Beth Mixson from Family Promise will be preaching on Sunday, August 24th. As their new Executive Director, having previously served in that role on an interim basis, Beth will share with us the success stories and the urgent needs for families experiencing homelessness in Jacksonville. Family Promise exists to bridge the gap for many families who need a stable, healthy transition from unhoused to a safe home.

The SERVE Ministry is providing meals for a Family Promise Transitional Home from Sunday, August 31st to Saturday, September 6th. If you would like to contribute meal kits or donations to help, please contact Vickie Robinson at 904.382.8696 or email robinson.vickie@gmail.com. The meals need to be adequate for at least 10-15 people and need to be re-heatable/microwaveable.

A box will be in the kitchen for non-perishable food goods on the counter next to the refrigerator. A box in the refrigerator will be for perishable goods. Donations work too! $75 feeds families for a few days. Vickie will do the shopping and meal prep for those who donate funds. Delivery can be at LPC office before 3 pm, Monday through Thursday, and before 1 pm on Fridays.
