FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICH

We have sadly lost our spiritual leader and shepherd with the passing of Pope Francis this past Monday morning. Though he had been ailing over the past few months with a respiratory illness it seemed to me and so many others that he was on the mend. We all know how much he relished being with the pilgrims and visitors that came to St. Peter's to not only see the beautiful Basilica and the city of Rome, but many also come there to see the man who sits on the Chair of Peter – our Supreme Pontif. As I write my bulletin article this week I along with many throughout the world were saddened to hear the surprising news of his death. We had just seen him on television greeting the tourists on Easter from his wheelchair on his balcony and he even gave all those who came to the Vatican a much-appreciated glimpse of him as he rode on the pope mobile greeting everyone.

Pope Francis at the age of 88 years old did so much to bring the presence of Christ to the people of God and it was this that attracted so many to want to be in his presence. He was a man who was a great advocate of the poor and disenfranchised. He was a pope who wanted to be with his people especially those who had no one to be there for them. One of my greatest recollections of Pope Francis soon after he was elected was when I heard he would sneak out of the confines of the Vatican walls dressed, not in his clerical clothes, but rather in street clothes so that no one would know who he was. Of course, this activity did not go over well with his caretakers and security, but it never stopped him.

As with all those who have led the Roman Catholic Church as Bishop of Rome in the past, there were those who appreciated his candor, his desire to bring about changes in the church that have been long ignored, his veracity toward the alien and immigrant and his genuine desire that the Church is for everyone. There were also those who did not agree with his perspectives. If there was one thing Pope Francis, was it was that he was true to his convictions.

I find it so comforting that Pope Francis went home to the Lord right after Easter Sunday and the Paschal Triduum - the days we celebrated the suffering, death and resurrection of Christ. It's almost as if he would have wanted it that way and God in his goodness honored that wish brought him home.

Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. +AMEN

Mother's Day is only two weeks away. Here in our country, we set aside this special day to remember and celebrate these special women in each of our lives who, with our fathers, have been instrumental in not only bringing each of us into this world, but have also helped to provide loving homes that are much needed today. We honor these women who have cared, nurtured, fed, and even sacrificed for us because of their deep maternal love for us.

Whether living or deceased, hopefully a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your mom. If you might wish to have your mother remembered in a special way at all our Mother's Day Masses, as well as having their name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your mother's names on the special Mother's Day envelope that was provided in your May packet of your Sunday offering envelopes including also your Mass offerings for this purpose. They can be placed in the collection basket at church, mailed to or dropped off at the rectory and their names will be added to the memorial page that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on our altar for an entire year. In addition, our living and deceased mothers will be remembered at all the Masses on Mother's Day.

Just a reminder that the "Little White Books" are available at both of our churches either in the vestibules or at the doors. Please take one home with you to assist with your Easter Season reflections and prayer.

A Happy Easter season to all in our parish community!

Fr. Rich Yanos

ANSWER THE CALL TO SPIRITUALLY RENEW OUR PARISHES

A relationship with Jesus Christ is the most relevant relationship we have in finding meaning to life. These days, however, a majority of our younger generations did not grow up with active faith practice. We can no longer wait for them to come to us. We must seek them out.

Our renewal efforts will focus on walking with people across a path of Christian discipleship and will develop in two ways: Renewal support and formation for parishes and outreach for people exploring faith. Key areas of parish focus include building up parish leaders, offering Christ-centered entry points, building capacity for individual faith accompaniment, establishing small faith communities within the parish, fostering opportunities for spiritual encounter, and enabling faith witness. Additionally, the archdiocese will create tailored online workshops and curated content, hosted on a digital platform, that will invite those that are spiritually hungry.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
St. Eugene Church
Mondays 4 - 6 pm. Benediction at 5:45 pm.

Welcome to the FORGIVEN™

Sin, guilt, failure, disappointment...these are all an unpleasant but universal reality of the human experience. We all have to deal with them, but we cannot do it alone. The remedy is immediately available and miraculously effective - the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
Confession is not a rule, a formality, or an old-fashioned ritual. It's an intimate and life-changing experience of God's mercy.

Forgiven explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God's love. By looking at God's revelation of his mercy in Scripture and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite itself, Forgiven communicates God's invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Session 1: Where are you?
Session 2: An Encounter with Mercy
Session 3: Embraced in Mercy: The Rite Explained
Session 4: Biblical Foundations
Session 5: Answering Common Question about Confession

SUNDAY, APRIL 27TH IS DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY!

Our Lord's Promises attached to the praying of The Chaplet of Divine Mercy as revealed to St. Faustina Kowalska

1. "The souls that say this chaplet will be embraced by My mercy during their lifetime and especially at the hour of their death." (Diary, 754)

2. "When hardened sinners say it, I will fill their souls with peace, and the hour of their death will be a happy one." (Diary, 1541)

3. "When they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as a just Judge but as a merciful Savior." (Diary, 1541)

4. "Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death." (Diary, 687)

5. "Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation. Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy.... I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy." (Diary, 687)

6. "To priests who proclaim and extol My mercy, I will give wondrous power; I will anoint their words and touch the hearts of those to whom they will speak." (Diary, 1521)

7. "The prayer most pleasing to Me is prayer for the conversion for sinners. Know, my daughter, that this prayer is always heard and answered." (Diary, 1397)

8. "At three o'clock, implore My mercy, especially for sinners; and, if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in My abandonment at the moment of agony.... I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My Passion." (Diary, 1320; al-so, cf. Diary, 1572)

9. "Souls who spread the honor of My mercy. at the hour of death, I will not be a Judge for them, but the Merciful Savior." (Diary, 1075)

10. "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image (of the Divine Mercy) will not per-ish." (Diary, 48). "The two rays denote Blood and Water.... These two rays issued from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross. These rays shield souls from the wrath of My Father." (Diary, 299)

11. "I desire that the Feast of Mercy...be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion (in a state of grace on this day) shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary, 699)

12. "Through this chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will." (Diary, 1731)

Rosaries and More

Pray the Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet before morning Mass Monday through Saturday.

Pray the Mother of Perpetual Help Devotion after morning Mass on Tuesday.

This week, the Rosary Guild Rosary intention is for people needing stem cell donations, that they may receive them. For instance, area doctors are trying to find a stem cell donor for a seven-year-old girl from Gaza with a rare blood condition similar to blood cancer. She was brought to the United States last year, and her condition is "very critical." One match fell through, and none of the other 15 million people in the stem cell registry are a match. Nearly 600 more people have just been tested and will be added to the stem cell registry, hoping to be a match. Rosary Guild members include: Emily A., Lori G., James H., John I., Lita J., Evelyn K., Terri K., Lonnie M., Mary M., Ted M., Josephine N., Emilie P., Stefania P., Jean R., Demi S., and Shirley S.

With the Living Rosary, people pray a decade or more of the Rosary daily for the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary for the glory of the Most Holy Trinity, and in honor of Saint Philomena, the patron of the Living Rosary.

Food Pantry Numbers Continue Rising

On a chilly Tuesday, April 8, the St. Eulalia Quinn Center Food Pantry distributed approximately 75 bags of groceries packed by Queen of Peace volunteers the previous Sunday. A total of 90 families, 375 to 400 people, came through the Quinn Center parking lot for bagged suppers and groceries. (Not everyone takes groceries.)

This continues the slowly rising trend of grocery recipients. It's always a hard number to predict, but the Quinn Center anticipates rising numbers as grocery prices rise. As you yourselves have experienced, the money coming in tends to stay stable while expenses, especially food, continue to rise. When you don't have much wiggle room in your budget, that can be a real problem.

And that's why the folks at the Quinn Center are so grateful for your continued support. Queen of Peace parish is, right now, the sole provider of groceries. Each month you help needy Maywood area residents stretch their budgets just that much farther. Thank you for supporting our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Our next packing session will be on Sunday, April 27 at 1:45, meeting in Quinn Center parking lot. We'll be packing a little sooner than usual to make sure all our moms can enjoy Mothers' Day!
