FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICH

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord. It also happens to be the 7th Sunday of Easter. Our first reading takes us back to the beginning verses of the Acts of the Apostles and sets forth the themes that Luke is going to develop throughout this, the longest book of the New Testament. His major theme is the role of the Holy Spirit, who enables the apostles to be effective witnesses to Jesus. The Holy Spirit is mentioned 57 times in the Acts of the Apostles.

Today's second reading from Ephesians was chosen because of its reference to Jesus' ascent to heaven, which is contrasted with his descent to the dead. Early Christians believed that those who died before the coming of Jesus awaited redemption in a shadowy existence described here as the lower regions of the earth. It is our Christian tradition that immediately after his death, Jesus went to these people to announce that they had been saved.

For those who may be wondering why we are celebrating the Solemnity of the Ascension this weekend and not on Thursday, May 29th, it is because many years ago the ecclesiastical Provinces of Boston, Hartford, New York, Omaha, and Philadelphia chose to retain the celebration of the Ascension on its proper day, while all other Provinces, including Chicago, have transferred this Solemnity to the Seventh Sunday of Easter which would be today.

Father's Day is just two weeks away. Here in our country, we set aside this special day to remember and celebrate these special men in each of our lives who, with our mothers, have been instrumental in not only bringing each of us into this world, but have also helped to provide a loving home and a strong male role model that is much needed today. We honor these men who have cared, nurtured, fed, and even sacrificed for us because of their deep paternal love for us.

Whether living or deceased, hopefully a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your dad. If you might wish to have your father remembered in a special way at all our Father's Day Masses, as well as having his name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your father's names on the special Father's Day envelope provided in your packet this month. They can be placed in the collection basket, mailed in or dropped off at the parish office with your contribution this week or next and their names will be added to the memorial page(s) that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on our altar for an entire year.

Next weekend the Annual Collection for our Archdiocesan Priest's Health and Retirement will take place. There will be a special 2nd collection taken up for the retired priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago. The retired priests of the Archdiocese receive no funds from the Retired Religious Collection taken up in December. Those funds are used solely for religious nuns and brothers and religious order priests.

You may not be aware that there are currently 386 active and over 247 Retired Archdiocesan Priests. Over half of these are currently over the age of eighty. Normal retirement age is currently 70 for Chicago priests. Many of our retired priests still live in a rectory and assist the parish on a regular basis. Many celebrate Sunday Mass weekly; perform marriages and baptisms; and visit the sick in hospitals much like what Fr. Ed Pacocha and Fr. Greg Rom continue to do. Without these dedicated men, many parishes/religious institutions would not be able to provide the full range of Masses and sacraments that are currently offered. Many of you remember with fondness the priest that baptized you, gave you your First Communion, celebrated your marriage, and visited you when you were sick at home or in the hospital.

For most of us, these memories probably include some of the retired priests of our Archdiocese and our parish.

There are two independent living residences for retired priests that are subsidized by the Chicago Archdiocese, with space for some of our retired priests to enjoy communal living with their brother priests in retirement. All these rooms are currently being used.

Last year many of our retired priests received or were currently receiving nursing home assistance or had or have full-time aides coming to their home or rectory. Spending has increased in providing home care to keep retired priests in the surroundings where they are most comfortable.

The Priests' Pension Fund is losing principal and needs significant contributions to stabilize and secure this benefit for future generations of priests.

The Archdiocese is committed to caring for our retired priests, but we need your assistance. Please help in any way you can, by supporting next week's collection and many, many thanks for your prayerful and financial support of these dedicated and selfless priests and servants of God. Envelopes have been provided in your monthly packets and are also at the entrance doors of our church. They can be put in the 2nd collection basket or can be mailed in or dropped off at the rectory either in person or in the mailbox slot in the front door.

A special thank you to all those in our parish who have sent in their Generation to Generation pledge cards and initial contributions. In the next few weeks, we will be having our in-pew solicitation for our campaign for all those who have not already sent in their pledges. We are counting on ALL in our parish to make a pledge/contribution to this important campaign effort in the hopes of getting us to our goal. Imagine the impact our entire parish can have if everyone does something to help us reach our goal. Currently only 60+ households have already gotten us to $889,000.00 of our $1,440,000.00 goal. We ask everyone to prayerfully consider what your level of support will be. Remember it is not about equal gifts but rather equal sacrifice.

Wishing all in our parish a great week ahead.

Fr. Rich

Rosaries and More

The Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet are prayed before morning Mass Monday through Saturday.

The Rosary intention of the Rosary Guild this week is for Pope Leo XIV and his June prayer intention, that the world might grow in compassion. "Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world." All are welcome to pray a Rosary for Pope Leo XIV and his intention, including Guild members Emily A., Lori G., James H., John I., Lita J., Evelyn K., Terri K., Lonnie M., Mary M., Ted M., Josephine N., Emilie P., Stefania P., Jean R., Demi S., and Shirley S.

The intention of the Living Rosary, where people pray a decade or more of the Rosary daily, is for the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary for the glory of the Most Holy Trinity, and in honor of Saint Philomena, the patron of the Living Rosary.

Joyful Mysteries	Luminous Mysteries	Sorrowful Mysteries	Glorious Mysteries
Annunciation - Ted M.	Baptism of Jesus - Barb R.	Agony in the Garden - Jean R.	Resurrection - Lita J.
Visitation - Barb R.	Wedding at Cana - Mary M.	Scourging at the Pillar - Jean R.	Ascension - Marsha G.

The Mother of Perpetual Help Devotion is prayed after morning Mass on Tuesday.

Novena to the Holy Spirit

Pray the following prayer for nine days.

O Holy Spirit, O my God, I adore you, and acknowledge, here in your divine presence, that I am nothing and can do nothing without you. Come, great Paraclete, father of the poor, comforter the best, fulfill the promise of our blessed Savior, who would not leave us orphans, and come into the mind and the heart of your poor, unworthy creature, as you descended on the sacred day of Pentecost on the holy Mother of Jesus and on his first disciples. Grant that I may participate in those gifts which you communicated to them so wonderfully, and with so much mercy and generosity. Take from my heart whatever is not pleasing to you, and make of it a worthy dwelling-place for yourself. Illumine my mind, that I may see and understand the things that are for my eternal good. Inflame my heart with pure love of you, that I may be cleansed from the dross of all inordinate attachments, and that my whole life may be hidden with Jesus in God. Strengthen my will, that I may be made conformable to your divine will, and be guided by your holy inspirations. Aid me by your grace to practice the divine lessons of humility, poverty, obedience, and contempt of the world, which Jesus taught us in his mortal life.

Oh, rend the heavens, and come down, consoling Spirit, that inspired and encouraged by you, I may faithfully comply with the duties of my state, carry my daily cross most patiently, and endeavor to accomplish the divine will with the utmost perfection. Spirit of love! Spirit of purity! Spirit of peace! Sanctify my soul more and more, and give me that heavenly peace which the world cannot give. Bless our Holy Father the Pope, bless the Church, bless our bishops, our priests, all Religious Orders, and all the faithful, that they may be filled with the spirit of Christ and labor earnestly for the spread of his kingdom.

O Holy Spirit, giver of every good and perfect gift, grant me, I beseech you, the intentions of this novena. May your will be done in me and through me. May you be praised and glorified forevermore!

Amen.

Next Quinn Center Packing Session Is June 8

Approximately 80 bags of groceries were picked up from St. Eulalia's Quinn Center on Tuesday, May 13. The number of bags being distributed keeps rising. Even the attendance at their bi-weekly dinners is rising; 60 people attended last time. On Sunday, June 8 we'll meet once again to pack groceries. Our target will be 100 bags! Any and all help is welcome! Remember, 1:45 in the St. Eulalia parking lot. Those groceries may not seem like a lot to us who are more fortunate; but to the folks who come to the Quinn Center, they are a budget stretching lifeline.

Thank you for your help and support.

NEXT WEEKEND IS GENERATION TO GENERATION WEEKEND

Next weekend is Generation to Generation Weekend at our parish. In addition to thanking the parish staff, volunteers and lay leaders who have worked tirelessly over the past few months to make this campaign a success, we will ask all families to return their completed pledge card at Mass next weekend.

Our goal at Queen of Peace Parish is to raise 1,440,000 over five years. Every gift counts!

Total Gift*	Monthly	Weekly	Daily
$18,000	$300	$69	$10
$12,000	$200	$46	$7

OUR PRIORITIES

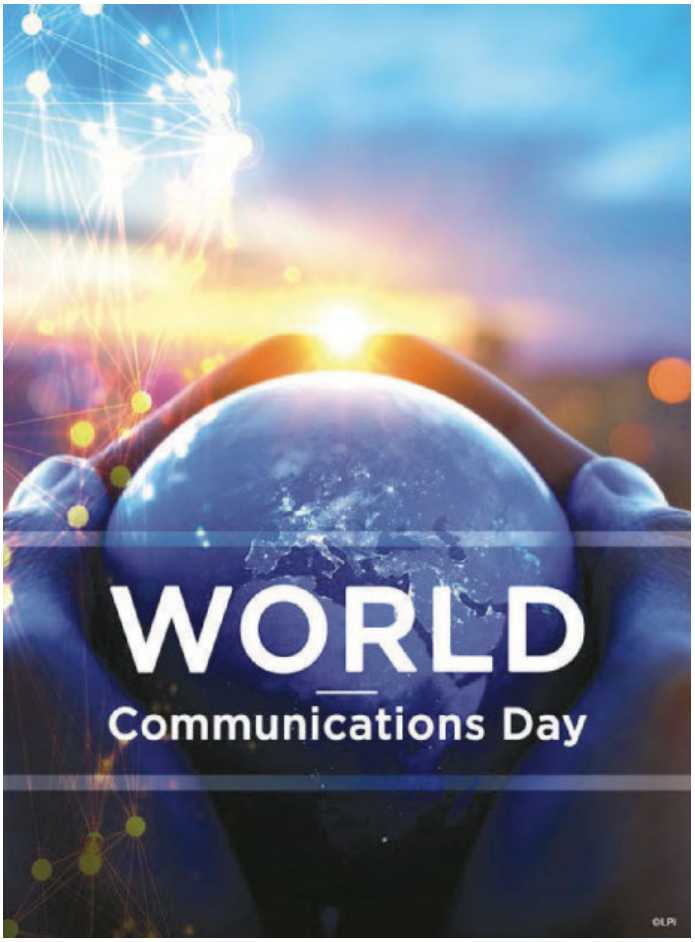

- Priority 1: REPAVING OUR PARKING LOT
- Priority 2: CHURCH BOILERS
- Priority 3: REPAIRING OUR ROOF
- Priority 4: CARPETING AND FLOORING

I invite you to prayerfully consider a five-year pledge to the Generation to Generation campaign. Our goal is 100% participation from our parish family—not equal gifts, but equal sacrifice. Every pledge matters, and every parishioner is vital to our community.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The famous 20th century St. Padre Pio said once that he would wait outside the gates of heaven until the people in his life had entered. I'm not sure that I, or frankly many people I know, would say that and mean it. Yet that is precisely the kind of attitude we see in Jesus as he prays for us in the Gospel today. Having celebrated the Ascension of the Lord just a few days ago, we now hear the Son of God at the Last Supper pray to his Father "that they may be brought to perfection as one" (John 17:23). What does this mean for us?

I'd wager that we are not surprised that Jesus wants to make us perfect — that is, happy, whole, and healed. The shocker is that he desires this for us collectively and not just individually. Perfection is a team sport. We need each other to be perfect. Jesus is like a mother longing for her adult children to learn how to be in loving support of one another. He wants the perfection of his disciples to be not some individualistic plan of moral uprightness, but a loving communion of brothers and sisters.

Let's apply this practically. Do I see my participation at Mass as something I do merely for my own peace and edification, or as something I do with and for the people around me? Do I see my ongoing need for forgiveness as something that simply makes me feel better, or as a task that heals those around me, too? Is my dearest hope to individually get to heaven when I die, or is it to be part of the great procession of souls, together marching towards the heavenly Jerusalem? Do I want to be in heaven with people I currently find difficult? How would my life change if I did?

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Very shortly, we will celebrate Fathers' Day, an opportunity to celebrate the men who gave us life and supported us across the years. It marks a time of memory and gratitude. As we remember and thank these men who gave us physical life, I invite you to extend that gratitude to those who have been spiritual fathers to us, priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Certainly, you remember how your priests have been present at every season of your lives—from birth and growing up in the early years to sacramental celebrations. They have walked with you in times of great joy and times of deep sorrow.

Now, we have an opportunity to express our gratitude to these priests who number 386 active and 247 retired with the gift of our support for their health and retirement needs. This weekend, we will take up a second collection for the Priests' Health and Retirement. Your contribution will support their health care, nursing care, and retirement. Those who will benefit from your generosity to this collection are our Chicago priests of the archdiocese. As you may recall, a different collection for men and women belonging to religious orders (including their priests, brothers and sisters) was taken up several months ago.

Please join me in making a generous contribution to this weekend's second collection. You may also want to consider naming the Priests' Health and Retirement as a beneficiary in your will, something that I have done.

Above all, raise a prayer to God in thanksgiving for the archdiocesan priests he has given us and raise a prayer of petition for them, so that they can continue to serve God's people with the heart of Christ, the Good Shepherd.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Blase Card. Cupich
