FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICH

This weekend we celebrate the Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The book of Sirach was written by a wise teacher who lived 200 years before Christ. Sirach ran a school for young people in Jerusalem. In today's section, he teaches his students the importance of forgiveness.

After dealing with the controversies which divided the early Christian Community in Rome, Paul wrote about the need for tolerance and for sensitivity to the feelings of others. In today's second reading, he points out that this affects our use of the gift of freedom.

On Monday, we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Early in the fourth century St. Helena, mother of the Roman Emperor Constantine, went to Jerusalem in search of the holy places of Christ's life. She razed the second-century Temple of Aphrodite, which tradition held was built over the Savior's tomb, and her son built the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher over the tomb. During the excavation, workers found three crosses. Legend has it that the one on which Jesus died was identified when its touch healed a dying woman.

The cross immediately became an object of veneration. At a Good Friday celebration in Jerusalem toward the end of the fourth century, according to an eyewitness, the wood was taken out of its silver container and placed on a table together with the inscription Pilate ordered placed over Jesus' head: Then "all the people pass through one by one; all of them bow down, touching the cross with the inscription, first with their foreheads, then with their eyes; and, after kissing the cross, they move on." (This is why on Good Friday we venerate the cross in a very similar way).

To this day the Eastern Churches, Catholic and Orthodox alike, celebrate the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on the September anniversary of the basilica's dedication.

Next weekend we will be taking up a second collection to support our seminarians on their journey to the priesthood through the Annual Seminarian Education fund. Your generosity is so much needed and deeply appreciated. The funds that are generated from this important collection will continue to grow the mission of Mundelein Seminary as they strive to form compassionate, well-trained priests for the future of the Church.

Seminarians take a great leap of faith and invest vast amounts of time, talent, and their own treasure to answer God's call to serve his Church. To provide the necessary formation they need, please give generously in next weekend's 2nd collection.

Beyond Mass

Jesus was a marvelous storyteller and in one message He compares our speech, our actions and our attitudes to the fruit from a tree. And He reminds us that "every tree is known by its fruit."

It is important to remember that being a Christian and doing God's work extends beyond the Sunday morning Mass. Everything we do in life reflects our faith and shows to the world our true beliefs.

We should not attempt to "turn off" our religion as we walk out the church doors after Mass. What do our fruits say of each of us?

Do we help our fellow man when we see a need? Do we keep a positive outlook in the face of momentary adversity? Do we look for the face of Jesus in our neighbor and greet that person with a loving heart?

Being a Christian and being a steward isn't always about money. It's about our attitudes, our actions and how we respond to God's many blessings.

By becoming a part of the wonderful Queen of Peace Church family, we have accepted responsibility for our parish and our fellow parishioners.

By partaking of the sacraments, we have accepted the responsibility of discipleship.

The people of Queen of Peace Church have the ability to offer to God the most wonderful and glorious fruits – the fruits tended and sent to us by His very hand.

We have the ability to watch our parish continue to grow in His glory and be abundantly blessed by His grace. But we must do our part. We must live according to His teachings, share a portion of the gifts bestowed upon us and give thanks every day of our lives for all that He has given to us.

And, above all, we must never forget to forever sing His praises!

Have a great week ahead everyone.

ROSARY GUILD

September is the month of Our Lady of Sorrows, and this Tuesday, September 15, is her memorial. Below is a Rosary of the Seven Sorrows.

† Opening Prayer: O Most Blessed Virgin, Queen of Martyrs, you stood generously beneath the cross and felt the sword of sorrow pierce your soul. Look now with a mother's understanding and tenderness, as I kneel before you to commemorate your sorrows, and to present my petition to you with childlike confidence. I beg of you, O Mother, to plead for me with your son, so to touch his Sacred Heart, that I may obtain my request . . . For to who shall I turn in my time of need, if not to you, O Mother of Mercy, who having so deeply drunk the chalice of your Son, can surely tell him of my needs. Amen.

Act of Contrition: O Mother of Sorrows, how ungrateful have I been in the past to my loving God. Now, I repent, humbly asking pardon for the offence done to God in his infinite goodness, and I resolve by the help of his grace to offend him no more. Obtain for me that I may live and die in the love of my Lord and share eternally in that glory which he has won for me through his death and resurrection. Amen.

Our Father and Seven Hail Marys after each Sorrow:
First Sorrow—The Prophecy of Simeon
Second Sorrow—The Flight into Egypt
Third Sorrow—The Loss of Child Jesus in the Temple
Fourth Sorrow—Mary meets Jesus on the Way to Calvary
Fifth Sorrow—Mary stands at the foot of the Cross
Sixth Sorrow—Mary receives the body of Jesus from the Cross
Seventh Sorrow—Jesus is placed in the tomb

Three Hail Marys on the three beads: in honor of the Tears of Our Most Sorrowful Mother

Closing Prayer: O God, you willed that the life of the Blessed Virgin be marked by the mystery of suffering. Grant that we journey with her on the way of faith and unite our sufferings to the passion of Christ so that they become occasions of grace and the promise of future resurrection. We ask this trough Christ our Lord. Amen.

Three times: "Most Sorrowful Mother, pray for us." †
