FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICH

Today we celebrate the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time.
The book of Exodus recounts how the Jews escaped from slavery in Egypt and made a covenant with God at Mount Sinai. While we're familiar with the 10 Commandments as party of this covenant, God also included other laws. Note that many of them deal with how we treat other people.

Some geography may help us appreciate today's second reading. Macedonia was a Roman province in northern Greece in which the city of Thessalonica was located. Achaia was the province in southern Greece to which Paul journeyed after preaching to the Thessalonians. In this, his first letter to the Thessalonians, Paul reports that, on his journey, he learned that their exemplary faith was already known and talked about throughout Greece.

Jesus said, "I pray…so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, and the world may believe that you sent me." (John 17:21-22)

On behalf of the global network of prayer and charity known as the Pontifical Mission Societies, thank you for celebrating World Mission Sunday last week.

Our participation is a living sign of unity and missionary communion. Your prayers and contributions will make a difference in often challenging, poor, conflict-ridden and remote mission areas. Our parish community raised over $4,435.00 to benefit the Pontifical Mission Society for the Propagation of the Faith overseen by Pope Leo XIV. Thank you for your generosity!

Thanks to our parish council members who assisted this past weekend at our Parish Gala ticket sales tables at St. Eugene and Our Lady, Mother of the Church.

Tickets will be available after Masses in the upcoming weeks as well as at the parish office or online through Give Central. Hoping as many as possible will be able to join us for this upcoming celebration on December 5th.

Just a reminder that next Sunday is All Saint's Day. We will be following our regular Sunday schedule of Masses. The next day, Monday, November 2nd, is All Soul's Day. The day when we commemorate all of our faithful departed.

There will be our regular 9:00 a.m. morning Mass but there will be a special Mass at 7:00 p.m. at St. Eugene Church for all those that might wish to remember their deceased loved ones.

This year we will once again have Shrines of Remembrance of our beloved dead in the sanctuary at each of our worship sites.

Please bring pictures of your deceased loved ones and place them on the tables in the gathering spaces this weekend. For all pictures, please place a sticker or tag with your name, address and phone number on the back of each picture. The pictures may be picked up in the gathering space on the weekend of November 21 and 22.

Have a great week everyone!
