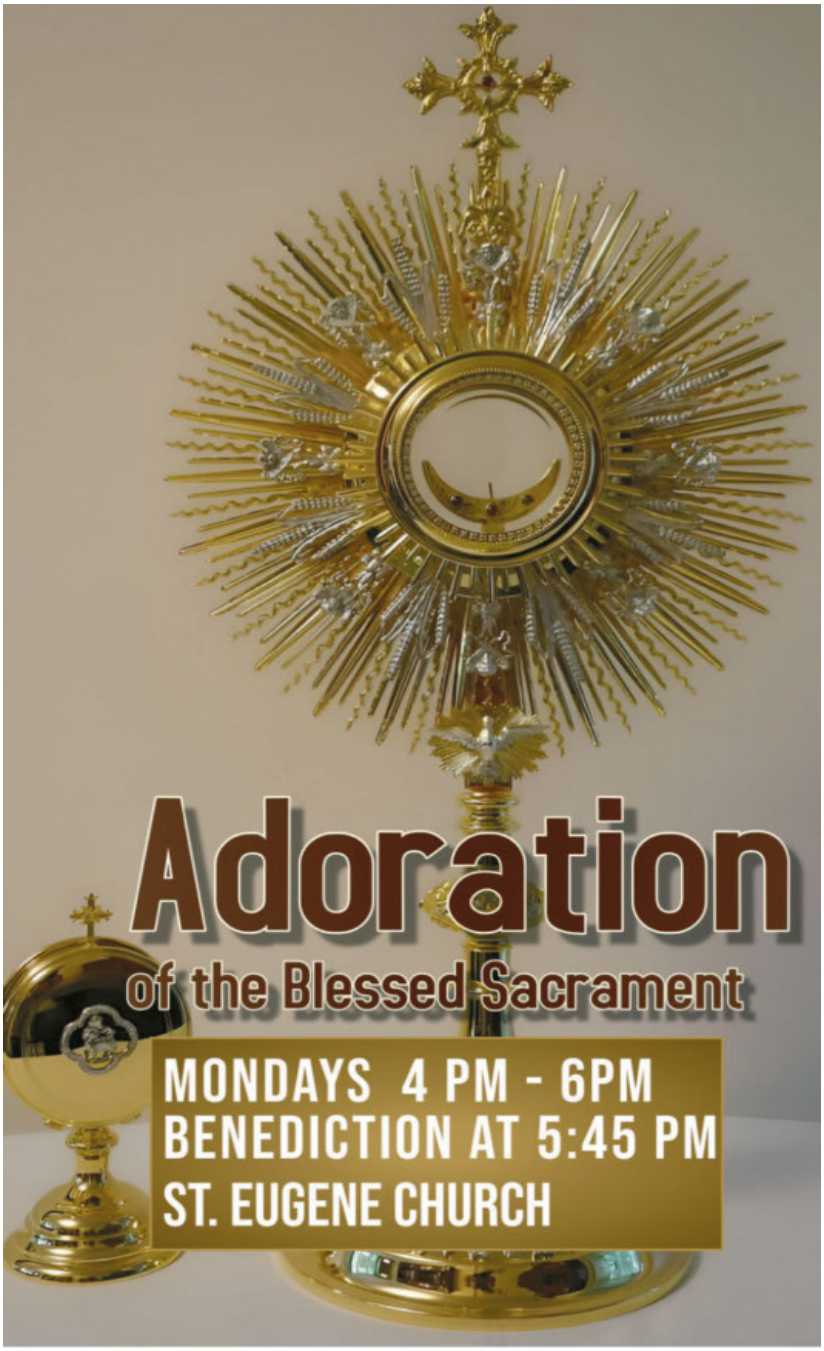

Join us for this 10-part Adult Faith Formation series on Tuesdays at 10am, or Thursdays at 6:30pm

starting January 21st & January 23rd.

Please, register in the rectory.
The cost is $25.
We will meet at Room 110 at school.

Greetings Queen of Peace Parishioners:

Happy New Year! I hope this message finds all of you well.

Just a quick note to start off the year with 2 items of interest:

1) I ask that folks who submit any check donations for the parish please utilize the name of Queen of Peace Parish versus St. Eugene or Our Lady, Mother of the Church. Queen of Peace is the name recognized by the bank. This will hopefully avoid any issues with the acceptance of your kind offerings by Parkway.

2) For any of you that participate in on-line giving, whether it be Give Central or We Share, please note that all of your contributions have been inputted into our internal database. This means that your end-of-year tax letter will reflect the donations from both cash, check, and now on-line. The good news is you do not have to generate any other file from the other venues to have the record of your kind giving for the Parish.

If you need for us to generate a tax letter for you to include with your annual IRS submission, please let us know. Note that there is a simple form statement request included in this bulletin (see form below). We are happy to accommodate your request.

With truly grateful hearts, we thank you for your faithful and generous support of our parish!

Take care, and blessings to all of you!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A friend invited me to an invitation-only wine-tasting event. There were over two hundred varieties of wine. Having no idea how to approach such a massive selection, I wandered aimlessly among the tables, sipping this and that. At the end of the evening my friend asked if I had tried some of the exceptionally expensive wines. I hadn't. "The really good stuff disappears first," he said. "My man, you missed out on some amazing vino." I was so disappointed. I wasted my chance for amazing once-in-a-lifetime wine. The wine I tasted was, well, blah.

Don't we often feel a similar disappointment in life? I missed this or that opportunity. If only I had known. Optimism sputters and fades. The glory days are gone. The chances, it seems, for the really great things in life come and go so quickly. Then they are gone forever. The good stuff goes first. Then life is just blah.

Not so with the Lord Jesus. In Jesus' miracle at the wedding at Cana, the steward of the feast says, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then...an inferior one" (John 2:10). That's the natural downward progression of life. The good stuff disappears quickly. But he says of the groom (who symbolizes Jesus), "But you have kept the good wine until now." This is the ever-improving trajectory of the realm of God's grace. With Jesus, the "good wine" of divine love, hope and peace gets better as our journey of faith progresses. Where are your greatest disappointments? Don't give in to the lie that the really good stuff is gone. Tell Jesus you've run out. Then learn how to taste that amazingly good wine, because he saves the best until now.
