District 8 - District Deputy Message

Brian Rodgers

Brother Knights,

We are now on a journey with Holy Week our final destination. Lent is a time of prayer and penance, of preparation and sacrifice.

As Knights we have the fish fry's, we have our breakfasts, we have our rosary services, our Stations of the Cross, any number of events that can help prepare us for the Triduum but prayer is the key. Adding more prayer into our lives allows us to listen to God and His plan for us.

A few upcoming events...

Friday, March 6th is the 4th degree's fish fry up at the club, come enjoy a great meal to help benefit the assembly's work in the Church.

Sunday, March 8th is our regional free throw contest at Bishop Ryan starting at 5:00 pm. The competitors are set but I am looking for workers to run the contest. If you are able, crew call is 4:40.

Not only is Easter coming up but April also brings us our state convention. Councils if you have not already done so start the process of filling your delegates.

I pray that you and your families have a wonderful Lenten season.

God Bless,
Brian Rodgers

Little Flower Council 9839

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

By the time this is printed we will be in the Season of Lent. It is a perfect time for us to solemnly reflect on the incredible Act of Love laid on the Cross and to bear witness to it by our own Sacrificial acts done for the Greater Glory of Gods holy Church.

We are truly a people of the Cross, proven and clearly seen as we sign ourselves before our meals and as we enter the Sacred space, we call our Church. I love how Bishop Robert Barren puts it, he says as we enter the Church, we in essence "Brand ourselves" we declare that we are Jesus Christ's children, undoubtedly his sons and daughters. Please Pray, Fast and give Alms on this beautiful journey.

We had a great turnout for our February breakfast, thanks to all who came out to support us. I am grateful for our Brothers of 9839 that give of themselves to serve you in such a humble and joy filled manner. Our next breakfast is March 8th and we will be supporting the Special Olympics.

We have some Knights that are also part of our Parish's activities committee. They hosted "Soups Around the World" event, they had a tremendous turnout, food was delicious, and we had wonderful fellowship, this event has gotten bigger and bigger each year, considering coming next year and get ready to sample 15 different soups!

9839 is hosting Adoration on Fridays, starting March 6th and ending April 3rd, the times will be from Noon to 6pm, please join us in spending time with the King of Peace!

Our Family of the month is Bob and Brenda Artz Family

Our Knight of the month is Paul Sander

Our server of the month is Kirstin Brunner

Thanks to all of you who Serve Christ in his Church.

Peace
Deacon tom

Sir Knights,

Welcome to this Easter Season. In February our Color Corps was asked to present The Colors at South Prairie School. Sir Knight Bob Richter led our Assembly Color Corps in presenting The Colors and demonstrating the watchword of our Degree, Patriotism. The Assembly was honored to receive a thank you card from the school. Personally, I wish to thank Sir Knight Bob and all the members of the Assembly Color Corps for all they do.

Please remember the Fourth Degree Fish Fry at the Columbian Club on March 6th at 5:30pm. Your assistance is essential to make this a success.

As we continue through this Easter Season remember that old bumper sticker: WWJD?. What Would Jesus Do? As you go about doing your business think about that bumper sticker. Ask yourself, WWJD? Have a caring and forgiving Easter Season.

Vivat Jesus,
Dan Heald

St. John the Apostle Council 1150

Brother Knights,

Welcome to this Lenten season. This is a wonderful time of year. As we enter Lent we know several things; warmer weather is here, Spring will soon bloom in all of its glory, and the Jesus Christ has died for our sins.

Last Sunday Fr. Richter gave St. John's a homily on forgiveness. How appropriate as we are preparing for Lent to hear readings about forgiveness. I pray that we take those readings and Father's homily to heart. Think about the grudges we keep that hold us back and weigh heavy on us. Jesus died for our sins and still continues to forgive us. Use this Lenten season to be more like Jesus and forgive others as well as ourselves. Shed the burden of the grudges we carry so that we can be more like Jesus by sharing that happiness and faith with others.

It is time to mark your calendars.

- Friday March 6 starting at 5:30pm the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus will be serving a fish fry at the Columbian Club.

- Sunday March 15 we will have our last pancake breakfast for this season. The breakfast will go towards the Council 1150 partial scholarship for a St. John's member to go to Bishop Ryan School. All are welcome to join in the fellowship and excellent food.

- Knights leading the Rosary will continue on March 18 at 6:00pm. Everyone is always welcome.

Have a blessed Lenten season. Remember to: Forgive and Forget! It will leave you with a lighter burden to bear.

Viviat Jesus,

Dan Heald
Council 1150 Grand Knight.

St. Leo the Great Council 9906

Brother Knights

What a wonderful time of the year. Lent for me is my favorite season in the church year. The grace you receive from the extra daily Masses, Stations of the Cross, reading the bible, and reconciliation are what make it so special.

There are study programs at the different parishes to take part in during Lent

Fellowship has started after the 8:00 and 9:30 mass in the basement. Come join us for a cup of coffee. Our first breakfast in the church basement will be March 22nd. We will be calling for help soon. Please come and join us.

Our next meeting will be March 19th in the church basement. Gather for Rosary at 6:30 and meeting at 7:00. Please bring items for the food pantry.

May you have a blessed, grace filled Lenten season

God Bless

Kevin Sebastian

Our Lady of Grace Council 4894

Brother Knights

As we begin this Lenten journey, I thought that I would share some of the resources that our family uses to guide us on this journey.

Daily mass. The four Minot parishes offer a varied schedule of mass times that is sure to fit into your daily routine.

Daily emails.

- Best Lent Ever by dynamic-catholic.com
- Lenten Reflections by formed.org
- Your Morning Offering by catholiccompany.com

uscbb.org website has the daily readings and a video reflection for the day.

The Word Among Us in print form or an app for your electronic device has daily reflections and inspirational articles.

I God Today is an app that has daily video reflections.

As you can see there are many tools at our disposal to make our Lenten journey more meaningful.

February Honors,

- Family of the Month
Randall & Michelle Mathura
- Servers of the Month
Sabryan & Sienna Ronning
- Knight of the Month
Jeff Schmidt

Our annual Roast Beef Dinner raised $1,600 that was donated to Bishop Ryan High School to help with transportation costs to attend the March for Life in Washington DC.

Have a blessed Lent

Respectfully
David Lebrun
Grand Knight 4894
