St. Eugene Church

CHURCH ETIQUETTE
In order to fully partake in the Mass, the Priest should be the last one in and the first one out.

Dress Appropriately ~ remember, you are in God's house.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICH

As we relax and celebrate the last long weekend of summer, we move toward the faster pace of September. This weekend we reflect upon the importance of labor and the fruits of our labor. Recently, a parishioner passed an e-mail on to me that really makes you think. As we take time off, here is something that makes you think about how we labor in the ways of our faith. It's called, "It's funny how..."

Funny how big an hour serving God looks and how small 60 minutes are when spent playing golf.

Funny how long a couple of hours spent at church are, but how short they are watching a movie.

Funny how big a $10 bill looks when you take it to church. But it is so small when you take it to the mall.

Funny how we get thrilled when a football game goes into overtime, but we complain when a sermon is longer than the regular time.

Funny how laborious it is to read a chapter in the Bible and how easy it is to read a 200 –300-page bestselling novel.

Funny how we believe what newspapers say, but question what the Bible says.

Funny how people scramble to get a front seat at any game, but scramble to get a back seat when they go to church.

Funny how we cannot fit an Adult Ed or Bible study meeting into our schedule with a yearly planner, but we can schedule other events at a moment's notice.

Funny how we need two or three weeks' notice to fit a church event into our schedule but can adjust it for a social event at the last minute.

Funny how we can't think of anything to say when we pray, and don't have any difficulty thinking of things to say to a friend.

Funny how we are so quick to take direction from a total stranger when we are lost but are hesitant to take God's direction to be found.

Funny how people are so consumed with what others think about them rather than what God thinks about them.

Funny how people think they can get more accomplished in a lifetime without God than in an hour with Him.

Funny how everyone wants to go to heaven provided they don't have to believe, or to think, or to say, or to do anything.

Have a great Labor Day weekend everyone!

Fr. Rich Yanos

An Eight-Part Bible Study Featuring Dr. Edward Sri

Following Christ takes more than simply believing in him or doing what he asks of us. Jesus wants you to be more than just a believer—he wants you to be his disciple and friend. Follow Me: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John is a guide to a personal encounter with Christ. Follow Me invites you to experience the joy of a renewed friendship with Christ.

"I was blown away by the insights that were uncovered in John's Gospel ... Dr. Sri is just brilliant."
