THE STORY OF THE MARTYRDOM OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

The drunken oath of a king with a shallow sense of honor, a seductive dance and the hateful heart of a queen combined to bring about the martyrdom of John the Baptist. The greatest of prophets suffered the fate of so many Old Testament prophets before him: rejection and martyrdom. The “voice crying in the desert” did not hesitate to accuse the guilty, did not hesitate to speak the truth. But why? What possesses a man that he would give up his very life?

This great religious reformer was sent by God to prepare the people for the Messiah. His vocation was one of selfless giving. The only power that he claimed was the Spirit of Yahweh. “I am baptizing you with water, for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire” (Matthew 3:11).

Scripture tells us that many people followed Saint John the Baptist looking to him for hope, perhaps in anticipation of some great messianic power. John never allowed himself the false honor of receiving these people for his own glory. He knew his calling was one of preparation. When the time came, he led his disciples to Jesus: “The next day John was there again with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, ‘Behold, the Lamb of God.’ The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus” (John 1:35-37).

It is John the Baptist who has pointed the way to Christ. John's life and death were a giving over of self for God and other people. His simple style of life was one of complete detachment from earthly possessions. His heart was centered on God and the call that he heard from the Spirit of God speaking to his heart. Confident of God's grace, he had the courage to speak words of condemnation, repentance, and salvation.

MARTIRIO DE SAN JUAN BAUTISTA

La memoria litúrgica del martirio de San Juan Bautista completa la solemnidad de su natividad, que se celebra el 24 de junio. Juan es primo de Jesús, concebido tardíamente por Isabel de su esposo Zacarías; ambos eran descendientes de familias sacerdotales. Su nacimiento se sitúa unos seis meses antes del de Cristo, según el episodio evangélico de la Visitación de María a Isabel.

La fecha de su muerte se coloca entre el 31 y el 32 d.C.

La memoria de hoy tiene orígenes antiguos: se remonta a la dedicación de una cripta en Sebaste (Samaría), donde ya a mediados del siglo IV se veneraba la cabeza del Bautista; en el s. XII, el papa Inocencio II hizo trasladar la reliquia a la iglesia de San Silvestre in Capite de Roma.

La celebración del martirio de San Juan ya estaba presente en Francia en el s. V, y en Roma en el siglo siguiente.

“BEHOLD, THE LAMB OF GOD
WHO TAKES AWAY THE SIN OF THE WORLD.”
