Eternity is before us,' nun says to Pope Leo XIV in jubilee speech

Sister Maria Gloria Riva of the Nuns of Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The 66-year-old nun, part of a cloistered, contemplative monastery in the small state of San Marino in Italy, was the invited speaker for the Jubilee of the Holy See, part of the Catholic Church's wider 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope.

"Eternity is before us. If we work for short-term and mediocre horizons, we work in vain," Riva said in her June 9 meditation to Pope Leo XIV, cardinals, bishops, and other employees of the Vatican and Roman Curia. Riva's talk was followed by a procession through the Holy Door, led by Pope Leo, who carried the jubilee cross like an ordinary pilgrim from the Vatican's Paul VI Hall to St. Peter's Basilica, where he then celebrated Mass for the feast of Mary, Mother of the Church.

Reflecting on the liturgical feast day of Mary, Mother of the Church, the pope connected the fruitfulness of the Church and the fruitfulness of Mary, which, he said, "is realized in the lives of her members to the extent that they relive, 'in miniature,' what the Mother lived, namely, they love according to the love of Jesus."

The fruitfulness of the Church is also linked to the grace of the pierced heart of Jesus and the sacraments, he added. According to Leo, Mary, as the living memory of Jesus, also ensures the unity of the disciples' prayer in the upper room at Pentecost. In the account of Pentecost in the Acts of the Apostles, "the apostles are listed by name and, as always, Peter is the first," the pope pointed out. "But he himself, in truth, is the first to be supported by Mary in his ministry."

"In the same way, Mother Church supports the ministry of Peter's successors with the Marian charism. The Holy See experiences in a very special way the coexistence of the two poles; the Marian and the Petrine. It is precisely the Marian pole, with its motherhood, gift of Christ and of the Spirit, that ensures the fruitfulness and holiness of the Petrine pole," he said.

"We, dear brothers and sisters, know where we must run: The race of John and Peter towards the tomb of Christ is the only race that the Church and the world can run without fear. It is the race of those who know that hope lies in true life, eternal life."

The meaning of a jubilee, she continued, is to help us think about the last things, the brevity of existence, and the meaning of our lives. The nun, who founded her monastic community, which educates Catholics about Eucharistic adoration and "the passion for the beauty that saves," recalled an oft-repeated line from the Russian author Dostoevsky that "beauty will save the world."

“La mirada al Santísimo puede curarnos del mal”, afirma religiosa ante León XIV

En el marco del Jubileo de la Santa Sede, celebrado este lunes 9 de junio, Sor María Gloria Riva, religiosa de la comunidad monástica de las Adoratrices Perpetuas del Santísimo Sacramento. “La eternidad está ante nosotros, ante los creyentes y los no creyentes, ante toda la humanidad”.

“Todos tenemos el deber de interrogarnos sobre el sentido de nuestra vida”

La religiosa italiana también afirmó ante los miembros de la Santa Sede que si “trabajamos por horizontes cortos y mediocres, trabajamos en vano”, y aseguró que “es necesario trabajar por el gran horizonte de la vida que no muere: vivir preguntándose a cada instante si lo que estamos haciendo nos conecta sólidamente con aquella verdad que es caridad y es eternidad”. Todos nosotros hemos sido tocados por la brevedad de la existencia y todos tenemos el deber de interrogarnos sobre el sentido de nuestra vida”, señaló.

La mirada al Santísimo, una cura del mal. Asimismo, afirmó que la mirada al Santísimo “puede curarnos del mal” y purificar nuestra visión. “No debemos temer, tenemos en Dios un gran aliado”, aseguró a continuación.

“Él nos ama con amor eterno y siempre tendrá piedad de nosotros. Lo que debemos hacer es dejarnos moldear por Él y realizar en el tiempo las iluminaciones que el Espíritu Santo nos ofrece precisamente a través de la Eucaristía y de la Virgen María, signo de esperanza segura”, remarcó.

Sor Riva insistió en que “la cruz aún puede salvarnos, una cruz acogida y ofrecida”, reiterando con esperanza que “aún podemos vencer” al mal. La religiosa finalizó su discurso posando su mirada sobre María, quien “nos custodia en nuestros fracasos y en nuestras potencialidades, como custodia al Niño que lleva en su regazo”.

“Jesús nos educa a reencontrar los caminos de la esperanza, fijando ante todo la mirada en el Pan Eucarístico, para sacar fuerza del pasado, interpretar de modo original el presente y apostar por el futuro”, concluyó.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH ON FATHER'S DAY

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect all the fathers who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done. -St. John XXIII

ORACION A SAN JOSE POR EL DIA DEL PADRE

San José, padre adoptivo de Jesús, Custodio de la Sagrada Familia, Hoy frente a tu imagen queremos pedirte que intercedas por todos los padres del mundo. Que eduquen a sus hijos en el amor de Dios como tú lo hiciste, que les enseñen a escuchar Tu Palabra y a vivir según tu voluntad. Que junto a sus esposas les brinden un hogar donde el amor y el respeto sean el pan de cada día como en la Sagrada Familia. Que nunca les falte la salud y el trabajo digno para llevar el sustento necesario a sus casas. Que sepan disfrutar de los momentos de alegría y tristeza. Y que al final del recorrido en esta vida se vean acompañados por el amor de los suyos. Amén
