Once again our Congregation comes through— feeding the families at Family Promise with great LOVE! We had 3 families cook meals - we had folks that helped with shopping and we had folks that donated $$$'s for all the other meals.

We collected close to $2,000.00 and we spent just under a $1,000.00. For basic supplies— milk orange juice—etc. frozen breakfast foods, and then when we didn't have someone cooking dinner. We had to find meals at a variety of places. Pizza, Publix, Bono's. One night we did a Big Breakfast from Cracker Barrel and heard that was a big hit.

You may ask— what happens to the other $1,000.00 we collected? It goes to Family Promise, to their Volunteer Coordinator Host Fund, for churches who don't have enough cooks or enough money to feed the families for a full week. This money is there to give Beth and her staff the ability to feed the families and keep basic supplies available. So our money continues to help other families in months to come.

Thank you all!

James and Vickie Robinson
