CHARITABLE GIFT RECEIPTS AS APPLICABLE BY LAW WILL BE PROVIDED WITHIN 2 WEEKS OF THE CONCLUSION OF THE EVENT.

CRA GUIDELINES

Speech and Debate Canada Foundation is grateful to each donor/partner of our Annual Golf Tournament Fundraiser, and we are pleased to recognize and receive every donation to the full extent permitted by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). As a registered charity, we are bound by both the letter and spirit of the charitable tax law and will not knowingly do anything that might put our registered status at risk.

Donors of items to be used as prizes at the tournament may be entitled to official donation receipts if the gifts comply with the CRA's regulations and if a fair market value can be established under CRA regulations; the onus of determining fair market value rests solely on the charity issuing the donation receipt. CRA will not accept an evaluation made by the donor. A donor who purchases an item to donate to the tournament at wholesale or retail cost must supply a detailed bill of sale, invoice, statement, cash register receipt, or equivalent with evidence that he/she has paid for the item. A packing slip will not suffice. A donation receipt can be issued if the claim is supported by such documentation but only for the pre-tax amount.

Gifts of art, antique furniture, jewelry, "classic" automobiles, memorabilia, fine wines and the like (where a fair market assessment is not readily available) must be appraised by an independent third party who is generally recognized as having expertise in the particular field in question, and who is acceptable to both the donor and Speech & Debate Canada Foundation. Appraisals for insurance purposes are not acceptable to CRA. Depending on the value of the piece(s), S&DCF may require two or more third party appraisals. As well, S&DCF will require an additional form to be completed and signed by the donor confirming whether or not the item was acquired within the past three years. If the item was acquired within the past three years, the tax donation amount cannot exceed the lesser of the cost to the donor and the fair market value established by the appraiser.

Hospitality gifts, such as dinner at people's homes or similar items, are considered by CRA to have no comparable market value and therefore a receipt can only be issued for the actual cost of items purchased to support the donation, such as the food for a meal and must be supported by appropriate invoices, cash register receipts or their equivalents.

Gifts of time at vacation properties, on boats, and the like are considered by CRA to be a gift of service as the title to the property does not change. To receive a donation receipt for this type of gift, S&DCF must be invoiced and pay for the service at its market value. The donor can then voluntarily return the same amount as a cash donation and receive a tax receipt. The value should be agreed to be fair and reasonable by both the donor and S&DCF.

THE POINTS ABOVE DEAL WITH SEVERAL COMMON INSTANCES AND ARE NOT MEANT TO COVER ALL CIRCUMSTANCES. IF YOUR SITUATION IS DIFFERENT, PLEASE DO CONTACT US FOR MORE CLARIFICATION. WE WANT TO ENSURE THAT WE MAKE THE DONOR EXPERIENCE AS PLEASANT AS POSSIBLE AND WILL ENDEAVOUR TO ENSURE THAT WE TAKE CARE OF BOTH THE DONOR AND S&DCF WHILE STAYING WITHIN OUR LIMITATIONS WITH THE CRA.
