A Note from Pastor Joy

In our first staff meeting of the year, I shared a devotional with the staff from Tim Keller's daily devotional God's Wisdom for Navigating Life. Most of the daily readings are meditations on Proverbs with a few selections out of other parts of the Bible's wisdom literature. As we begin a new year, wisdom is surely something that we can all use and foolishness is something that we want to avoid. The days ahead will be filled with new opportunities, choices to make, relationships to navigate, and questions to answer. Our devotion reminded us that "the ultimate foolishness is to make anything the center of our lives besides God. That will always lead to disappointment and breakdown." The other word for this "ultimate foolishness" is idolatry.

The beginning of a new year is a good time to ask God to search our hearts and reveal if other things have crowded God out of the center of our lives. It is a good time to let go of idols and reset our focus on what - and who - is most important. The wisdom that we need and seek for all the questions and decisions that we'll face in the new year will flow freely into our lives if God remains at the center. As we begin this year together, let's commit again to keeping God at the center – of our lives, our decisions, and our shared ministry - trusting that God will equip us with the wisdom that bears good fruit in our lives and for God's kingdom.

A note from our Church Directory committee:

The final pieces of information for the photo directory were submitted to Universal Church Directory last month. We expect to receive a proof later this month, with the printed directories arriving sometime in the first quarter of 2026. Other than the directories themselves, all remaining items — including your free photo from the sitting and any purchased items (physical or electronic) — should have been received by now.

If you are still waiting for anything other than the directory, please notify Lisa Wetzel at lisamwetzel@yahoo.com or (904) 303-4228. If you purchased items that have not arrived, please include the information from the pink slip you were given, along with any details about the missing items.

A Note from CARE Member Ministry

The Member CARE ministry sends birthday, sympathy, and get-well cards to our members. If you'd like to donate cards, please place them in the woven organizer located in the session room (front of the sanctuary, left of the altar). This ministry has long been supported by the generosity and thoughtfulness of our members, for which we are deeply grateful.
