Dear LPC Family,

We have had a great week at Family Promise. As always you are beyond generous in your giving! Any monies left from our meals will go to Family Promise to be used for new families arriving. In the most recent FP newsletter Lakewood was mentioned several times. With our help Family Promise was able to stuff 100 backpacks for children of all ages. Thanks to all for supporting Family Promise with tickets to "Come From Away". All tickets have been sold. Beth Mixson so enjoyed her time at LPC preaching - and was so impressed with how cohesive our messaging was - what a wonderful job our worship team does! We are blessed in so many ways. Thank you again to the Cooks and the Givers.

Vickie & James Robinson, SERVE Ministry

A Note from Pastor Joy

Dear Lakewood Family,

Labor Day has passed us, and there is starting to be just a hint of fall in the air. It may be just a hint, but it is a welcome hint for those who are eager to leave the sweltering days of July behind us. Along with the early hints of fall, this Sunday at church there will be another hint of things to come. That hint will be in the program offered by Attorney Mike Ivin at our first after church luncheon of the school year. Mike specializes in Estate and Tax Planning and Wealth Preservation, and this program will be the "soft launch" of stewardship season. Every year we are asked to think about how and what we can give to support the work that God is doing through LPC, and this year we are including this chance to consider how we might be a blessing to future generations through legacy giving. This program will provide practical guidance to help us with this kind of thinking and planning.

Of course, financial planning and giving is only one aspect of stewardship, but it is an important aspect of it. It is the generosity of our membership throughout the years that God has used to establish and sustain the wonderful ministry of LPC that has touched the lives of so many people. Through your giving and the giving of those before us bellies have been fed, children have been clothed, widows have been comforted, the lonely have found friendship, the broken have been restored, songs of praise have been lifted up, faith has been nurtured, and lives have been formed and transformed by Christ. All of this has happened in the past, it is happening now, and when we pledge to give, we say with our commitment that we want it to keep happening in the future.

Those are the reasons we talk about money during stewardship season, but as we will hear in our stewardship sermons this fall, stewardship is more than money. As the resources for this year’s campaign say, it is a lifestyle based on a relationship with Christ. Through our relationship with Christ, we grow to understand what truly matters most, and Jesus teaches us how to spend our lives investing in those things - not because we have to but because we find joy in doing so.

I am so grateful for the extraordinary generosity that this congregation shows year after year and day after day. It is evidence of your love for Christ and others and evidence of your dedicated discipleship. I look forward to reflecting on these things with you in the coming weeks, and I’m already celebrating the ministry that your giving will make possible in 2026 and beyond!

In Christ’s love,

Pastor Joy
