ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

St. Eugene Church
Mondays 4 - 6 pm.
Benediction at 5:45 pm.

CHURCH ETIQUETTE
In order to fully partake in the Mass, the Priest should be the last one in and the first one out.

Dress Appropriately ~ remember, you are in God's house.

REFLECTION ON THE EUCHARIST FROM THE COORDINATOR OF OUR MINISTRY OF CARE

In Communion we are offered the Sacrament of Christ's love for us. St. Thomas states that this Sacrament is something that "cannot be apprehended by the senses."

The feeling that one receives by having Jesus in His entirety, Body, Blood and Divinity is like no other.
As one drinks His blood, one feels the liquid flowing into the body with His love.

As an Extraordinary Minister of the Cup, I have the privilege of offering the faithful Jesus' precious blood after they receive his body.

My soul leaps for joy to share this gift with others as John the Baptist leapt in Elizabeths womb when she welcomed a pregnant Mary into her home.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states (1393) If, as often as his blood is poured out, it is poured for the forgiveness of sins, I should always receive it, so that it may always forgive my sins.

"Because I always sin, I should always have a remedy." (St. Ambrose) ... regarding the Precious Blood.

During Mass, in the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the Priest says: "Take this ALL of YOU and drink from it, for this is the Chalice of my blood, the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of me."

Please consider accepting the gift of Christ's love in His entirety.
Peace,

Terri Kaisling,
RN Parish Nurse

A LETTER FROM DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Good Day to All:

As the parish continues to strive towards improvements, we are looking for ways to make the function of the HVAC system in the St. Eugene School more cost-effective and efficient.

This process encompasses the need to automate the settings through computer technology, so that there is more control of the temperature within the school building throughout all of the seasons. As the parish shares the utility costs for the school, we are hoping to see a substantial savings with the completion of this project. At this time, I am unable to put a number to that projection, but it definitely will be analyzed after the project conclusion.

In order for the parish to fund this project, we have identified funds that have been held for a number of years in the To Teach Who Christ Is account within the Archdiocese. In order for us to use these funds for a project of this nature, I am putting out an awareness that this is a resource we would like to finally utilize at this time.

As a part of the Archdiocesan requirements, this notice will be published for a two-week period in order for approval to be granted. I hope that all of you will be as excited as I am to make this happen for such a worthy cause.

I truly appreciate your attention, and I welcome any feedback.

Thank you, and may God Bless All of You Always!

Lisa Keeney
Director of Operations

HELP FAMILIES AFTER THE COLOMBIA EARTHQUAKE

Following the 7.4 magnitude earthquake that struck western Colombia, Catholic Relief Services is supporting Caritas Colombia and its nationwide diocesan and parish network as they respond to widespread damage. Many families urgently need shelter, clean water, food, medical care, protection and other essential support. Our prayers are with all who have lost loved ones, homes and livelihoods. Through its trusted network of dioceses and parishes, Caritas Colombia is often among the first to respond—accompanying families, offering care, identifying immediate needs and mobilizing assistance through trusted relationships. Your gift today can provide emergency relief to families affected by this disaster—helping bring shelter, food, clean water, protection and other urgent support to our sisters and brothers in Colombia.

An Eight-Part Bible Study Featuring Dr. Edward Sri

Following Christ takes more than simply believing in him or doing what he asks of us. Jesus wants you to be more than just a believer—he wants you to be his disciple and friend. Follow Me: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John is a guide to a personal encounter with Christ. Follow Me invites you to experience the joy of a renewed friendship with Christ.

"I was blown away by the insights that were uncovered in John's Gospel ... Dr. Sri is just brilliant."

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The first time I stood inside St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, its majesty overwhelmed me. The sheer beauty of Michelangelo's dome seemed to lift my soul right out of my body. Later, I joined the Scavi tour that winds below the basilica, down into the ancient pagan cemetery where Peter was buried. There, in the dim light and narrow passageways, I found myself looking at the bones of a murdered Jewish fisherman, his feet cut off so his crucified body could be taken down more easily.

What a paradox. Above me, the most glorious church ever built. Beneath me, the remains of a backwater fisherman. But this man dared to answer Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" And crowning that immense dome above his tomb are the words from today's Gospel, "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church."

Within you and me is the drama of the lowest and the highest. Every time we confess Christ, humbly, imperfectly, maybe even trembling, we enter that same mystery. The dust of our humanity, touched by the splendor of heaven. God's presence and our dry bones together. Humility and glory. May our lives embrace both the lowest and the highest, like that great basilica, as we profess Jesus.

— Father John Muir
