FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICH

Today we celebrate All Saint's Day.

The Book of Revelation is not intended to make predictions about actual people and events in future times. The author was concerned only about people and events in that time and was given no privileged information about the future. In today's passage, the author encourages people of that time by presenting a vision of God's people enjoying heavenly life.

In our first reading, we heard symbolic images of what heaven will be like. The author of our second reading also talks about what heaven will be like, but without attempting to give us any specific details.

Tomorrow (Monday), November 2nd, is All Souls' Day. The day when we commemorate all our faithful departed. There will be our regular 9:00 a.m. morning Mass but there will be a special Mass at 7:00 p.m. at St. Eugene Church for all those that might wish to remember their deceased loved ones in a special way.

This year we will once again have Shrines of Remembrance of our beloved dead in the sanctuary at each of our worship sites. This Mass is truly a special time for remembering our family members and friends who have passed away either recently or long ago.

A while back I received the annual request from the Priest's Placement Board that goes out to all priests at this time of the year, asking us to let the Board know what our plans are for the future. In other words, are we planning on requesting extensions at our parishes if our time is up? Or are we looking to make a change in assignments, etc. In my case, I'll be turning 70 in August of 2027 (next year). I'm not sure if you are aware or not but priests in the Archdiocese of Chicago can't even think about or even consider retiring until they reach the age of 70. After much thought and prayer, I've decided to take this leap into the unknown. After 44 years of serving the people of God in the parishes I have ministered at, 30 of those years as a pastor, I think it is time. I sometimes wonder where those 44 years have gone because it seems like just yesterday that I began my first assignment. Given the reality of all my health issues, however, I'd like to give retirement a try. This process begins by sending a letter to the Cardinal letting him know that you'd like to retire. Well, I've sent my request to the Cardinal and have received his OK. I'm not sure if I'm doing the right thing but I suppose I'll find out soon enough. Don't get me wrong…I absolutely love being a priest and will more than likely have to continue working to survive in retirement, I just feel it's time to step down from leadership, administration, fundraising, management, 30 years of writing weekly bulletin articles, and the myriad of countless "other responsibilities" etc. that come with shepherding a parish community. I've worked hard all these years and am so proud of all the accomplishments that have been achieved working side-by-side with the parishioners of the parishes I have served at, many of whom have become good friends along the way. For this I am forever grateful.

So, what this all means is that we have eight months left together. After 44 years serving God and His Church, it looks like Queen of Peace will be my last stop on the ministerial train of my life. I anticipate celebrating and enjoying these last months with you all. I'm also looking forward to a combination "Turning 70 and Retirement Celebration" sometime in June before the official transition date of July 1st. Obviously more information will be coming your way as our parish begins this transition process in the months ahead.

****

This is another reason why I am so looking forward to our parish's upcoming December 5th GALA EVENT. In the nine years that I have been pastor here; we have never really had a Parish Event quite like this. Our Parish Pastoral Council is hoping that we can all get together to celebrate who we are as a community of faith, enjoy a delicious meal of filet mignon, chicken and vegetable prepared in a beautiful environment, be entertained by Charles Pansino, a talented Chicago-area crooner and entertainer, who will be our special musical guest for this year's gala, and enjoy some dancing. There will also be a cash bar and some 50/50 Raffles to top off the evening. The ticket price is $125.00 per person, which is really not a lot when you consider it covers the cost of the meal, entertainment and support of our parish all at the same time. Tickets are now on sale after all weekend Masses in the gathering spaces of our churches and at the parish office or online at Give Central that can be accessed via our website or the QR Code found in the parish bulletin. Looking forward to spending an enjoyable evening with you all!

ALL SOULS' DAY

QUEEN OF PEACEMASS OF REMEMBRANCE

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, AT 7:00PM AT ST. EUGENE CHURCH

On All Souls' Day, the Church commemorates and intercedes for those who have died. We invite the entire parish to remember our dearly departed, especially those who have died in the past year. Your loved ones who have been buried from Queen of Peace Parish since last November will have their names inscribed in the Book of the Dead, which will be placed in front of the altar for this Mass. We will honor the dead in a special way at the Queen of Peace Mass of Remembrance this Monday, November 2, at 7pm at St. Eugene Church.

DEACON INQUIRY SESSION

This session is a virtual meeting (via Teams) on Monday, November 9, at 7 p.m. If you have considered the call to be a Deacon of the Catholic Church, please RSVP by calling the Office of the Diaconate at 1-708-366-8900, extension 102. The session includes an overview of the Diaconate, the Formation Program, and application process. Men ages 32-62 are invited, and wives are encouraged to accompany their husbands.

INDULGENCES PRAYER SERVICE - SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2:30 PM AT ST. EUGENE CHURCH

On Saturday, November 14, join the Young Adults Group at 2:30 PM for a meditation in front of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by Confession and Mass. Attend all three to receive a plenary indulgence. As we remember our beloved dead through the month of November, consider obtaining a plenary indulgence for your loved ones.

Plenary indulgences are a powerful way to obtain the remission of punishment. Don't miss the opportunity to help a soul in Purgatory be reunited with God, and gain an intercessor in Heaven. All parishioners are welcome to attend.

Quinn Center of St. Eulalia

FEEDING THE HUNGRY – GROCERIES AND BAGGED SUPPERS

Each month we report on how many bags of groceries our volunteers have prepared for St. Eulalia's Quinn Center Food Pantry and on the number of people who picked up those budget-stretching groceries. Frequently, we also mention that bagged suppers were distributed as well.

There are a number of different groups who provide the "makings" for those bagged suppers. On Tuesday, October 13, over 550 dinners were provided by the Loyola University Medical School's Bioethics Department and by Visitation Parish. There were enough that 35 left over dinners were taken to the homeless folks living under expressway overpasses. That afternoon, 112 bags of groceries were given out to the 139 families who came to the food pantry. (Not everyone asks for the groceries.)

On the previous Sunday, October 11, our faithful group of Queen of Peace volunteers had gathered to assemble 120 bags of groceries. This group is really organized, and they MOVE! Unloading/set up, packing, and clean up took just a little over an hour – actually filling the bags set a record: 120 bags in 20 minutes! And it was definitely more enjoyable than watching Green Bay demolish the Bears.

So, if you have a free hour on Sunday afternoon, November 8, come and join us. We meet at 2:00 pm by Door 4 of the St. Eulalia parking lot. You can see St. Eulalia from the Eisenhower Expressway; the parking lot is on the corner of Bataan Drive and 8th Avenue, just west of 1st Avenue.

If you can't join us physically, you still have a very important role to play in this ministry. Your prayers and financial support (via the blue bi-monthly collection envelope for the Food Pantry) keep us functioning. All those groceries are purchased specifically for this project. You're well aware of the way grocery prices keep rising. With fewer food benefits available and prices rising, the need for help keeps growing. Just like the Good Samaritan, you don't have to know someone to help them.

QUEEN OF PEACE PARISH
GALA FUNDRAISER & BENEFIT DINNER
December 5, 2026

Dear Friends, Families, Business Owners, and Community Partners:

Warm greetings from Queen of Peace Parish!

We invite you to become a valued sponsor or advertiser for the Queen of Peace Parish Gala on December 5, 2026, an evening dedicated to celebrating our faith, strengthening our parish community, and supporting our church's mission and ministries.

As a parish, Queen of Peace is committed to being a welcoming community rooted in faith, service, and love. Through our ministries and programs, we strive to nurture families, support our youth and seniors, provide opportunities for spiritual growth, and reach out to those in need. Your generous support will help us continue this important mission and ensure that our parish remains a vibrant home for generations to come.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

For businesses, this is more than an advertising opportunity. It is a chance to connect your name with a meaningful cause and demonstrate your commitment to the community you serve. Your business will receive recognition in our Gala Program, allowing you to reach parishioners, families, friends, and community members while supporting a mission that makes a lasting difference.

We invite you to put your business in the spotlight while helping Queen of Peace Parish continue its mission of faith, service, and community. Every advertisement, regardless of size, makes a meaningful contribution to our Gala's success and the ministries we support.

Whether you choose a full-page advertisement, half-page advertisement, or a simple line of support, your contribution helps make our Gala a success and directly supports the mission of Queen of Peace Parish.

We sincerely hope you will consider supporting the Queen of Peace Parish Gala through advertisement, sponsorship, or donation. Your generosity is more than a contribution—it is an investment in our parish, our ministries, and the people we serve.

Thank you for your consideration and for investing in our community. May God bless you and your continued generosity.

With gratitude and prayers,

Fr. Richard Yanos
Pastor
Queen of Peace Parish

But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him.
