Course Descriptors:

NCCP Safe Sport:

The Safe Sport Training module developed by the Coaching Association of Canada (CAC) will help anyone involved in sport identify and prevent situations of maltreatment. CAC's Safe Sport Training is an accredited education program of the Abuse-Free Sport program and is aligned with the UCCMS.

NCCP Understanding the Rule of Two

The goal of the Rule of Two is to ensure all interactions and communications are open, observable and justifiable. It is one of three pillars of the Responsible Coaching Movement, along with background screening and ethics training.

After completing the Understanding the Rule of Two eLearning module, participants will:

- Have a solid understanding of the Rule of Two
- Improve their ability to assess and implement preventive measures
- Be aware of questions to ask to determine their sport organization's policies

Applying the Rule of Two in sport environments provides many benefits, including:

- Increasing the safety and security of all participants
- Reducing the risk of an incident of abuse
- Protecting everyone, including coaches and volunteers
- Reducing a sport organization's liability
- Providing additional help if there's an accident or emergency

NCCP Making Headway

The NCCP Making Head Way in Sport eLearning module is designed to empower coaches, parents and participants with the knowledge and skills needed to prioritize participant safety when it comes to concussions. Backed by extensive concussion research, and aligned with the Canadian Guideline on Concussion in Sport, this comprehensive course provides a thorough understanding on what to do to prevent concussions, how to effectively recognize the signs and symptoms of a concussion, what steps are
