

Professional Bio:

James Patrick “Pat” Englade

Pat was a 32 year veteran of the Baton Rouge Police Department where he retired as Police Chief.

Throughout his career he held many positions with the Baton Rouge Police Department. They include: Chief of Detectives, Chief of Staff, Internal Affairs, Forgery, Armed Robbery, Community Services, Chief of Security, SWAT and Sniper Team & Uniform Patrol.

Currently, he serves as Executive Director of the Louisiana State Board of Private Investigators as well as being President of the Capital Area Law Enforcement Foundation.

(CALEF) which is a non-profit 501C3 that provides protective equipment to area law enforcement agencies in a 7-parish area. The Foundation also assists the families of law enforcement agencies in times of need/crisis. Donations and fundraisers assist CALEF in the purchase of this equipment.

He has received numerous awards & recognitions such as:

Awards & Recognitions:

- Redemptorist High School Hall of Fame (2003)
- Knights of Columbus Council 2807 (Officer of the Year – 2003)
- Recognized by FBI Director, Robert Muehler, for exceptional service in the public interest - 2003
- Sunrise Rotary (Volunteer of the Year – 1999)
- St. Patrick Knights of Columbus (Officer of the Year – 1998)
- Recognized by U.S. Secret Service, Outstanding Service
- Recognized by Louisiana State Police, Outstanding Service

Pat is married and has two sons, 5 grandchildren & 1 great grandchild.
