A Note from Pastor Joy

Dear Lakewood Family,

This week I am back in the office after three months away, and I find myself saying the same thing I said after my last trip this summer: It is good to be home! I am so happy to be back with the church family I love, and I am grateful to begin this new post-sabbatical season as your pastor. I know many of you are interested in hearing about my time away, and I look forward to sharing some of what I experienced. An email with a sabbatical report will be coming soon for those who would like to read more. You are also invited to join us for Spanish paella at Wednesday night dinner on October 4, when I'll share pictures and stories from my experience walking the Camino de Santiago. And over the next four Sundays, I'll be sharing more of the Camino experience through a sermon series called Pilgrims Walking. I hope there will also be plenty of opportunities for more informal sharing as I have the chance to connect and reconnect with you in the days and weeks ahead. I have received grace in many ways during my time away, and I pray that the fruit of that grace will be evident in me and in my ministry among you. At the same time, I can see that God has been pouring out grace upon all of you. I see it in the fruit of your ministry, and I hear it in the stories of the ways you have continued to serve faithfully and care for one another while I was away. I am deeply grateful for the gift of this sabbatical—the time, the rest, the adventures, the beauty, and all that you made possible. And I am especially thankful that, after walking separate paths for these past few months, our paths have now come together again. It is good to be home. It is good to be together. And I look forward to walking with you again as, step by step, we follow the path on which Jesus is leading us.

In Christ's love,
Pastor Joy
