15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight." - Lk 10:30b-31, 33

"Un hombre que bajaba por el camino de Jerusalén a Jericó, cayó en manos de unos ladrones, los cuales lo robaron, lo hirieron y lo dejaron medio muerto. Sucedió que por el mismo camino bajaba un sacerdote, el cual lo vio y pasó de largo. Pero un samaritano que iba de viaje, al verlo, se compadeció de él." - Lc 10, 30-31. 33

12 keys to using the brown scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel — By: Catholic News Agency

On the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, July 16, here are 12 keys to explaining the brown scapular and its use:

- 1. It is not an amulet. The scapular is not a charm or an automatic guarantee of salvation, nor is it a dispensation from living the demands of the Christian life.
- 2. It was an article of clothing. The word “scapular” comes from the Latin “scapulae,” which means “shoulders” and was originally an overlapping article of clothing worn over the shoulders by monks at work. The Carmelites adopted it as a sign of special dedication to Our Lady, seeking to imitate her dedication to Christ and neighbor.
- 3. It is a gift from the Virgin Mary. According to tradition, the scapular, as it is now known, was given by the Virgin Mary herself to St. Simon Stock on July 16, 1251.
- 4. It is a mini habit. The scapular is like a miniature Carmelite habit that all devotees can wear as a sign of their consecration to the Virgin Mary.
- 5. It is a service uniform. St. Alphonsus Liguori, a doctor of the Church, said: “Just as men are proud that others wear their uniform, so Our Lady, Mother Mary, is pleased when her servants wear their scapular as proof that they have dedicated themselves to her service, and they are members of the family of the Mother of God.”
- 6. It has three meanings. The scapular stands for the maternal love and protection of Mary, for belonging to Mary, and for the gentle yoke of Christ that she helps us to bear.
- 7. It is a sacramental. The brown scapular is recognized by the Church as a sacramental — that is, a sign that helps us to live a holy life and to increase our devotion.
- 8. It can be given to a non-Catholic. A dying man was reportedly brought to St. Simon Stock Hospital in New York City. A nurse noticed he was wearing the brown scapular and called a priest. As prayers were said over him, the man regained consciousness and told the priest that he wasn’t Catholic but wore the scapular as a promise to his friends. The priest asked the man if he wanted to become Catholic, and before he died the man received baptism and anointing of the sick.
- 9. It was seen in one of the Fatima apparitions. Lucia, the visionary of Our Lady of Fatima, reported that in her last apparition (October 1917), Mary appeared with the Carmelite habit, the scapular in her hand, and said that her true children wear it with reverence.
- 10. The scapular has been discovered undamaged after burial. Blessed Pope Gregory X was buried with his scapular and, 600 years later when his tomb was opened, the object was intact.
- 11. There’s a preferred way to receive the scapular. The imposition of the scapular should preferably be done in community, and in the ceremony the spiritual meaning and commitment to the Blessed Virgin should be clearly expressed. The first scapular must be blessed by a priest and placed on the devotee while reciting the following prayer:
- 12. Only the first scapular you receive needs to be blessed. When the first scapular one receives is blessed, the devotee does not need to ask subsequent scapulars to be blessed. Those that are worn out, if they were blessed, should not be thrown away but should be burned or buried, as is suitable for sacramentals

Fiesta de Nuestra Señora del Carmen

Esta fiesta fue instituida por los Carmelitas entre 1376 y 1386 bajo el título de “Commemoratio B. Marif Virg. La fiesta fue ubicada el 16 de julio, ya que en aquella fecha en 1251, de acuerdo a las tradiciones carmelitas, San Simón Stock recibió el escapulario de manos de la Santísima Virgen María. Fue aprobada por Sixto V en 1587. Algunos monasterios carmelitas mantienen la fiesta el domingo después del 16 de julio o algún otro domingo de julio, privilegio concedido por Clemente X en 1672.

Oración final para todos los días

Virgen santísima del Carmen; yo deseo que todos sin excepción se cobijen bajo la sombra protectora de tu santo Escapulario, que todos estén unidos a Ti, Madre mía, por los estrechos y amorosos lazos de esta tu querida Insignia. ¡Oh hermosura del Carmelo! Míranos postrados reverentes ante tu sagrada imagen, y concédenos benigna tu amorosa protección. Te recomiendo las necesidades de nuestro Santísimo Padre, el Papa, y las de la Iglesia Católica, nuestra Madre, así como las de mi nación y las de todo el mundo, las mías propias y las de mis parientes y amigos. Mira con ojos de compasión a tantos pobres pecadores, herejes y cismáticos como ofenden a tu divino Hijo, y a tantos infieles como gimen en las tinieblas del paganismo. Que todos se conviertan y te amen, Madre mía, como yo deseo amarte ahora y por toda la eternidad. Así sea.
