INFORMATIONS BW STREET WORKSHOP BASE AND PRO FOR PHOTO AMATEURS

The photography course is designed for all amateur photographers who are approaching street photography and in particular that created in black and white.

Suitable for both those who want to start and those who already have some experience and want to improve their photography through a more in-depth approach aimed at their own style through street portraiture or street storytelling style.

There are two different types of courses available for learning this segment of photography. The BASE course and the PRO course, both have the same format both in terms of duration and cost and both courses will be prepared individually for each registered participant and carried out by both photographers.

To participate in the photography course you must be of age +18, register online on the official website theroadphotographer.com and make the online payment of EURO.100,00 (the course registration fee), in the modality indicated in the registration form.
