General Price List

Effective January 1, 2025

We want to make this process as clear as possible. You are free to choose only the specific goods and services you want. Please note that every funeral service includes a basic fee for our professional services and overhead, which is a required charge. If any legal or other regulations require an item you didn't specifically request, we will explain why both in person and on your written statement.

Basic Services of Funeral Director and Staff — $2,995.00

This charge is for our basic fee, which is non-declinable. It includes the first response of our staff for the initial request for service, it also includes but is not limited to, consultations and arrangements with the family, clergy, cemetery, crematories, and others as required to Facilitate the handling of selected funeral services such as: recording vital records, the preparation, filling and securing of death certificates, placing obituaries and death notices, placing online web information, obtaining necessary authorizations and permits. In addition to this fee is the inclusion of our basic operating fees relative to the daily operating expenses such as: maintenance, taxes, insurances, utility costs, and accounting fees. This fee for our basic services will be added to all funeral contracts (This fee is already included in our charges for Immediate Cremation, Immediate Burial, Receiving and Forwarding of remains).

Transfer of Deceased to the Funeral Home $ 395.00

If additional assistance is needed, such as a residence $ 100.00
