DRAGON FESTIVAL A SUCCESS!

DRAGON FESTIVAL

On October 19th, KAPS had its very first Dragon Festival. People from the community came to the school and were able to enjoy food, vendors, and music from bands, including Rebel Flesh, The Jake Levinson Band, and our very own KAPS Rock Band. The Rock Band was the last to play, showing off songs they have been practicing hard on and ending Dragon Festival with people wanting to hear more. KAPS and the Rock Band would like to extend their

- special thanks to Jake Levinson, who performed with the Rock Band. The vendors were also a big part of Dragon Festival, their contributions bringing in nearly $4,000 to go to the school. Overall, Dragon Festival was a huge success, and we couldn't have done it without everyone who participated. We extend our gratitude to the community members who showed up, and we hope to see everyone again next year, along with some new faces.

MR BEAST BETRAYS MR GRAHAM

The silence has been broken on one of the most controversial and problematic figures in the community. Mr. Graham has been found to be texting Mr. Beast, a well known YouTuber who is known to have many controversies, including the famous "I Fed My Friend Mr. Graham 100 Lunchly's" Video that got Mr. Beast investigated by the FBI. Shortly after this, Jimmelby Donovan Beast was promptly arrested and charged with 5 counts of People Explosion. Upon thorough investigation, our reporters found that he was trained by a sect of ancient underground monks, who taught him in the olden ways of People Explosion. The sect of ancient monks were charged with 347 counts of tax fraud, especially because they did not ask Miss J. Mr. Beast stood trial on 10/21/24 and was found not-guilty, because the court system is freaking bogus man. Just a total Sham-wow Kangaroo court of capitalism mongering boomers. Anyway, Mr. Graham has been asked to make comment and has this to say; "I'm so full... oof... augh- who did this to me? I am too full and have amnesia... augh and oof..." After making friends with each-other tending Queen Elizabeth's Garden, the two have recently parted ways. Meaning no donation for us :(

SHORT STORY

“A fowl relationship”

“Jeffrey watched as the sun dipped lower and lower in the sky, orange and yellow hues blending together. It reminded him of eating sunflower seeds as a child with his mother.

Jeffrey would avenge his mother soon. Eventually, Jeffrey began a determined stride through the woods. He was going to destroy that bird brain, Cornelius, that killed his mother. Cornelius really ruffled his feathers.

Jeffrey rapidly approached Cornelius, drawing his sword from betwixt his feathers.

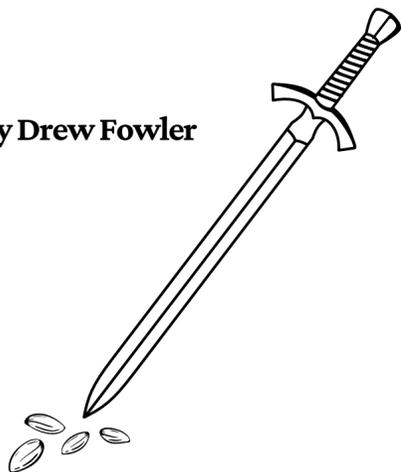

“Gobble! Gobble gobble gobble. GOBBLE!

Gob, gob, gobble GOB. Gobble gobble.”

Jeffrey was enraged. Cornelius awkwardly scratched his wattle, clearing his throat.

“Gobble, Gobble... gobble gob gobble. Gob gob.” Jeffrey dropped his sword at Cornelius’ heartfelt words. Jeffrey slowly waddled over to Cornelius, where they shared a peck.”

That I did always love

I bring thee Proof

That till I loved

I never lived—Enough—

That I shall love always—

I argue thee

That love is life—

And life hath Immortality—

This—dost thou doubt—Sweet

Then have I

Nothing to show

But Calvary—

VOLLEYBALL TEAM MAKES KAPS HISTORY

For the first time in KAPS history, our Dragons of Volleyball got to the regional level of championship. With a total of 5 wins and 5 losses, the team had one of the strongest seasons this decade. Several great plays were executed perfectly and team communication was at an all time high, giving our team an advantage, letting them win the majority of their matches. The team gave everything they had, and showed what the dragons were capable of. Special shout out and thanks to their amazing Coach Ian and also to Mercedes for specialty training, it was thanks to their coaching skills, and the fiery determination it takes to win, that our Dragons made it the furthest they ever have! Yet!
