LAST 5 DAYS OF THE NOVENA TO THE QUEEN OF PEACE

Sunday, July 5—From Pope Leo XIV's homily, 6/10/2026

...Let us ask Mary, Queen of Peace, to teach us to renounce hurtful words, hasty judgment, gossip and slander. May we also learn to cherish and nurture love within our families, among friends, in the workplace, on social media, in political debates and in Christian communities, so that hatred may give way to hope and peace.

Monday, July 6—From a Prayer for Peace by Pope Francis...

O Virgin Mary, Queen of Peace, you who stood at the foot of the cross, obtain from your Son pardon for our sins; you who never doubted the victory of his resurrection, sustain our faith and our hope; you who are enthroned as Queen in glory, teach us the royal road of service and the glory of love. Amen.

Tuesday, July 7—From a Prayer for Peace by Pope Benedict XVI, 2007

To the Queen of Peace, the Mother of Jesus Christ, "our peace" (Eph 2:14) ...to which we look with hearts full of hope, notwithstanding the dangers and difficulties that surround us. May Mary show us, in her Son, the Way of peace, and enlighten our vision, so that we can recognize Christ's face in the face of every human person, the heart of peace!

Wednesday, July 8—78th Anniversary of St. Eugene, Prayer for Peace by Pope Saint John Paul II

Mary, Queen of Peace, save us all, who have so much trust in you, from wars, hatred and oppression. Make us all learn to live in peace, do what is demanded by justice and respect the rights of every person, so that peace may be firmly established. Amen.

Thursday, July 9, World Feast Day of the Queen of Peace—Pray the Rosary

The Rosary will be prayed in Our Lady, Mother of the Church at 6:30 a.m. and another Rosary will be prayed at 6:30 p.m. by the Queen of Peace statue at St. Eugene. Bring a lawn chair. If inclement weather, we will pray inside.

We invite all members of the parish to take part in a four-part series exploring the rich and transformative documents of the Second Vatican Council.

Together, we will reflect on the Council's teachings, deepen our understanding of the Church's mission in the modern world, and consider how these insights continue to shape our faith and daily lives.

Whether you are new to these documents or revisiting them with fresh eyes, this series offers a meaningful opportunity for learning, discussion, and spiritual growth.

Join us as we journey together into the heart of the Church's vision for renewal and unity.

The classes will meet on Wednesdays in July - July 8, 15, 22 and 29 from 7-8pm.

Please contact either the rectory or Fr. Carlton to register.

Virtues, Explained!

Empathy describes our ability to connect emotionally with the suffering of others, as Christ connected emotionally with our suffering in original sin. This virtue flows directly from the virtue of charity, and growth in charity will enable growth in empathy.

Blessing for Our Country

Dear God,
Bless this land that we love, a land You created, in love.
We are at our best when we're close to You.
Please inspire, guide, and govern our leaders and our vision, that our greatness may be founded in and defined in You.
Amen.

QUINN CENTER OF ST. EULALIA

HEAT AND HUMIDITY DON'T STOP GROCERY DISTRIBUTION

Tuesday, June 9 was hot and humid with no breeze, but that didn't stop the distribution of groceries at St. Eulalia's Quinn Center. People were moving a little slower, but a steady stream of 117 families (representing roughly 500 people) came by for groceries and bagged suppers. Some of the families who came were quite large – 8 to 10 people.

That previous Sunday, June 7, a large crew of volunteers from Queen of Peace assembled to pack 110 bags of groceries. To demonstrate what experience and organization can do, they packed all 110 bags in 17 minutes.
Of course, that's not counting the time it took to bring the groceries in from the cars, shelve them, and tidy up. Set up and clean up actually take longer than assembling the bags. It also takes a lot more muscle!

Our next bagging session will be on Sunday, July 12 – same time (2:00), same place (Door 4 off the St. Eulalia parking lot). If you have any questions or would like to join us, please feel free to contact Jan Magnuson at jan7744@comcast.net or at 312-806-7210. You don't have to commit to coming every week; we know people have many demands on their time. Come join us when you can and feel good while doing good!

Here's the assembly line in action …

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

This weekend, our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Unlike most nations, the United States was not founded primarily on a shared ethnicity, language, or culture. Instead, our founders built a political community out of diverse peoples united by a shared vision of liberty. That vision echoes something deep in the Christian mystery revealed in today's Gospel.

Jesus returns to his hometown. The people see only what is familiar: the carpenter, the son of Mary, one of their own. As Mark tells us, "They took offense at him. Jesus said, 'A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.'" Their narrow vision blinds them. Jesus has come to inaugurate a new communion that transcends geography, bloodlines, and culture. He has come to unite all people in himself.

At its best, America's national unity reflects this possibility, which fully subsists only in the Catholic Church. Our unity is not based on ancestry or tribe, but on a shared commitment to higher ideals. For this reason, we can love our country with gratitude while situating patriotism within the broader horizon of faith.

Rooted in Christ, we are less vulnerable to the unholy tribalism that threatens civic life and faith. This weekend, let us thank God for our nation and pray that we also live as citizens of Heaven in Jesus Christ.

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Smallness of Great Faith

My children attend Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) for their faith formation. Because of its Montessori basis, CGS atriums, which are something like classrooms, contain lots of objects made from real materials — authentic glass, wood, and ceramic.

This is a polite way of saying there are lots of breakable things in there.

So when my four-year-old entered the atrium on her first day of CGS, my whole body tensed, wondering what she would shatter first. I had to restrain myself from crying out, "Don't touch anything!" She spotted the prayer table — the low, wooden stand which holds an open Bible, candles, a vase with flowers and a statue of the Good Shepherd. It's the centerpiece of every atrium.

She knelt before the table. She made the sign of the cross. And she sat there, still and silent.

I stopped dead in my tracks. How had she known to come here? And where did she learn to make the sign of the cross? (Obviously we've tried to teach her, but she does it wrong every time!) And why was she sitting there so quietly, so expectantly, in front of a book she can't read?

A thought came to me so clearly: Well, Colleen, you can read that book. But can you understand it?

It is so easy for us to forget that great faith does not require great intelligence. It does not require great knowledge of the world and its workings. Great faith does not require the believer to possess any answers.

Great faith only requires the believer to know his own smallness.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

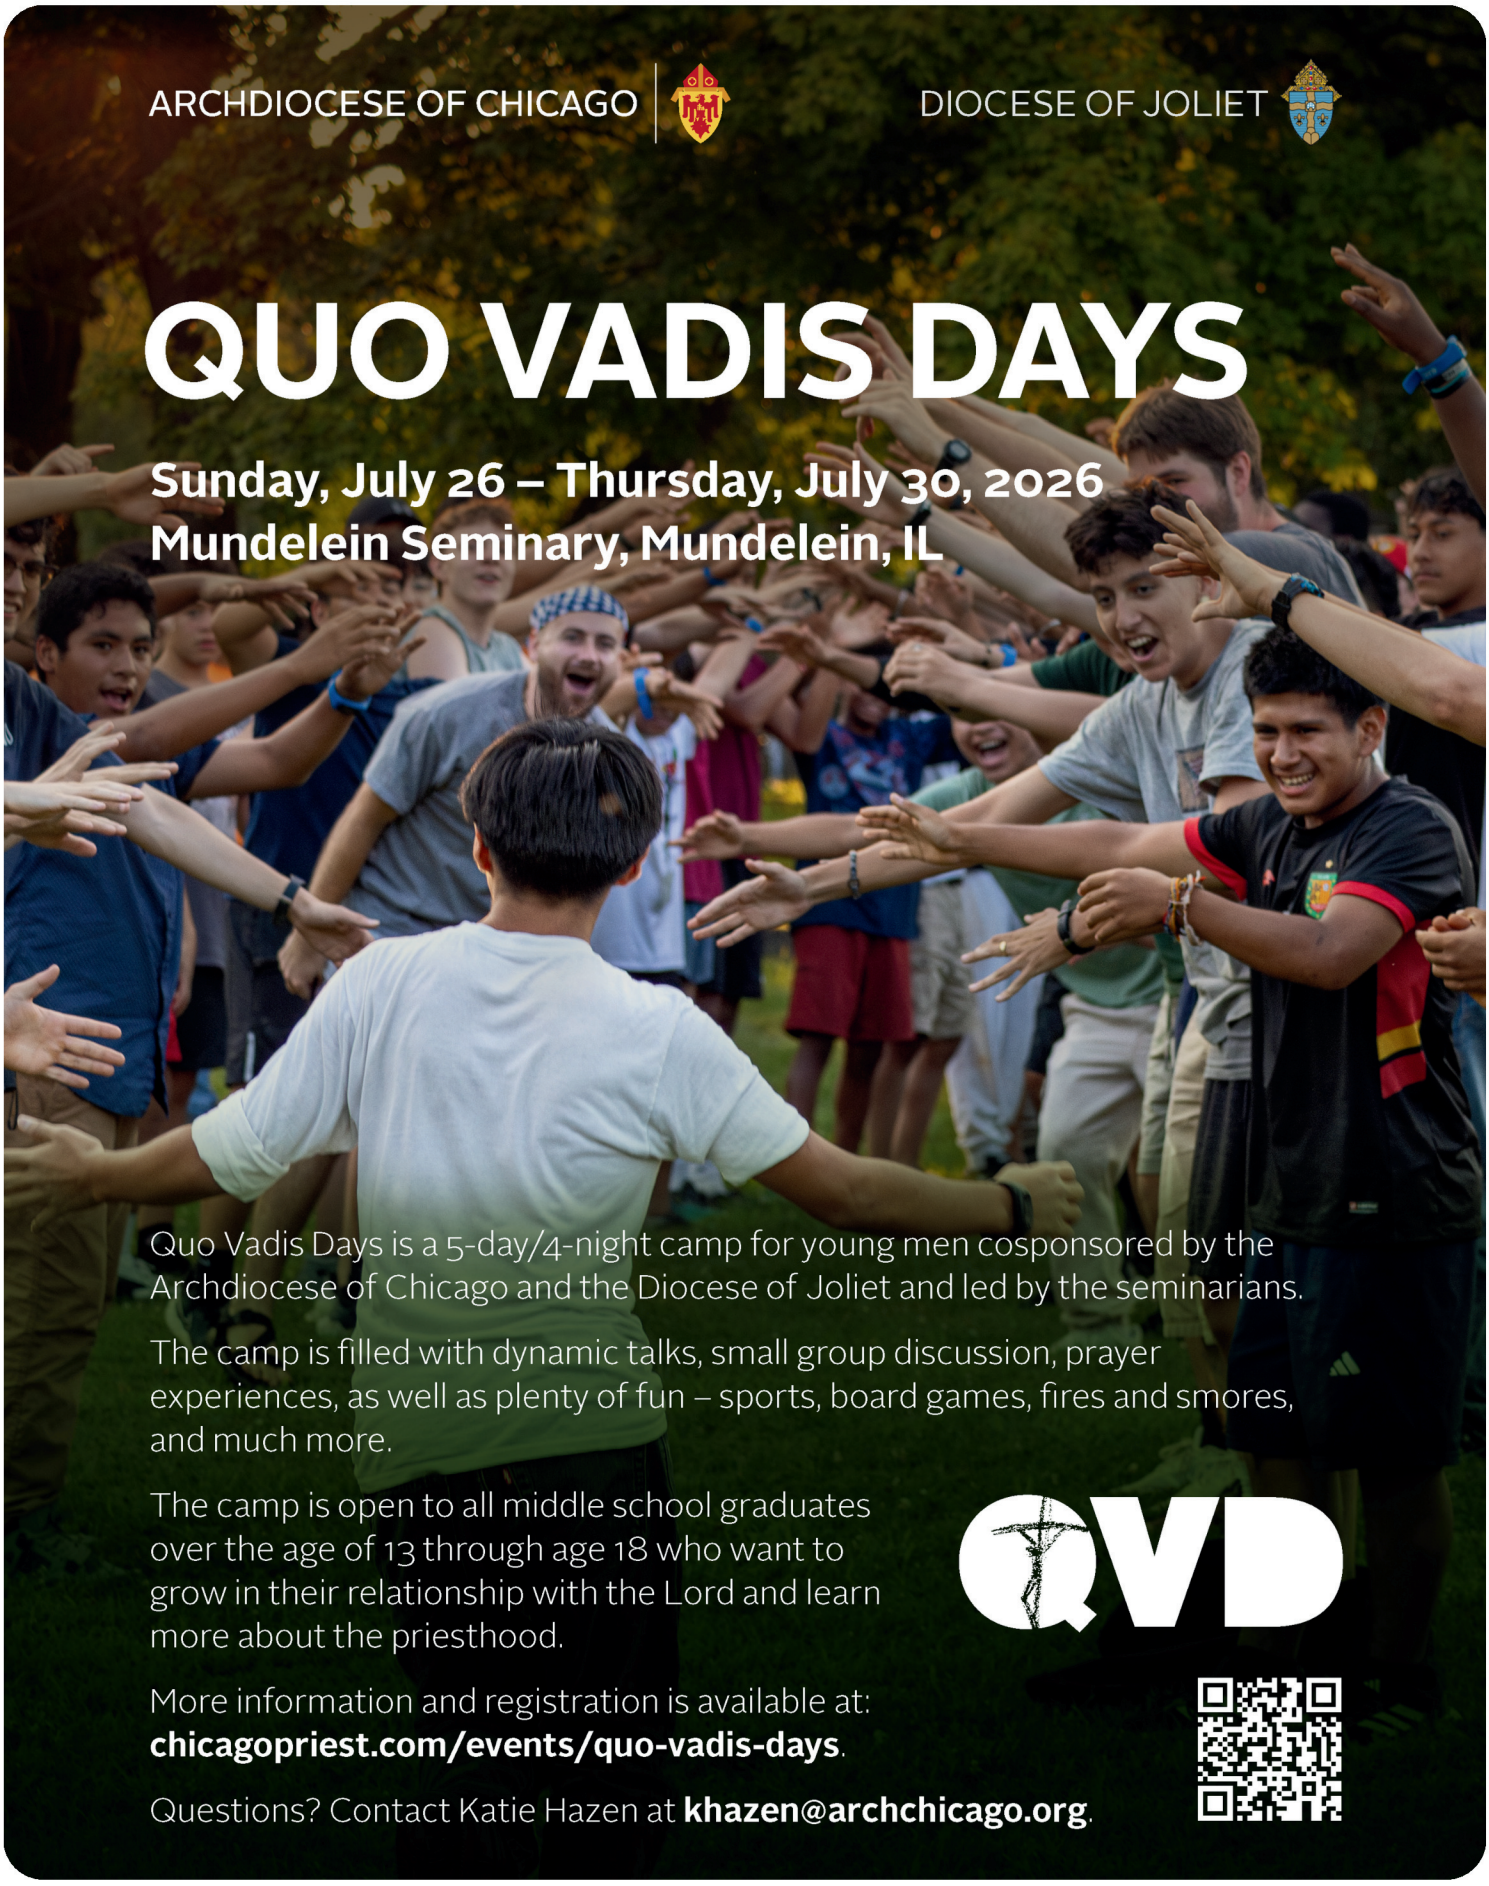

The Bible says that Jesus condemned gambling, but I notice that so many parishes have them at festivals and other events. What's correct?

Answer:

Although Jesus speaks of our relationship with material wealth and the very human struggle with greed, the gospels do not include any specific instructions related to gambling. At the same time, the Church is very sensitive to the needs of those who might struggle with an addiction to gambling, and pastoral care should always be offered to those who struggle with this reality in their life.

While it is true that many parish or school communities include gambling or games of chance in festivals and fundraisers (e.g. bingo, roulette, ring tossing, dunking booths, etc.), there is nothing inherently wrong these sorts of events, given they are played fairly and within the limits of reason are not morally objectionable. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: "Games of chance (card games, etc.) or wagers are not in themselves contrary to justice. They become morally unacceptable when they deprive someone of what is necessary to provide for his needs and those of others" (no. 2413).

As in all things, moderation and a sense of healthy limits should be applied to gambling and games of chance. For those who find themselves living with addiction to gambling, help is available in various 12-step and addiction recovery programs.
