MASS ATTIRE

As the temperatures become warmer, there is the temptation to attend Mass "as you are." Please remember that we are coming to meet our Lord. Tuxedos and ball gowns are not necessary, but it's always good to look nice.

ATUENDO PARA LA MISA

A medida que las temperaturas suben, surge la tentación de asistir a Misa "asi como andamos". Recuerda que venimos a encontrarnos con El Señor. No es necesario llevar esmoquin ni vestido de gala, pero siempre es bueno lucir bien.

What Is the Feast of Corpus Christi?

The Feast of Corpus Christi, also known as the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, is a Catholic celebration of the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist—and thus a sacred reminder that, in every Mass, Jesus' one sacrifice of Calvary is sacramentally made present and offered anew for “the forgiveness of the sins we daily commit” (CCC 1366).

While Holy Thursday recalls Christ's institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper, Corpus Christi gives Catholics a joyful opportunity to honor our Eucharistic Lord Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. This includes public devotion apart from Mass.

¿Qué es la fiesta del Corpus Christi?

La fiesta del Corpus Christi, también conocida como la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo, es una celebración católica de la presencia real de Jesucristo en la Eucaristía y, por lo tanto, un recordatorio sagrado de que, en cada Masa, Jesús' one El sacrificio del Calvario se hace sacramentalmente presente y se ofrece de nuevo para “el perdón de los pecados que cometemos diariamente” (CEC 1366).

Mientras que el Jueves Santo recuerda la institución de la Eucaristía por parte de Cristo en la Última Cena, el Corpus Christi brinda a los católicos una alegre oportunidad de honrar a nuestro Señor Jesús Eucarístico en el Santísimo Sacramento. Esto incluye la devoción pública fuera de la misa.

The Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

This suggests to us that the Eucharist (Corpus Christi) is none other than the Heart of Jesus himself, of the One who “takes care of us” with his “heart”. Margaret Mary had entered the French convent in Saône-et-Loire in 1671. She already had the reputation of being a mystic when on 27 December 1673 she received the first vision of Jesus who invited her to take John’s place, the only apostle who physically rested his head on Jesus’s chest, among those present at the Last Supper. “My Divine Heart is so passionately in love with humanity that it can no longer contain within itself the flames of its ardent love. It must pour them out. I have chosen you for this great plan,” Jesus told her. The following year,

Margaret had two other visions. In the first, Jesus’s heart was on a throne enveloped in flames brighter than the sun and more transparent than crystal, surrounded by a crown of thorns. In the other, she saw Christ shining in glory. Flames of fire were coming out of every part of his chest to the point that it looked like a furnace. Jesus spoke to her and asked her to receive Communion every first Friday for nine consecutive months and to prostrate herself on the ground for an hour the night between Thursday and Friday. This is how the practice of the nine first Fridays originated and the Holy Hour of Adoration. Pope Pius IX made it an obligatory feast throughout the universal Church in 1856. In 1995, Saint John Paul II instituted the World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests on this same day so that the priesthood might be protected in the hands of Jesus, rather in his heart, so it could be open to everyone.

¿Qué es la Solemnidad del Sacratísimo Corazón de Jesús?

Esta es una fiesta movable que honra al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. En 1675, Jesús le dijo a Santa Margarita María que quería que la Fiesta del Sagrado Corazón se celebrara el viernes después de la octava del Corpus Christi. En 1856, la Fiesta del Sagrado Corazón se convirtió en fiesta universal. San Juan Pablo II, gran devoto del Sagrado Corazón, dijo: "Esta fiesta nos recuerda el misterio del amor de Dios por el pueblo de todos los tiempos".

En 2025, celebramos la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús el 27 de junio.

St. Francis of Sales on Holy Communion

“Our Blessed Lord has instituted the most holy Sacrament of the Eucharist, wherein is His Flesh and His Blood, that whosoever eats thereof may have eternal life. If men of the world ask why you communicate so often, tell them that it is in order that you may learn to love God, that you may be purified from your imperfections, delivered from your perplexities, comforted in your sorrows, strengthened in your weakness. Tell them that there are two classes of men who need frequent Communion – those who are perfect, since surely they above all men should draw near to the Source and Fountain of all perfection, and the imperfect, in order that they may learn to be perfect; the strong that they may not lose strength, the weak that they may become strong; the sick in order to be healed, the healthy that they may not be sick; and that you who are imperfect, weak, and diseased need constant intercourse with your Perfection, your Strength, and your Physician. Tell them that those who are not encumbered with wordly business should take advantage of their leisure, and communicate frequently; and those who, on the contrary, are pressed and harassed require it the more, for he who labors long and hard needs solid and abundant food. Tell them that you receive the Blessed Sacrament that you may learn to receive it rightly, for what we do but seldom we do ill. Therefore communicate as often as you have permission, and remember that as the hares amidst our snowy mountains grow white from living in the snow, so by perpetually worshipping and adoring beauty, goodness, and purity in this Divine Sacrament, you too will become beautiful, good, and pure.”

San Francisco de Sales sobre la Sagrada Comunión

San Francisco de Sales, en su Introducción a la vida devota nos habla de la comunión frecuente: «Si les preguntan por qué comulgan tan a menudo, respondan que es para aprender a amar a Dios, para limpiarse de las propias imperfecciones, librarse de sus miserias y consolarse en sus quebrantos. Dos clases de gente necesitan comulgar a menudo: los perfectos, porque no deben alejarse de Aquel que es fuente y manantial de su perfección, y los imperfectos, para que puedan aspirar a la perfección; los fuertes para no debilitarse y los débiles para fortalecerse; los enfermos para sanar y los sanos para no enfermar... Y en cuanto a ti, imperfecto, débil y enfermo, debes comulgar frecuentemente para recibir a Aquél que es tu perfección, tu fuerza y tu médico. Los que tienen poco trabajo necesitan comulgar frecuentemente porque les sobra tiempo y la ociosidad es peligrosa para el espíritu, y los que están muy atareados, por la necesidad de alimento que requiere un arduo trabajo. Digan a los que les pregunten que comulgan a menudo para aprender a hacerlo bien, porque es imposible hacer algo bien si no se practica con mucha frecuencia.

Comulguen a menudo, lo más a menudo que puedan. Creedme, si las liebres en las montañas se vuelven blancas en invierno de tanto ver la nieve, así ustedes también, de adorar y comer la misma hermosura, bondad y pureza en este divino Sacramento, llegarán a ser hermosura, bondad y pureza.»
